

DOWNLOAD PDF 1845-1890. CATALOGUE OF PHI ALPHA SOCIETY . ILLINOIS COLLEGE.

Chapter 1 : Phi Alpha Literary Society - Infogalactic: the planetary knowledge core

Search the history of over billion web pages on the Internet.

He attended Jubilee College from to , and Illinois College from to . An eighth man associated with this founding was: Ross was the youngest child of Ossian M. Ross , Illinois pioneer and founder of Lewistown, Illinois, and he was a brother of Hon. Ross , a U. Representative from Illinois, and Leonard F. Ross attended Canton College from to and then Illinois College from to . He served with the rank of private, enlisted on July 4, , and was mustered out on May 26, . He practiced medicine in Havana, Illinois , for four years, and then returned to Canton, Illinois , to devote his entire time to managing his drugstore. Ross died in Canton [1] [5] and was interred in Greenwood Cemetery in that city. As a result, Lincoln came to Jacksonville, Illinois and delivered a speech entitled "Discoveries and Inventions" on February 11, . Jayne chronicled what happened next in an address delivered to the Grand Army Hall and Memorial Association on February 12, . The subject of the debate was prohibition. This event was celebrated in on the th anniversary of Illinois College with another debate against Knox College. This time the subject was "Resolved: That the Electoral College Should be Abolished. Phi Alpha members debated on both sides of the question of slavery and according to the late president of the college Charles Rammekamp, "the students who in later years got into trouble with the faculty on issues relating to the slavery question were usually members of Phi Alpha". Operations True to its purpose, Phi Alpha hosts a number of literary functions throughout the year. Each semester, three judged Literary Productions are held. These judged meetings consist of five pieces given by society members to an audience. Pieces range from opinionated speeches to research presentations to original fiction. Also a Poet who is elected each semester will recite an original poem, and an impromptu speech is given on a subject revealed by the Critic during the meeting. A similar kind of meeting called a Cooperative Literary Meeting is held once a semester. It is composed of three Phis and three Illinois College faculty or staff members. This is intended to develop a stronger relationship with the campus community, and it provides a learning opportunity for the membership. Phi Alpha also hosts public debates in the pursuit of the strengthening of communication skills. These meetings are intended to direct the everyday operations of Phi Alpha and also to serve the mission of Phi Alpha by practicing democratic principles. Representative from Illinois, Representative from Mississippi, 6th District, Representative from Illinois, 20th District, District Court [35] Samuel W. Often, such a person is first invited to give a literary production to the Phi Alpha membership. Abraham Lincoln , U. President, , inducted February 4, . President, , inducted October 14, . Senator, , Democratic presidential nominee candidate, , inducted . Senator, inducted June,

DOWNLOAD PDF 1845-1890. CATALOGUE OF PHI ALPHA SOCIETY . ILLINOIS COLLEGE.

Chapter 2 : Maj James Francis Hardin () - Find A Grave Memorial

admitted Alpha he held attended the common attended the public August Beardstown became a freshman became a student Brown Cass Cass county Chandlerville Charles Chicago class of Illinois College in daughter December degree of B.A. department of Illinois died district schools early education Edward elected engaged in farming entered.

An eighth man associated with this founding was: He was the youngest child of Ossian M. Ross , Illinois pioneer and founder of Lewistown. Pike Ross was a brother of Hon. Ross , a U. Representative from Illinois, and Leonard F. He enlisted on July 4, , and was mustered out on May 26, He practiced medicine in Havana, Illinois , for four years, and then returned to Canton to devote his time to managing his drugstore. Chipperfield , a U. Ross died in Canton[1][5] and was interred in Greenwood Cemetery in that city. As a result, Lincoln came to Jacksonville, Illinois and delivered a speech entitled "Discoveries and Inventions" on February 11, Jayne chronicled what happened next in an address delivered to the Grand Army Hall and Memorial Association on February 12, The subject of the debate was prohibition. This event was celebrated in on the th anniversary of Illinois College with another debate against Knox College. This time the subject was "Resolved: That the Electoral College Should be Abolished. Phi Alpha members debated on both sides of the question of slavery and according to the late president of the college Charles Rammelkamp, "the students who in later years got into trouble with the faculty on issues relating to the slavery question were usually members of Phi Alpha". Operations True to its purpose, Phi Alpha hosts a number of literary functions throughout the year. Each semester, three judged Literary Productions are held. These judged meetings consist of five pieces given by society members to an audience. Pieces range from opinionated speeches to research presentations to original fiction. Also a Poet who is elected each semester will recite an original poem, and an impromptu speech is given on a subject revealed by the Critic during the meeting. A similar kind of meeting called a Cooperative Literary Meeting is held once a semester. It is composed of three Phis and three Illinois College faculty or staff members. This is intended to develop a stronger relationship with the campus community, and it provides a learning opportunity for the membership. Phi Alpha also hosts public debates in the pursuit of the strengthening of communication skills. These meetings are intended to direct the everyday operations of Phi Alpha and also to serve the mission of Phi Alpha by practicing democratic principles. Representative from Illinois, " Representative from Mississippi, 6th District, " Representative from Illinois, 20th District, " District Court "[35] Samuel W. Often, such a person is first invited to give a literary production to the Phi Alpha membership. Abraham Lincoln , U. President, " , inducted February 4, President, " , inducted October 14, Senator, " , Democratic presidential nominee candidate, , inducted Senator, inducted April 2, Everett McKinley Dirksen , U. Senator, inducted June,

Chapter 3 : Urbane Ewing Robinson () - Find A Grave Memorial

Note: Citations are based on reference standards. However, formatting rules can vary widely between applications and fields of interest or study. The specific requirements or preferences of your reviewing publisher, classroom teacher, institution or organization should be applied.

An eighth man associated with this founding was: He was the youngest child of Ossian M. Ross , Illinois pioneer and founder of Lewistown. Pike Ross was a brother of Hon. Ross , a U. Representative from Illinois, and Leonard F. He enlisted on July 4, , and was mustered out on May 26, He practiced medicine in Havana, Illinois , for four years, and then returned to Canton to devote his time to managing his drugstore. Chipperfield , a U. Ross died in Canton [1] [5] and was interred in Greenwood Cemetery in that city. As a result, Lincoln came to Jacksonville, Illinois and delivered a speech entitled "Discoveries and Inventions" on February 11, Jayne chronicled what happened next in an address delivered to the Grand Army Hall and Memorial Association on February 12, The subject of the debate was prohibition. This event was celebrated in on the th anniversary of Illinois College with another debate against Knox College. This time the subject was "Resolved: That the Electoral College Should be Abolished. Phi Alpha members debated on both sides of the question of slavery and according to the late president of the college Charles Rammelkamp, "the students who in later years got into trouble with the faculty on issues relating to the slavery question were usually members of Phi Alpha". Operations[edit] True to its purpose, Phi Alpha hosts a number of literary functions throughout the year. Each semester, three judged Literary Productions are held. These judged meetings consist of five pieces given by society members to an audience. Pieces range from opinionated speeches to research presentations to original fiction. Also a Poet who is elected each semester will recite an original poem, and an impromptu speech is given on a subject revealed by the Critic during the meeting. A similar kind of meeting called a Cooperative Literary Meeting is held once a semester. It is composed of three Phis and three Illinois College faculty or staff members. This is intended to develop a stronger relationship with the campus community, and it provides a learning opportunity for the membership. Phi Alpha also hosts public debates in the pursuit of the strengthening of communication skills. These meetings are intended to direct the everyday operations of Phi Alpha and also to serve the mission of Phi Alpha by practicing democratic principles. Representative from Illinois, " Representative from Mississippi, 6th District, " Representative from Illinois, 20th District, " District Court " [35] Samuel W. Often, such a person is first invited to give a literary production to the Phi Alpha membership. Abraham Lincoln , U. President, " , inducted February 4, President, " , inducted October 14, Senator, " , Democratic presidential nominee candidate, , inducted

DOWNLOAD PDF 1845-1890. CATALOGUE OF PHI ALPHA SOCIETY . ILLINOIS COLLEGE.

Chapter 4 : Full text of " Catalogue of Phi Alpha Society Illinois College"

*Catalogue of Phi Alpha Society Illinois College, Volume 23 [Illinois College. Phi Alpha Society] on calendrierdelascience.com FREE shipping on qualifying offers. This is an.*

Catalogue of Phi Alpha Society Phi Alpha Society, Illinois College James Francis Hardin b. He entered Illinois College in and left in After reading law with Hon. Lyman Lacey, of Havana, Illinois he was admitted to the bar and until practiced in Illinois and Texas. For several years preceding he was a circuit attorney in southwest Texas, and then removed to Springfield, MO. In he went to Carthage, MO. Price becoming his wife. He left a family of four daughters and two sons. Hardin, who had a lucrative practice of wide range, was a man of dauntless courage, iron will, and yet great generosity. Being a self-made man he took pleasure in assisting all worthy young men that he could. He was a cultured and refined man, having a great love for his home and family. And therein lies a tale. Hardin was the second owner of the Spencer House, and was alleged to be involved in some shady dealings. Both were cleared at the trial, according to the Missouri life story. No much is know of James F. A James Hardin of the right age 23, appears in the census of Lawrence with a wife Permelia, 18, and a young son, Carroll C. He was born in Kentucky. Hardin was married to Miss Sue E. Price, in Lawrence county, on November 5, Hardin appears to have moved to Springfield. John Thomas Teel went to Springfield about , and practiced with Maj. James Hardin until , when he Teel located in Mt. Louis died of the croup at the home Judge Price of Mount Vernon. Hardin located in Carthage in The had one son, John Montgomery, and she died 24 days after his birth. Her funeral was held at the home of her mother, Mrs. She was survived by 5 children evidently John Montgomery was not included , and was buried at the Mount Vernon Cemetery. VanGilder in notes: Phelps twice in a court room, who recovered Phelps had been elected to state legislature in Hardin was gunned down by blasts from shotguns on 3 February when going home. His widow signed a complaint against William H. Phelps with an arrest made. Both acquitted on 28 September, Hardin, son-in-law of the Honorable John C. Price, served as Circuit Attorney. Hardin undoubtedly brought some excitement into the proceedings. Phelps in the courthouse at Carthage in View From the Courthouse: Abstracts of Lawrence County, Mo. Carthage, Missouri by gunshot. Susan "Sue" Elizabeth Price b:

Chapter 5 : Phi Alpha Literary Society - Wikipedia

*Catalogue of Phi Alpha Society Illinois College [Jacksonville Ill. Phi Illinois College] on calendrierdelascience.com FREE shipping on qualifying offers. This is a reproduction of a book published before*

Chapter 6 : Catalogue of Phi Alpha Society Illinois College - Google Books

Read " Catalogue of Phi Alpha Society Illinois College" by Illinois College, Jacksonville, Ill. Phi Alpha Society with Rakuten Kobo.

Chapter 7 : Search Results | The Online Books Page

About this Book Catalog Record Details. Catalogue of Phi Alpha Society Illinois College. Illinois College, Jacksonville, Ill.

Chapter 8 : Menard County, Illinois: Surnames

Phi Alpha (ÎÎ') is a men's Literary Society founded in at Illinois College in Jacksonville, calendrierdelascience.com conducts Business Meetings, Literary Productions, and other activities in Beecher Hall, the oldest college building in the state of Illinois.

DOWNLOAD PDF 1845-1890. CATALOGUE OF PHI ALPHA SOCIETY .
ILLINOIS COLLEGE.

Chapter 9 : Catalogue of Phi Alpha Society Illinois College - Details - Trove

Title: Catalogue of Phi Alpha Society Illinois College. View holdings at the UIUC Library | MARC xml: Publisher: Jacksonville, Illinois.