

Chapter 1 : Logic of English - Spelling Rules

David Logan: " When the dictionary lists two alternate spellings of a word, " this wording suggests there are three spellings one 'regular' and two 'alternates'? No, this suggests that there are 2 spellings of the word that alternate, like a sign that spins with one spelling on one side, another spelling on the other.

The vowel says its name because of the E. Rule 13 Drop the silent final E when adding a vowel suffix only if it is allowed by other spelling rules. Rule 14 Double the last consonant when adding a vowel suffix to words ending in one vowel followed by one consonant only if the syllable before the suffix is accented. Rule 15 Single vowel Y changes to I when adding any ending, unless the ending begins with I. Rule 19 To make a verb past tense, add the ending -ED unless it is an irregular verb. Rule 21 To make a noun plural, add the ending -S, unless the word hisses or changes; then add -ES. Occasional nouns have no change or an irregular spelling. Rule 22 To make a verb 3rd person singular, add the ending -S, unless the word hisses or changes; then add -ES. Only four verbs are irregular. Rule 23 Al- is a prefix written with one L when preceding another syllable. Rule 24 -Ful is a suffix written with one L when added to another syllable. Rule 25 DGE is used only after a single vowel which says its short first sound. Rule 26 CK is used only after a single vowel which says its short first sound. Rule 27 TCH is used only after a single vowel which does not say its name. Phonograms ending in GH are used only at the end of a base word or before the letter T. Rule 30 We often double F, L, and S after a single vowel at the end of a base word. Occasionally other letters also are doubled. Rule 31 Schwa Rules Read about the importance of spelling rules and the benefits of systematic and complete phonics instruction in our Research section. Did you know our curriculum is based, in part, on these spelling rules?
