Well hold on tight to those who help you at the hour of need. You know very well, how people usually are always there in your happy hours but when it is about those sad moments they at once disappear like a cloud as if they never existed. Yes, they are maybe the fair weather friends only and there is nothing worse than having those friends that are present around in the guise of friends. God save us from all such negativity and make us radiate a positive halo around us so a good clan could accompany us and be with us when we need them. Let us be more giving and do not complaint if anything goes wrong because of fate and fortune. Being a designer myself, I kind of know the struggle a learner should and has to do in this field therefore I love to accommodate as much beginners as possible so just in case if they get stuck I can be a ray of light for them.
