Steve Shirley This is a list of quotes that I have found from many different sources over the years that have inspired me, encouraged me, given me hope, and strengthened my faith. I pray these will bless you. A man of God in the will of God is immortal until His work is done. When love has gone out of a marriage, it is better to get divorced. It is better for the children for the unhappy couple to divorce than to raise their children in the atmosphere of an unhappy marriage. Divorce is the lesser of two evils. You owe it to yourself. God led me to this divorce. Sproul Islam is a religion in which God requires you to send your son to die for him. Christianity is a faith in which God sends his son to die for you. Will you pass the test or have the monies? The strong Christian fears God, not man. The weak Christian fears man too much, and God too little. Tell Him you have a plan. I will live for God. If no one else does, I still will. Sproul If you are not as close to God as you used to be, who moved? Moody Everyone says forgiveness is a lovely idea, until they have something to forgive. Lewis Jesus Christ did not come into this world to make bad people good; He came into this world to make dead people live. Smith Any place you can take Jesus Christ with you is ok to go. Vernon Mcgee A revival is the church falling in love with Jesus Christ all over again. Vernon Mcgee No one is going to be powerful in their ministry if they are hiding something that they are afraid people will find out at any moment. That is cool, then I will go to Christ. Ok Paul, we are going to let you live. That is great, then I can witness Christ. Ok, then we will torture you. That is fine, then I will receive a reward in Heaven one day. Neither does he have anything to die by. Vernon Mcgee If lips and life do not agree, the testimony will not amount to much. You sit still and trust the engineer. His house is now a distribution center for Bibles in many languages. I thought I was the only one. Lewis A dog barks when his master is attacked. If you have only the Spirit, you blow up. But if you have both, you grow up. The difference is that now we flaunt it. It used to be done in secret, but now it is done in the open. Vernon Mcgee paraphrase Every inch of ground we refuse to take with God, we surrender to the enemy. Just as the scars of Jesus convinced Thomas, perhaps your scars will convince someone today. The truth is, worshippers of God are made during dark, stormy nights. And how we respond to our storms determines just what kind of worshippers we are. Yet a glimpse is enough. Chesterton If you take care of yourself and walk with integrity, you may be confident that God will deal with those who sin against you. God will one day turn your persecution into praise. Lewis If we ever forget that we are one Nation Under God, then we will be a nation gone under. Vernon Mcgee If a sinner comes into your assembly or you otherwise come into contact with him, remember that he is a human being for whom Christ died. He stands at the foot of the cross, just as you stand at the foot of the cross. Bruce As we pour out our bitterness, God pours in His peace. Meyer If the church marries herself to the spirit of the times, she will find herself a widow in the next generation. Lewis I know, perhaps as well as anyone, what depression means, and what it is to feel myself sinking lower and lower. Yet at the worst, when I reach the lowest depths, I have an inward peace which no pain or depression can in the least disturb. Trusting in Jesus Christ my Savior, there is a blessed quietness in the deep caverns of my soul, through upon the surface, a rough tempest may be raging, and there may be little apparent calm. Ryle The family that prays together stays together. If you are not content with what you have, you would not be satisfied if it were doubled. Crowley The really great man is the who makes every man feel great. Chesterton A hypocrite is a person who acts differently on Sunday morning. It is by costly, self-denying Christian practice that we show the reality of our faith. A trusting expectation that God is going to keep His word. God loved us even when we were still His enemies cf. Lewis Are you weak? How is your relationship with God? I believe the greater the pressure, the greater the need for time alone with Him. Nor have we any right to boast over them; for, by nature, and of ourselves, we are no better than they. He would not be like His Lord if he had not. If we were without enemies we might fear that we were not the friends of God, for friendship of the world is enmity to God. Put one little tallow in the middle of a large hall, and it will give a good deal of light. Moody The Bible is a compass, pointing you in the right direction. Vernon Mcgee Christ is more concerned about what we do with Him than for Him. And any part of the Bible can only be properly explained in reference to the whole Bible. Bruce Train up a child in the way he should go- but be sure you go that way yourself. Sproul No Jesus, no peace. Know Jesus, know peace. And yet, the age of persecution was the greatest period of church growth in history. Lewis The Christian ideal has not been tried and found wanting. It has been found difficult and left untried. Chesterton The safest place to be is within the will of God. At times He lets you proceed, but He will never let you go too far without discipline to bring you back. In your relationship with God, He may let you make a wrong decision. He guides you back to the right path. Meyer Anxiety does not empty tomorrow of its sorrows, but only empties today of its strength. It is since Christians have largely ceased to think of the other world that they have become so ineffective in this. Lewis When we change the message of God, we change the God of the message. Friend, have you ever tried being alone? That is where God will meet with you. Take the Word of God and go off alone with Him. It will do you a lot of good. Vernon Mcgee When it seems as if God is far away, remind yourself that He is near. Nearness is not a matter of geography. The more we become like the Lord, the nearer He is to us. We want a church that will move the world. Chesterton Not until we take God seriously will we ever take sin seriously. Sproul Prayer is when you talk to God; meditation is when you listen to God. Moody Someone has said that the marks of a strong church are wet eyes, bent knees, and a broken heart. Do overgenerous deeds, acts beyond reimbursement. Do a deed for which you cannot be repaid. Everett Koop former Surgeon General We are nowhere forbidden to laugh. It is good for me to have been afflicted, that I might know how to speak a word in season to one that is weary. Ryrie We are challenged these days, but not changed; convicted, but not converted. We hear, but do not; and thereby we deceive ourselves.

Chapter 2 : Inspirational Quotes/Encouraging Quotes

Mix - Hezekiah Walker New Video "Every Praise" YouTube I give myself away and Here I am to worship w/ lyrics - William McDowell - Duration: 5:05, views.

And praise benefits us, too. When we praise God, we make room in our hearts and minds for Him to come in. Praise lifts our spirits and drives away the devil. So sing, dance, or lift your hands – do whatever you can to praise the Lord! John Piper 19 Doth not all nature around me praise God? If I were silent, I should be an exception to the universe. Doth not the thunder praise Him as it rolls like drums in the march of the God of armies? Do not the mountains praise Him when the woods upon their summits wave in adoration? Doth not the lightning write His name in letters of fire? Hath not the whole earth a voice? And shall I, can I, silent be? Charles Spurgeon Sing to him, sing praises to him; tell of all his wondrous works! Tozer 15 If we would talk more about the Lord and praise Him, we would have less time to talk about ourselves. DeHaan 14 Worship is the submission of all our nature to God. It is the quickening of conscience by His holiness, the nourishment of the mind with His truth, the purifying of the imagination of His beauty, the opening of the heart to His love, the surrender of the will to His purpose. William Temple 13 I always give all the glory to God, but I do not forget that He gave me the privilege of ministering from the first to a praying people. Charles Spurgeon 12 Through him then let us continually offer up a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that acknowledge his name. Faber 10 Whatever troubles are weighing you down are not chains. They are featherweight when compared to the glory yet to come. Joni Eareckson Tada 9 We would worry less if we praised more. Thanksgiving is the enemy of discontent and dissatisfaction. He knows so well what His love and grace are to us that He must expect us to praise Him. Wigram 7 Jesus is moved to happiness every time He sees that you appreciate what He has done for you. Faith grows as you praise the Lord. By grace we learn to sing, and in glory we continue to sing. What will some of you do when you get to heaven, if you go on grumbling all the way? Do not hope to get to heaven in that style. But now begin to bless the name of the Lord. John Piper 2 Satan so hates the genuine praise of Christ that his fiery darts of discouragement are not effective against us when we respond in praise. William Thrasher Let everything that has breath praise the Lord!

Chapter 3 : Praising God in All Circumstances - What The Bible Says

About Praising God By Betty Miller One of the most important keys that will make it possible for us to walk in kingdom living is our expression of praise. Praise is the will of God, and heaven overflows with it. And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great. And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honor to him: In 1 Thessalonians 5: In every thing give thanks: This verse does not mean that we are to thank God for bad things and tragedies that come our way. It means that we are to remain joyful no matter what is happening in our lives because we have the Lord, and in Him we shall overcome no matter what the devil is trying to do to us. The Lord does not want us to thank Him for the bad things that happen to us because He did not send them. He is not the author of evil. It is the will of God for us to rejoice no matter what comes. It is not the will of God to receive evil things as from Him. It is an insult to God to thank Him for accidents, sickness, tragedy, etc. He does not send those things to us, the devil does. We are told to resist the devil, and submit to God James 4: Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. If he can get people to believe it is from the Lord, he has an easier time convincing them of his next lie, that God has failed them and deserted them. He just attacks different areas to get at different people. Our prayers should be in an attitude of praise even in the midst of our trials. Show me what I need to do, Lord. Show me the door that I have opened to the enemy. I resist him in the name of Jesus, and I command him to leave with all of his oppression and attacks. Jesus, You are the Lord of my life, and I submit to You and will never deny You no matter what happens. They begin to question God and even become mad at Him. We can even open the door for the enemy to come against us by not having a cheerful and rejoicing heart. We may complain and gripe to God about our plight in life instead of using the weapons He has given us to overcome the devil. One of the greatest weapons is our weapon of praise. Sacrifice of Praise David in writing the Psalms expresses many praises to the Lord. Psalm 34 is a typical psalm of praise: I will bless the Lord at all times: My soul shall make her boast in the Lord: O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together. I sought the Lord, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears. We are to bless Him when things go wrong, too. We are to boast in the Lord even when all looks bleak. I trust You, Lord, no matter what I see with my natural eyes. I am looking through the eyes of faith, and I believe You are sending my answer. I love You, Lord, no matter what happens. If we wait until we feel like praising God, we may never do it. Our spirits desire to praise God because of His nature in us. However, the soulish part of us resists that desire, until our carnal minds have been completely renewed in this area. That is why it is important to go ahead and praise God to a point beyond our soulish feelings until we press on into the spirit. We will then sense a real joy, and praise will come forth. Psalm is a wonderful praise psalm: Bless the Lord, O my soul: Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits: The Lord executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed. What kind of benefits do we receive from the Lord? He forgives our sins, heals all our diseases, shows us His love and kindness, is merciful toward us, gives us good things to eat, restores our youth and strength, delivers us from oppression and judges us righteously. We have so much to praise God about because He is a wonderful and loving Father! Healing and Deliverance Through Praise Praise is a wonderful method we can use to bring healing and deliverance to our souls and bodies! Many people are depressed today; one of the quickest ways to receive deliverance from depression is to praise God. We must make our souls bless the Lord when we are not feeling well. It will bring liberation and healing. I will extol thee, O Lord; for thou hast lifted me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me. O Lord my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me. O Lord, thou hast brought up my soul from the grave: Sing unto the Lord, O ye saints of his, and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness. Singing praises can bring us up out of that pit. Music plays an important part in a worship service and we have all experienced how our hearts have been lifted by singing and worshipping in church. We do not have to wait until we go to a service to receive this same benefit. We can worship out of our hearts wherever we are. They sang and praised God, and the Lord did their battling for them. They won the battle without a sword even being drawn. And when he had consulted with the people, he appointed singers unto the Lord, and that should praise the beauty of holiness, as they went out before the army, and to say, Praise the Lord; for his mercy endureth forever. And when they began to sing and to praise, the Lord set ambushments against the children of Ammon, Moab, and mount Seir, which were come against Judah; and they were smitten. It can also be helpful to listen to gospel music when we are fighting a spiritual battle. It will liberate our spirits, too. When we praise and bless God, we find that other people around us respond to that spirit of praise also. Conversely, when we complain and grumble, we exude that kind of spirit and drive people away from us because no one wants to be around a pessimist. Lonely people filled with self-pity have not found the key of praise in their lives. They lack the joy of the Lord and do not make good companions. As we rejoice in God, we spread a spirit of joy to others. If we complain about things, it works against us. No one wants to be around someone who causes them also to get into a bad mood. Let us all bless and praise God and conquer the enemy in this important area. The overcomers in the book of Revelation are praisers, and they sing a new song before the throne. The hundred forty-four thousand seen here are representatives of the tribes of Israel. One of these tribes is the tribe of Judah. Praise is a heavenly characteristic, and if we are to be overcomers, we too will strive to possess this quality. The Bible records many types of prayer and many purposes for prayer. There are prayers for protection, for healing, for unity and for children. There are prayers seeking forgiveness, justice and peace. See more about these many aspects of prayer in our study guide How to Pray. But a major focus throughout the Bible is on prayers of praise. This article looks at examples of prayers of praise that can show us what praise looks like—how to improve the praise section of our prayers in ways that will be pleasing to God. These examples show that praise is not just an empty ritual or an exhibition of shallow emotions. It demonstrates a deep, reverent love for God in heart and mind.

Early prayers of praise The early stories of the Bible are overviews and give more details of what God said than what people said to Him. But here are a few examples of praise before the time of King David: As for the Almighty, we cannot find Him; He is excellent in power, in judgment and abundant justice; He does not oppress. Therefore men fear Him; He shows no partiality to any who are wise of heart. I smile at my enemies, because I rejoice in Your salvation. Many of the 73 psalms that are attributed to David can be categorized both as songs and as prayers, and these public expressions certainly mirror the deep and constant personal contact that David had with his Creator. For You have made him a little lower than the angels, and you have crowned him with glory and honor. For Your mercy reaches unto the heavens, and Your truth unto the clouds. Let Your glory be above all the earth. My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness, and my mouth shall praise You with joyful lips. Because You have been my help, therefore in the shadow of Your wings I will rejoice. My soul follows close behind You; Your right hand upholds me.

Praise in the Prophets Here are a few examples of prayers of praise by the prophets and one by King Nebuchadnezzar, who was the subject of several prophecies. I will exalt You, I will praise Your name, for You have done wonderful things; Your counsels of old are faithfulness and truth. And He changes the times and the seasons; He removes kings and raises up kings; He gives wisdom to the wise and knowledge to those who have understanding. He reveals deep and secret things; He knows what is in the darkness, and light dwells with Him. And those who walk in pride He is able to put down. Those who regard worthless idols forsake their own Mercy. But I will sacrifice to You with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay what I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD. However, some important or public prayers are recorded in the New Testament as examples for us. Here are a few: For He has regarded the lowly state of His maidservant; for behold, henceforth all generations will call me blessed. For He who is mighty has done great things for me, and holy is His name. And His mercy is on those who fear Him from generation to generation. He has put down the mighty from their thrones, and exalted the lowly. He has filled the hungry with good things, and the rich He has sent away empty. He has helped His servant Israel, in remembrance of His mercy, as He spoke to our fathers, to Abraham and to his seed forever.

Chapter 6 : Gospel Lyrics, Black Gospel Lyrics, Christian Lyrics- calendrierdelascience.com

Comment: Very well cared for book. Clean pages, tight binding, cover in good condition with slight fading on spine and some wrinkling on the edges and is bent on the sides toward the text (seems to have protected the pages).

A Psalm of David. For God alone my soul waits in silence; from him comes my salvation. He only is my rock and my salvation, my fortress; I shall not be greatly shaken. How long will all of you attack a man to batter him, like a leaning wall, a tottering fence? They only plan to thrust him down from his high position. They take pleasure in falsehood. They bless with their mouths, but inwardly they curse. Selah For God alone, O my soul, wait in silence, for my hope is from him. For it is good to sing praises to our God; for it is pleasant, and a song of praise is fitting. I will sing of steadfast love and justice; to you, O Lord, I will make music. I will bless the Lord at all times; his praise shall continually be in my mouth. Sing to him a new song; play skillfully on the strings, with loud shouts. Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name! Bless the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits, who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases, who redeems your life from the pit, who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy, Psalm A Maskil of the Sons of Korah. As a deer pants for flowing streams, so pants my soul for you, O God. My soul thirsts for God, for the living God. When shall I come and appear before God? Why are you cast down, O my soul, and why are you in turmoil within me? Hope in God; for I shall again praise him, my salvation Again you shall adorn yourself with tambourines and shall go forth in the dance of the merrymakers. When he comes, he will tell us all things. Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord? And who shall stand in his holy place? He who has clean hands and a pure heart, who does not lift up his soul to what is false and does not swear deceitfully. He will receive blessing from the Lord and righteousness from the God of his salvation. For everyone who asks receives, and the one who seeks finds, and to the one who knocks it will be opened. Whoever abides in the teaching has both the Father and the Son. Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth! Serve the Lord with gladness! Come into his presence with singing! Know that the Lord, he is God! It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise! Give thanks to him; bless his name! For the Lord is good; his steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations.
