

Chapter 1 : Why is God going to release Satan after the years?

Battle of Armageddon. It is actively fought after the millennium and after the final judgment before God. It is actively fought after the millennium and after the final judgment before God. Hell. the righteous will be in the middle of it but we will not be touched by it.

A wide range of sometimes disturbing Abrahamic and related religious texts and traditions have warned humankind of an impending eschatological calamity or catastrophe. Additionally the sacred books of the world not only predict global catastrophe but also an ensuing millennial world peace. A brief consideration will be made of the war of the last days referred to in the canonical Apocalypse, the Book of Revelation, as the battle of Armageddon Rev. The catastrophe The sacred books of the world predict both global catastrophe and world peace. These writings speak about an imminent catastrophic calamity or "apocalyptic upheaval. Yet this secular, politically oriented "lesser peace" is not comparable to that peace which is spiritually rooted; the future truly millennial peace which is more than a virtual cessation of many intractable global conflicts. The Montreal Star of 11 September reported that he had stated that nations would be forced into peace in the 20th century. Humanity would sicken over the cost of warmongering. The religion which culminates in "peace" comes also as a civilisation changing "sword," "woe" or "catastrophe. The following few notes attempt to summarise some key Abrahamic religious predictions of eschatological "catastrophe. Isaiah had it that the whole world would be punished for its evil on the "Day of the Lord" Isa. A horrendous catastrophe is envisaged in Zech And I will put this third into the fire, and refine them as one refines silver, and test them as gold is tested. They will call on my name, and I will answer them. This is not to say, however, that a multitude of apocalyptic predictions presupposing a collapse of the cosmos and an end to existing civilisation do not exist in the New Testament e. Such apocalyptic events as the darkening of the "sun" and the "moon" Mk. The apocalyptic implications of such words of Jesus as "heaven and earth shall pass away: This was tantamount to an apocalyptic "catastrophe. Yea, by the Lord of Lords! There follows mystic "recreation" through the Divine Grace and through the assent to faith of his disciples and followers. In The Promised Day is Come , Shoghi Effendi reckoned the century from the s towards the s was "one of the most cataclysmic periods in the annals of mankind" as far as the "fortunes of royalty are concerned. Its face is turned toward waywardness and unbelief. Such shall be its plight that to disclose it now would not be meet and seemly. Its perversity will long continue. And when the appointed hour is come, there shall suddenly appear that which shall cause the limbs lit. Then, and only then, will the [Divine] Standard be unfurled lit. Soon will the present-day order be rolled up, and a new one spread out in its stead. The day is approaching when We will have rolled up the world and all that is therein, and spread out a new Order in its stead. The battle of Armageddon One of the expressions indicative of end-time "catastrophe" as final conflagration, unique to the New Testament Book of Revelation, is the battle "at the place which is called in Hebrew Armageddon" Rev. In "Hebrew" this signifies an unknown "mountain of Megiddo" cf. Megiddo is, in fact, the name of an ancient city ruined since the 4th Cent. Esdraelon valley; more or less at the foot of or just 7 miles from the southern end of Mt. Armageddon, understood as "Mount Megiddo," is now not infrequently identified with Mount Carmel. The Biblical mention of Megiddo very likely indicates something geographically near Mount Carmel. It was on Mount Carmel that fire was called down to prove that Yahweh was the true God cf. It was there that the false prophets were defeated cf. In an address delivered at Stanford University in October he is reported to have stated, We are on the eve of the battle of Armageddon, referred to in the 16th chapter of Revelation. The time is two years hence, when only a spark will set aflame the whole of Europe. The social unrest in all countries, the growing religious skepticism antecedent to the millennium are already here. Only a spark will set aflame the whole of Europe as is prophesied in the verses of Daniel and in the Book [Rev. Since Megiddo is not far distant from the foot of Mt. Carmel, it could also be taken to be indicative of the Mt. Carmel" against the forces of irreligion. Our swords are the words of love and life. Our armaments are the invisible armaments of Heaven. We are fighting against the forces of darkness. O my soldiers, my beloved soldiers! Have no fear of defeat; do not have failing hearts. From the heights of glory he is directing the dramatic engagement. Show the strength of your arms. Ye shall scatter the forces of ignorance. Your war confers life; their war brings death. Your war is the cause of the illumination of all mankind. Your war means victory upon victory. Their war is defeat upon defeat Its swords and its spears are very sharp and pointed; its army keenly bloodthirsty. Echoing the Armageddon scenario he, with almost Churchillian rhetoric, wrote the following in "The Challenging Requirements of the Present Hour": The stage is set. The hour is propitious. The signal is sounded. The initial clash between the forces of darkness and the army of light An Armageddon scenario has continued after world war I. This terrible war could be viewed as having had continuing ramifications on into world war II and beyond. The twin processes of internal disintegration and external chaos" which were being "accelerated" daily and "inexorably moving towards a climax. This terrible war is referred to in its opening lines as "A tempest, unprecedented in its violence, unpredictable in its course" and "catastrophic in its immediate effects. We have no indication of exactly what nature the [coming] apocalyptic upheaval will be; it might be another war. It would be perhaps impossible to find a nation or people not in a state of crisis today. The materialism, the lack of true religion and the consequent baser forces in human nature which are being released, have brought the whole world to the brink of probably the greatest crisis it has ever faced or will have to face. While most notably in the late s and early s he both wrote and spoke of terrible, cataclysmic trials to afflict humanity and destabilise humankind, [53] he nonetheless articulated a variety of possible futures which may or may not be realised. Futurology and "prophecy" involves multiple possible futures. Scores of conflicts currently afflict humanity along with many tokens of international co-operation and reconciliation. Apocalyptic trials have afflicted humanity for most of the 20th century; a century of "light" progress as well as a century of terrible "darkness" calamity. Current and increasing globalisation, is furthermore, both renewing and destabilising. Human history is fundamentally for the furtherance of the unity in diversity of humankind. It recognises various underlying dimensions of "catastrophe"; such as human activities revolving around materialism; racism and excessive nationalism. The decadent state of aspects of contemporary society may be seen to be an aspect of the end-time "catastrophe. Whether or not the many "catastrophes" currently afflicting humanity will precipitate yet another major war is something that cannot be predicted. It is, in fact, only in Revelation It presupposes the reign of the returned Christ and is usually thought to precede the realisation of the "new heaven" and "new earth" prophesied in Revelation The historical placing of the millennium in the complex, multi-faceted eschatological scheme of events has led to a number of theories three of which have come to be labelled as: These varieties of millenarianism all have devout evangelical adherents today and may be briefly and sketchily summed as follows: This view was dominant in the early Christian centuries being articulated by Papias d. The millennium of Rev. Becoming dominant after the conversion of the Roman Emperor Constantine d. There then follows the return of Christ and the resurrection and final judgement. This perspective was espoused by many 19th Protestant century Christian millennial factions. This to some degree, for example, foreshadows the existentially oriented interpretation of New Testament eschatology by the great Marburg theologian Rudolf Bultmann , in which the individual encounters the end-time not as the goal of cosmological history, but by virtue of an openness towards the future in the present. On the basis of such texts as Genesis 2: Notice particularly, my children, the significance of he finished them in six days [Gen. What is meant is, that He is going to bring the world to an end in six thousand years, since with Him one day means a thousand years; witness His own saying, Behold, a day of the Lord shall be as a thousand years [Psalm After that, he rested on the seventh day [Gen 2: Neither in antiquity nor today has the search for a clear cut "original" chronology behind the three major manuscript traditions Masortaic, Samaritan, Septuagint [LXX] yielded satisfactory resolution. Asked the questions, "When is the millennium? Will I see it? It signifieth the beginning of this Manifestation until the end of its predominance throughout the contingent world; because this Cause is great, its powers are growing and its signs are dazzling. Thou shalt see its conquering power, its manifest dominion, its eternal might and its everlasting glory. Hence Shoghi Effendi wrote that the " First there will be an imminent secular peace and later a future global spiritual peace characterised as the "most great peace. Neither is it an era of social or spiritual perfection.

Chapter 2 : The Armageddon and the Millennium of the Light

The Millennium will end in one more short period of rebellion. Then the final destruction of all rebels will take place, leaving the saints, natural and resurrected, in charge of the eternal perfect earth.

Why is God going to release Satan after the years? In number they are like the sand on the seashore. But fire came down from heaven and devoured them. And the devil, who deceived them, was thrown into the lake of burning sulfur, where the beast and the false prophet had been thrown. They will be tormented day and night for ever and ever. Even if we might not be able to answer why God releases Satan, we can suggest some possible reasons and motivations, based on an understanding of the entirety of the Word of God. At the beginning of the Millennium, only believers will be alive Revelation It will be a time of peace unparalleled in history Isaiah 2: Jesus will be ruling on the throne of David, imposing a benevolent theocracy on all of His creation. They will live and repopulate the earth during the Millennial Kingdom. Without the devastation of sin taking its toll, we can imagine the population increase during the Millennium will be enormous, almost incomprehensible. Yet, at the end of the Millennial Reign, Satan is loosed and is able to deceive a vast multitude to follow him in one final rebellion against the Lord of glory and His saints! It seems that the further humanity gets from the end of the Tribulation and the start of the Millennium, the more they will "take for granted" how good they have it, and some may even harbor doubts about the goodness of God. Even though the number who rebel with Satan are said to be "as the sand of the sea" Revelation It will still be a large number of souls who join Satan. Undoubtedly, one of the primary reasons God gives us this picture of what will happen in time is to demonstrate the deep-seated sin nature inherent in all of humanity Jeremiah Additionally, God is trying to tell us something about His nature as displayed during the Millennium. His grace and goodness will be on display continually. But at the end of the years, He will have zero tolerance for rebellion. When it happens, He will show no mercy and offer no "second chances. After this, the final judgment of the dead takes place the Great White Throne Judgment, Revelation Eternity can thus begin with every aspect of sin gone for all time. Finally, God is trying to reinforce some very important lessons concerning Satan himself, especially for believers. First, that he has been and always will be the enemy of humanity. As God has fixed His love on us, Satan has for us a special hatred. All he can give or promise man is death and destruction John Satan is also shown here to be a truly defeated foe, and his ultimate doom is certain, along with the doom of all who follow him. God is trying to remind us that Satan is a created being who is powerless before Him 2 Corinthians All this should encourage believers today to take God at His Word concerning our position in Christ with respect to the devil Matthew 4:

Chapter 3 : Year Millennium Kingdom - Comes After the Tribulation

About. The Countdown site is devoted to exploring the mysteries of Bible prophecies about the "last days" which presage the end of this world as we know it, and to keeping a watchful eye on the "signs of the times" that the Bible indicates will foreshadow these events.

If the world hate you, you know that it hated me before it hated you. And before him shall be gathered all nations: And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left. Then shall the King say to them on his right hand, Come, you blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world: For I was an hungered, and you gave me meat: I was thirsty, and you gave me drink: I was a stranger, and you took me in: Naked, and you clothed me: I was sick, and you visited me: I was in prison, and you came to me. Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we you an hungered, and fed you? When saw we you a stranger, and took you in? Or when saw we you sick, or in prison, and came to you? And the King shall answer and say to them, Truly I say to you, Inasmuch as you have done it to one of the least of these my brothers, you have done it to me. Then shall he say also to them on the left hand, Depart from me, you cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels: For I was an hungered, and you gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and you gave me no drink: I was a stranger, and you took me not in: Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we you an hungered, or thirsty, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister to you? Then shall he answer them, saying, Truly I say to you, Inasmuch as you did it not to one of the least of these, you did it not to me. And these shall go away into everlasting punishment: And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that worked miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone. And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat on the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years, And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal on him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection. Blessed and holy is he that has part in the first resurrection: These are they which follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These were redeemed from among men, being the first fruits to God and to the Lamb. For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace. And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city: And he said to me, Write:

Chapter 4 : WW3 ALERT: Israel's Death Wish and Fake Armageddon – The Millennium Report

WW3 ALERT: Israel's Death Wish and Fake Armageddon Apartheid State of Israel Determined or Destined to Trigger Armageddon?. The Millennium Report. Throughout modern history, there has never been another nation that has launched with impunity unprovoked attacks of naked military aggression like the Apartheid State of Israel.

Christian eschatology Megiddo is mentioned twelve times in the Old Testament , ten times in reference to the ancient city of Megiddo , and twice with reference to "the plain of Megiddo", most probably simply meaning "the plain next to the city". The one New Testament reference to the city of Armageddon found in Revelation Because of the seemingly highly symbolic and even cryptic language of this one New Testament passage, some Christian scholars conclude that Mount Armageddon must be an idealized location. Rushdoony says, "There are no mountains of Megiddo, only the Plains of Megiddo. This is a deliberate destruction of the vision of any literal reference to the place. Thus, "Armageddon" would mean "Mountain of Assembly," which Jordan says is "a reference to the assembly at Mount Sinai, and to its replacement, Mount Zion. The hermeneutical method supports this position by referencing Judges 4 and 5 where God miraculously destroys the enemy of His elect, Israel, at Megiddo, also called the Valley of Josaphat. For this cause, Har Magedon is the symbol of every battle in which, when the need is greatest and believers are oppressed, the Lord suddenly reveals His power in the interest of His distressed people and defeats the enemy. When God grants a little handful of Maccabees a glorious victory over an enemy which far outnumbers it, that is a type of Har-Magedon. Dispensationalism In his discussion of Armageddon, J. Dwight Pentecost has devoted a chapter to the subject, titled "The Campaign of Armageddon", in which he discusses Armageddon as a campaign and not a specific battle , which will be fought in the Middle East. It has been held commonly that the battle of Armageddon is an isolated event transpiring just prior to the second advent of Christ to the earth. The extent of this great movement in which God deals with "the kings of the earth and of the whole world" Rev. The Greek word "polemo", translated "battle" in Revelation This distinction is observed by Trench, see Richard C. Trench , New Testament Synonyms, pp. The use of the word polemos campaign in Revelation The invasion of Israel by the Northern Confederacy "will bring the Beast and his armies to the defense of Israel as her protector". He then uses Daniel to further clarify his thinking: Jerusalem is destroyed as a result of this attack, [22] and, in turn, the armies of the Northern Confederacy are destroyed. Edom, Moab , and Ammon alone escape. Satan is then loosed "for a season" and goes out to deceive the nations, specifically, Gog and Magog. Pentecost describes this as follows: The destiny of the lost is a place in the lake of fire Rev. This lake of fire is described as everlasting fire Matt.

then follows the millennium. Christadelphians [edit] For Christadelphians, Armageddon marks the "great climax of history when the nations would be gathered together 'into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon', and the judgment on them would herald the setting up of the Kingdom of God."

In fact, in all the thousands of years that man has been trying, he has never been able to save himself. But then God is going to step in and straighten things out. Only the direct and forceful intervention of God Himself through the Second Coming of Jesus Christ to set up His own kingdom of righteous rule on earth will ever bring a reign of true perfection, with peace and justice for all. In this final great battle, the forces of God gain a glorious victory over the forces of Satan and defeat him and his Antichrist and False Prophet. Then Jesus Christ will take over this world and organize and rule and run it the way it should have been run if man had yielded to God. The Bible says that this amazing period will last for one thousand years, and therefore it is known to Bible prophecy students as the Millennium, which is Latin for a thousand years. The Bible is full of descriptions of this beautiful millennial period, and in fact, it says even more about the Second Coming of Christ and His rule and reign on the earth as its king than it does about the First Coming. This is the purpose of it all. This is the marvelous happy ending of it all. Nevertheless, some are going to live through it; there will be survivors. So who are these people that His Word says will form whole nations during the Millennium, over whom the born-again saints of God are going to rule with a rod of iron? Granted, either they must be pretty tough, or they must live a pretty charmed life, or the Lord must be extra merciful to them to allow them to live through all that. Perhaps at Armageddon the very worst ones will be killed—the reprobates, those who worshipped the Devil and the Antichrist. Then the rest of the people, those who deserve it and are worthy, will receive another chance. The Lord will set up His kingdom here on earth for a thousand years to try to salvage what He can and who He can and give them another chance, or perhaps their first chance, to see the kingdom of God and hear His voice and His laws and His rules and His words and repent—to believe and receive and accept Him as their king. And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years, and cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled: The Devil will be bound and cast as a prisoner into the bottomless pit for a thousand years, with nobody left to run his business. For a thousand years he will no longer bother us and no longer lead his legions and his demons across the face of the earth to plague the world and its citizens. It is during this thousand years, while the Devil is in prison in the bottomless pit, that the saints—including all the new arrivals who resisted the Antichrist and rejected the Mark of the Beast, choosing rather to give their lives than to deny Christ—will live and reign with Christ. They shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with Him a thousand years. During the Millennium, Jesus is going to reign and rule in person using His followers as His instruments. One of these days, the King is going to come back to claim His kingdom. The kingdom of the most High shall come and shall destroy all the antiChrist kingdoms of the world. His dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and His kingdom that which shall not be destroyed. Whether man likes it or not, God is going to be supreme and Jesus will reign from shore to shore, and we will rule and reign with Him with a rod of iron Revelations 2: No longer will reign the cruel, selfish, dog-eat-dog philosophy which gives the world to the strongest and the mightiest, in which might is right. And many people shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of the Lord, to the house of the God of Jacob; and He will teach us of His ways, and we will walk in His paths: Jesus Christ is going to set up His throne in Jerusalem and make it His millennial capital. And from there He will rule and reign over the earth. Complete disarmament at last! All those chariots and planes and tanks and missiles and bombs are going to be burned up, thank God. The problem is, there is still hell all around us. He shall subdue the people under us, and the nations under our feet. For God is the King of all the earth: God reigneth over the heathen: The world is going to see a righteous judge at last, a righteous ruler, who will have a righteous government. No more corruption, vice, crime, payola, bribery, or crooked judges and crooked politicians, but a righteous government and justice for all. The kingdom of Christ on earth is going to completely cover the whole world. There will be no more big powers and oppressed poor—only the kingdom of Jesus Christ, heaven on earth, fairness and justice for all, and eternal happiness forever. And blessed be His glorious name for ever: Life on earth during the Millennium The reign of Jesus Christ during the Millennium will be a reign of Jesus Christ and His children over what is left of this world and its unsaved populations. The born-again, saved, resurrected saints will be in supernatural bodies, but the rest of the world, those who have been spared and blessed enough to survive into the Millennium, are going to still be in their natural bodies. Therefore life is sort of going to go on as usual in a lot of ways for them. The Millennium will be almost like an extension of this age now, because the world and its people will still be living in time. We will not be bound by time any longer. But those who still remain on the earth, having survived the wrath of God upon the wicked, will still be bound by time and space here on earth just as we were before we left with Jesus. The normal, natural people are going to be the same then as they are now—human beings still in their mortal bodies whom God has blessed by allowing them to live through the horrors that preceded this era. But they will live almost exactly like they are living now. Jesus and His kingdom will be the government, and His followers will be His governors, His officers, His rulers. There will certainly be some cleaning up to do. Seven years to clean up the rubble, debris, and wreckage left behind by the terrible Battle of Armageddon Ezekiel That will be our initial job during the first seven years of the Millennium. But we will, according to His Word. And ye shall be named the Priests of the Lord: And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the thirsty land springs of water. And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by. Paul tells us that the whole earth is groaning today. The whole creation, in a sense, is under the curse of sin and the Devil and his demons and sin and sickness. The day is coming when the field and the trees are going to rejoice. At last the Lord is going to redeem the earth and cause the beautiful Garden of Eden to blossom again as we rule and reign with Christ for a thousand years. The natural unsaved people who survived the Tribulation and wrath-of-God periods will be so amazingly blessed to be able to live during this millennial period at all, as the earth will be relieved of the curse. And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together: You never hear about a wolf lying down with a lamb nowadays, unless the lamb is inside the wolf. Or a leopard lying down with a kid, a little baby goat. Neither have you heard about a little child leading them all. The day is coming again when there will be peace between man and the animals. Even a little child will be able to play with them. The curse will have been at least partially removed and man will no longer be suffering the ill effects of whatever it was that shortened life after the Flood. From creation until the Flood, man was vegetarian, because God said specifically at the time of creation that He had given them every green thing, the herbs and plants and so on, to eat—just vegetables—no meat or flesh of any kind Genesis 1: But after the Flood, that pre-Flood cloud covering that enveloped the earth disappeared and those deadly cosmic rays began to come through. Instead of people living eight or nine hundred or a thousand years, their lifespans were greatly reduced, as they are today. I have such confidence in this book, the Word of God and the words of Jesus and every book and every chapter and every verse in it—I have proven so many of them to be true and have found none of them to ever fail or to be false—that I believe it means exactly what it says. Even the once deadly asps and vipers will almost be like toys for the children to play with—no bite, no sting, no poison, no venom. This, of course, will be a great blessing to the natural flesh-and-blood people of the earth who are still going to till the land and build houses and marry and be given in marriage. Truth shall spring out of the earth; and righteousness shall look down from heaven. What a wonderful place to live! The curse will be removed, all viciousness gone, and all killing and hurting stopped. Life is obviously going to be lengthened to great longevity, as it was before the Flood, when men lived to be nearly a thousand years of age. Everybody will live like Methuselah—for a thousand years Genesis 5: Particularly lots of children and young people who never had a chance and never knew any better, maybe lots of people in non-Christian countries—to give them a chance to hear and see and know the Lord. But during the Millennium, everyone will be reached. How do the waters cover the seas? So the world will be completely covered with the knowledge of the Lord and the righteous kingdom of Jesus Christ. It sounds like this thousand years of the millennial rule and reign of Jesus Christ on earth will be another testing time for those who remain, the unsaved who survived the wrath of God, whom God has blessed with another chance, or perhaps their first chance. It will be a time of learning His laws and His ways and His love. In the face of the visible rule and reign of Christ on earth, His personal appearance to man, His Second Coming in mighty power and glory, His wiping out of the Antichrist and his kingdom and the imprisonment of Satan, and His obvious visible rule and reign, I think some are going to believe and receive who perhaps never heard before. The meek also shall increase their joy in the Lord, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in judgment. And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together: Everyone on earth will see His glorious power and kingdom, and everybody will believe then. It looks to me like the Millennium is going to be another testing time or trying time, a proving ground. We, the saints, who heard the gospel and voluntarily received the Lord, will be running things under the direct supervision of the Lord. I think it will be part of our job to reeducate them in the ways of the Lord. The scriptures definitely confirm that the Millennium is going to be a period of learning for them: The carnally-minded and evil-minded people will still rebel against the Lord. Even though the Devil and all his demons will be bound in the bottomless pit during this thousand-year period of what is going to be like heaven on earth, there will be plenty of people left who still reject the King of kings and His kingdom, who still rebel against His reign and power— sometimes whole nations which will rebel and refuse to obey the commandments of Christ and the dictates of His kingdom and His officers. But the day is coming when, if all else fails and they reject His love, He will rule them with a rod of iron and of force. Not because His love failed, for love never fails. But the happy side is that many in that day, having seen, will believe and will bow and will yield and will obey and will receive with gladness the kingdom of God on earth.

This war is necessitated by the fiendishly evil ambitions of humankind and their evil source of power, Satan. Our Lord Himself tells when this battle will take place: That is, at the end of the Tribulation and before the Millennium. Our Lord will time His coming at the most dramatic point in all history. The Antichrist, the False Prophet, and Satan will inspire the armies of the world to invade Palestine in a gigantic effort to rid the world of the Jews and to fight against Christ. This coming battle before Christ sets up His millennial kingdom is often called "the Battle of Armageddon. And the word "battle" here literally means "campaign" or "war". No war has ever been won by a single battle. In fact, it is possible to lose a battle and still win a war. The war of the great Day of God Almighty takes place in a single day, and the Battle of Armageddon will be just one of the battles of that war. The Battle of Armageddon: This war will encompass more than just the Valley of Megiddo; as we will see, it covers practically all of the land of Palestine. This conflict, when Christ defeats the armies of Antichrist, will be a series of at least 4 campaigns"; therefore it is more properly called "the battle on the great day of God Almighty" see Armageddon ; Rev. This last conflict between Satan and Christ until after the Millennium will find Satan making one more fiendish effort to destroy the promised seed. Satan will order his armies to destroy the entire city of Jerusalem, but Christ will come to deliver her at the last moment, as is clearly seen in Zech. This is the word of the Lord concerning Israel: Judah will be besieged as well as Jerusalem. On that day, when all the nations of the earth are gathered against her, I will make Jerusalem an immovable rock for all the nations. All who try to move it will injure themselves. On that day I will strike every horse with panic and its rider with madness," declares the Lord. They will consume right and left all the surrounding peoples, but Jerusalem will remain intact in her place". On that day I will set out to destroy all the nations that attach Jerusalem" Zech. The Battle of Jehoshaphat: Then I will enter into judgment with them there on behalf of My people and My inheritance, Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations; and they have divided up My land" Joel 3: God dates this battle specifically. It takes place when Israel has been restored to the land. The principals in this battle Hal Lindsey believes is the Israelis and the Palestinians who have attempted to usurp control over a city that holds no genuine significance for them and a land they never particularly wanted until the Jews occupied it again. God names the participants. Are you rendering Me a recompense? But if you do recompense Me, swiftly and speedily I will return your recompense on your head" Joel 3: Tyre, Sidon and the regions of Philistia are the ancestral areas of the modern day Palestinians. God also takes exception to the argument that they claim the city in the name of God Allah , and points out that they were never part of His sworn covenant that deeded it to the descendants of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob forever. The Lord asks pointedly, "Moreover, what are you to Me"? God hardly considers the claim. He rejects the offer and hurls it back contemptuously. God brings to mind the destruction of His Temple, and more specifically, the arrogance and hatred of those who usurped its grounds to build a monument to another deity. After the Temple was destroyed, the Romans scattered the Jews to the far corners of the earth. It was during this Diaspora that the city and the Temple Mount fell into the hands of Islam. God confirms that His prophecy to restore the Jews to the land of Promise has been fulfilled, and that it is from that place, the place He appointed them, that He would gather them to battle and that they would be the instruments of his recompense, or, in common vernacular, payback! This is not the final battle of the War of Armageddon. The War of Armageddon involves the whole world in escalating waves of battles. But Joel sees those he can identify, the nations surrounding Israel. These were the same nations that were currently talking of peace and Oslo agreements, while preparing for war. War they want, and war they are certainly going to get. Bring down, O Lord," "Thy mighty ones. Let the nations be aroused and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat, for there I will sit to judge all the surrounding nations. Come, tread, for the winepress is full; the vats overflow, for their wickedness is great. For the day of the Lord is near in the valley of decision" Joel 3: Note again that the Battle of Jehoshaphat is not the final battle. The Lord gives a gracious promise to sustain the believing remnant who are caught in the middle of the worst conflict of history: But the Lord is a refuge for His people and a stronghold to the sons of Israel" Joel 3: Even in the midst of this horrible carnage, where all that is familiar is being destroyed, God assures the remnant that this will never happen again: So Jerusalem will be holy, and strangers will pass through it no more" Joel 3: Each of the surviving powers in the final global conflict has land armies that have arrived in the area by this time. Most of the Russian and Muslim troops have been annihilated on the mountains of Israel Ezek. Jerusalem was first besieged by an onslaught of the Russian led Muslim alliance, which included units from North and Black Africa. The Gog-Magog attack took the world leader by surprise, and it took him some time to muster the Western armies under his direct command for a counter attack. The scene is devastating. Nuclear and neutron weapons have done serious damage to command and control, supply lines, lines of communication, and entire divisions no longer exist anywhere but on maps. In the confusion, the Bible seems to indicate Jerusalem is captured, recaptured, and captured again, but no one unit is able to hold it. Remember, here we are in the midst of the greatest war in history, and Israel is right in the middle. Nuclear weapons, uncounted millions of invaders, the full force of the wrath of Satan is directed against the Jewish people. And there will be a time of distress such as never occurred since there was a nation until that time; and at that time your people, everyone who is found written in the book, will be rescued" Dan. Not every Jew will survive the war. God says that two thirds of the Jews will perish. And I will bring the third part through the fire, refine them as silver is refined, and test them as gold is tested. That remnant who are "refined as silver is refined" and "tested as gold is tested" will indeed call on the Lord. There is nothing more powerful than prayer. So, that is the military situation as it stands, as the entire Middle East becomes the most heavily contested battlefield in human history. The Battle of Jerusalem: Once begun, the battles are fast and furious. As the Battle of Jehoshaphat draws to an end the Battle of Jerusalem begins. Why should such a little city command such attention? Especially when you consider the fact that only a couple of generations ago, most people in the developed world thought Jerusalem was a mythical city, or a lost city from the Bible. According to the ancient prophets, the battle for the city of Jerusalem will involve forces from every nation on the face of the earth. And all the nations of the earth will be gathered against it" Zech. It is during the battle for Jerusalem that the national redemption of Israel is accomplished. Every promise of God is true, and the covenant God made with Abraham is redeemed. The absolute Biblical proof that destroys the argument of the Dominionists and the Kingdom Now Movement is declared in no uncertain terms. There will be no atheists left among the children of Abraham in that day. The Battle of the Jordan Valley: As the battles rage in Jerusalem and the Valley of Jehoshaphat, what is left of the divisions of the northern army defeated on the mountains of Israel withdraw to regroup. They head down the Jordan Valley near the Dead Sea. This is the valley of decision spoken of by the prophet Joel. All the nations of the world will be represented at this battle. The Jordan Valley will one day contain an army numbering in the hundreds of millions of men. Plus equipment, weapons, artillery pieces, vehicles, the works! All of these last battles happen almost simultaneously. The overall end of the Gog and Magog alliance is annihilation, but yet they can be found in each scenario. The Russians will launch their attack on Israel at the same time as the Kings of the South the pan-Arab confederation , make their push. The Russians will capture key ports, like the one at Haifa that will lead directly into the valley of decision, arriving from the west. Meanwhile the Kings of the East the red Chinese alliance , are arriving from the east into this same valley. The Kings of the South are already there. And the Antichrist and his forces, including the whole of the Western world sadly, that will include America , will be on the march to repel the invaders. This happens on the heels of multiple nuclear attacks, chemical and biological warfare, and the almost certain loss of sophisticated communications technology like satellites, global positioning systems, television and telephones, etc. Undoubtedly, each believes that he is leading an overwhelming force against an enemy in disarray. The Kings of the East are planning to take the Middle East and its oil for themselves. With million men, they certainly believe they have the advantage. Russia thinks it has the advantage of surprise.

Chapter 7 : The Millennium, The Apocalypse, and Armageddon (Paperback) | - World Bible Society

What will happens when Christ returns - the Millennium of peace, God's Judgment, Deliverance, Armageddon and The Earth Made New. Type A person, thing, or event that foreshadows a later, often more important, antitype or fulfillment.

The Armageddon and the Millennium of the Light There are no translations available. In biblical terms, the final battle is called Armageddon. After that, the Nephilim will return to the surface of Earth, torture humans for six months, kill many until only a third of humanity is left. What the prophecies do not say is that all this will not happen at the same time in all parallel and alternate universes -or the whole series of events for that matter. In some universes the Armageddon will be at the astral level and the reign of the Light will arrive without anyone noticing anything. In other universes there will be a third world war, but nothing else before the millennium of the Light arrives. In yet other universes the destruction will go as far as the electromagnetic solar emission, while in others it will unfold all the way through the end. In the universes where only a few of the events take place and the millennium comes, the full series of events will take place after the millennium, when Samael and Lilith are unleashed and the dark forces rebuild their infrastructure. That will be a society of leisure, peace, health and welfare, with all our needs covered, with every service and product free, little work required from us and where we will spend our time traveling and having fun. On the other hand, there will be no true love, everyone will be under mind control, chipped from birth, watched by the Big Brother system, history will be falsified and whoever rebels will get a stronger brainwashing and lest they adapt they will be killed. In the universes where the astral Armageddon is unfolding now, in , the whole series of the physical destructions will occur after the millennium. OK, but what about this universe? This universe has been one of the 5 universes in which the Armageddon has unfolded at the astral level and there has been no global deal. That has happened thanks to the Light workers and warriors, who have managed to cleanse enough people, broken enough spells and killed enough demons, with the help of Archangel Michael. The astral Armageddon began in August and the final battles took place in April and May At the same time all other universes that got the physical Armageddon, which are hundreds of thousands, were also released. The astral Armageddon was actually also physical, as Earth was destroyed many times and all mankind died, but the Local Regulator had the right to make a general restart to the matrix Earth is part of. Here are the most important events: The freemasons, the Illuminati and gradually also the other secret societies were blocked. Samael the devil was bound for a thousand years. He can still make pacts with humans, but he can no longer attack us. Lilith was bound for a thousand years. She can also still make pacts, but not attack. The Council of the Light was established on Earth. Its task is to gradually undo all dark infrastructure and replace it with a light one legal, educational and political-economic system, religions, entertainment and fashion industry, etc. He had a mechanism which with the help of a spell helped him to be reborn within 2 days once dead, but it was broken. More than 1,9 billion clones, doubles, robotoids and androids were gradually eliminated. The big battle of the astral Armageddon against the Earth Nephilim took place. All the Nephilim died and their spirits went to the Light. They were a billion and a half. Agartha was sealed for a thousand years. On Earth, a lot of damage occurred and the Local Regulator made a restart, i. The Galactic Federation was eliminated. It consisted of about 50, planets. Over the course of a year those planets were reduced to only These refused to follow the others, who had become light. They attacked Earth and were completely annihilated. In the battle they used 5 billion spacecraft and billion soldiers. There was another restart. It looked like an octopus, it was more than feet long and its soul level was The Olympian gods had to use special tools to kill it. It cooperated with the New World Order. Samael had about 86, planets and Lilith about , planets - an entire galaxy. Implants from those planets were placed on a large scale in hospital patients, people who took medical tests or got vaccines. The Local Regulator made one more restart. The battle against the rest of the conquering planets that did not belong to Samael, Lilith, or the Galactic Federation took place. They also made deals with humans, implanted them and stole their souls. There were , planets and those who refused to go to the Light and attacked Earth were about The ETs died and went to the Light. The battle against the reptilians, draconians and dragons took place. There were billion draconians, billion reptilians, dragons at soul levels between minus and minus and planets. They used billion spacecraft. All the planets were destroyed and all the aliens died. The chief planet was completely black and the largest of all planets. There lived the ancient serpent that deceived Eve in Eden. Its soul level was , i. Out of that egg were all the reptilians born. The energy of all the children who were eaten up by those reptilians and whose souls were sacrificed went into the egg. The egg was also broken, so no more reptilians can be born. Finally the Tree of evil was also broken and uprooted. The apple was broken too. After each battle there was significant damage on Earth, including a nuclear war and the Local Regulator made several restarts. The Medusa was an extraterrestrial monster that lived in antiquity and petrified anyone who looked at it. It was killed by Perseus, but it had a clone that was created in 42, BC by the Prince of Darkness who reigned in Europe. Its soul level was Moloch was an extraterrestrial owl of a soul level of The political elite of the Illuminati paid tribute to him at the celebration of Walnut Grove and sacrificed children to him. He also promoted NWO plans and was responsible for political and group sex rituals. The Minotaur was another monster of antiquity, a gigantic Nephilim of the Kahreh race, with the head of a bull and a human body that was killed back then by Theseus. It was recreated by cloning and its new version had a soul level of He had human sacrifices made for him and he served the NWO plans. This clone was also created in 42, BC by the Prince of Darkness and his family who reigned in Europe. Two Phoenix ET birds were killed. Its level was The other one was an inverted energy clone of the true Phoenix bird, which was light. It was responsible for politics and for creating wars. The light Phoenix bird was set free. The other clones of the monsters of antiquity were killed, or the original ones: He was the watchdog of Hades, a monster with three heads and a serpent instead of a tail. He guarded the door of Hades, which is located at Cape Tenaro, in Corinth. He was captured by Hercules, but released. He prevented humans from communicating with the Light and remembering their past lives and stopped the dead from breaking their deals. His soul level was It was an aquatic monster, a multi-headed serpent that lived in the Stymphelean Lake, in Argos. It was killed by Hercules. It was cloned in 42 and the one killed now was the clone. It had a soul level of She lived in Corinth and was killed by the hero Bellerophon. The second version of the Chimera was an ET clone of soul level , also manufactured in 42, It was a monstrous lion that lived in Nemea, in the Peloponnese. The new lion was a clone made in 42, They looked like Medusa, with snakes instead of hair, their body covered with dragon scales, with wild boar fangs, golden wings and bronze hands. They were now, because the battle was spiritual and not physical. He was a winged anthropomorphic monster that created hurricanes. He was defeated by Jupiter and thrown into Agartha, but he was not killed. He was killed now. The ones killed now were clones. He was a Nephilim, of the Zahradeh race, anthropomorphic beings with many arms, as we know them from Indian mythology. The one killed now was a clone.

Chapter 8 : Armageddon - The final battle before Christs return

The Battle of Armageddon is not to be confused with the Final Rebellion of Satan at the end of the Millennium Rev When the thousand years are over, Satan will be released from his prison and will go out to deceive the nations in the four corners of the earthâ€”Gog and Magogâ€”to gather them for battle.

He said that mortal man was meant to become immortal that is the plan of his Maker and then live with His Maker eternally. This is a truly mind-blowing concept, but that is what the Bible says. Listen to this secret truth: For when the trumpet sounds, the dead will be raised, never to die again, and we shall all be changed. For what is mortal must be changed into what is immortal; what will die must be changed into what cannot die. So when this takes place, and the mortal has been changed into the immortal, then the scripture will come true: But man will not spend eternity on this earth! The truth is that a New Heaven and a New Earth is prophesied. And it is in the new and perfect earth where God comes and walks with man, as He did in the Garden of Eden. A perfect God-man relationship will be restored. Such prophecies are brief and full of symbolism â€” little detail is revealed. But the concept and promise is there and the caveat is there too! Then I saw a new heaven and a new earth, for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. To the thirsty I will give water without cost from the spring of the water of life. Those who are victorious will inherit all this, and I will be their God and they will be my children. Did you see it? What about those who do not believe and are not thirsty for a relationship with their Creator? But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the vile, the murderers, the sexually immoral, those who practice magic arts, the idolaters and all liars â€” they will be consigned to the fiery lake of burning sulfur. This is the second death. The amazing promise of eternal life with our Creator is conditional. We must first reach out to God through the living Jesus Christ. In doing so our lives will be totally changed. Jesus said this eternal and perfect destiny can be ours by simply believing and trusting in Him. We can of course choose not to believe, and many do so. Before the passing away of the present earth, prophecy strongly suggests that there will be a glorious time of peace on this earth when Jesus returns. And believers will play a major role as immortal beings! It is an agreement with promises of delivery, but also with stipulations and penalty clauses. They were to follow the statutes of holy living, various laws and observe mandated Holy Feasts at their appointed time. Now if you obey Me fully and keep My covenant, then out of all nations you will be My treasured possession. Although the whole earth is Mine, you will be for Me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation. This is confirmed in Deuteronomy 7: If you listen to these commands and obey them faithfully, then the Lord your God will continue to keep his covenant with you and will show you his constant love, as he promised your ancestors. In biblical terminology this contract between God and Israel is often referred to as the Mosaic Covenant. They failed to keep to the ways God had stipulated in the contract. As punishment, her people were sent into captivity by the ferocious Babylonians. And when Jesus came He wept for His people for He knew they were going to suffer and be dispersed amongst the nations. Blessings for Obedience 1 If you fully obey the Lord your God and carefully follow all his commands I give you today, the Lord your God will set you high above all the nations on earth. They will come at you from one direction but flee from you in seven. The Lord your God will bless you in the land he is giving you. You will lend to many nations but will borrow from none. If you pay attention to the commands of the Lord your God that I give you this day and carefully follow them, you will always be at the top, never at the bottom. Curses for Disobedience 15 However, if you do not obey the Lord your God and do not carefully follow all his commands and decrees I am giving you today, all these curses will come on you and overtake you: The Contract Renewed As discussed, Israel failed and broke the contract, and so in the New Testament era the contract was offered to Gentiles â€” namely the church. She has to preach the good news the Gospel. That said, in these end times, a remnant of Israel is once more fulfilling her mission, together with the contracted Gentiles. Today we see the return of the Jews back to their God-given homeland Canaan. We see the establishment of the State of Israel. We see a nation turning to the statutes God laid down under Moses. As a result, the nation of Israel is once more being blessed in the country abundant agriculture, blessed in the city technological innovation and blessed in the sea discovery of large natural resources. In the Creation account of Genesis, we read about a paradise-like garden called Eden, where two important trees were planted by God: These trees seem to have been deliberately planted to test how humans would use their free will. As the story recounts, the first humans failed the test and were driven away from Paradise. The Lord God made all kinds of trees grow out of the ground " trees that were pleasing to the eye and good for food. In the middle of the garden were the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of Good and Evil. A river watering the garden flowed from Eden; from there it was separated into four headwaters. The name of the first is the Pishon; it winds through the entire land of Havilah, where there is gold. The gold of that land is good; aromatic resin and onyx are also there. The name of the second river is the Gihon; it winds through the entire land of Cush. The name of the third river is the Tigris; it runs along the east side of Ashur. And the fourth river is the Euphrates. The Lord God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to work it and take care of it. It seems that mortality was the consequence of eating the fruit of the Tree of Knowledge of Good and Evil. Mortality was the consequence of the wrong free will choice. Would they have been given the gift of immortality as a reward? Would they have continued to live and not die? It seems that, given free choice free will, mankind made the wrong choice. We can dismiss the Genesis account as myth, and many do. At the outset it seems unfair on the rest of mankind. But it does explain everyday experience. It explains the chosen paths of Hitler and Wilberforce for example; one man destroyed humanity whilst the other helped humanity. In a fallen world who can deny that man can do either? The Genesis account also gives hope for mortal man. The Bible says the whole of creation, including mankind, will return to a state of paradise in the future. The Apostle John wrote in the book of Revelation that Eden will be restored and populated by all who believe in Jesus. On each side of the river stood the tree of life, bearing twelve crops of fruit, yielding its fruit every month. And the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. No longer will there be any curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city, and his servants will serve him. They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. There will be no more night. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light. And they will reign for ever and ever. Why did the Creator of the universe give man the mandate to procreate and proliferate? Think about the billions of humans born since the world began. What were they born for? Where have they all gone? What did they live for? Did their lives have any real meaning? The answer to these questions is found in a mystery: He wrote in the 8th Psalm: From human cells to the earth and the starry heavens " all were made through Jesus John chapter 1. The atomic constants and the molecular structure of matter were made through Jesus. And the Bible tells us that this same Jesus came into the world to show man how to live. John goes on to say that all who believe in Jesus are given the right to become children of God.

Chapter 9 : Bible Prophecy About Great Tribulation - Armageddon - The Millennium begins Kingdom

The battle of Armageddon. The Battle of the Great Day of God Almighty: This covers (Rev.), which shows primarily Christ as the righteous Warrior, for we see Him coming to do battle with the host of Satan's armies in what is often called "the battle of Armageddon," but which in truth is a war, or campaign, of the great day of God Almighty.

The true record clearly indicates that the MIS never existed in its present form and as it has been shoehorned on the geographic area known as Palestine. The factual historical record clearly proves that the land known as Palestine was outright stolen from the Palestinians by the Rothschild banking cartel which employed the British and American governments to carry out and legitimize the theft. The creation of Israel was only the beginning of a multi-decade reign of terror carried out by Talmudic Freemasonry throughout the Middle East, the purpose of which is to advance a furtive scheme notoriously known as the Greater Israel project. While the Rothschild banking cartel is merely the financier and face of this ill-fated project, there are forces much more powerful and wealthy behind it. That untold story is soon to emerge out of the shadows! Most of these age-old prophecies and supporting predictions were originally passed down by way of ancient oral traditions. When they came to pass, they were then written down in scrolls and on tablets. In this way they could be referred to at critical moments to impress future generations of the awesome power and veracity of the prophets. Rather, the long-prophesied Armageddon has been used by its creators to instill great fear throughout the Judeo-Christian-Islamic world. And it has worked like a charm as self-fulfilling prophecies often do. Each of these 3 religions has been subject to unrelenting mass manipulation and mind control programming over many centuries in the interest of advancing an extremely secret plan by carefully hidden perpetrators. The Greater Israel project is only a tip of the iceberg. In order to stealthily carry out this massive and monolithic conspiracy, the perps have utilized every trick in the book. What is not widely known is that the major monotheistic traditions throughout the Judeo-Christian-Islamic denominated world each had their own respective agendas where it concerned their end time prophecy. As cities rose from the plains and dotted the coastlines, immorality and wrongdoing increased. The ruling class increasingly looked to the prophets and astrologers for divine intercession. For these and other reasons the prophetic agendas in some kingdoms became more self-serving and manipulative over time. In some historical settings they became downright exploitative and oppressive. The whole genre of secret societies grew up as a response to this type of abuse and misuse of prophetic influence, occult knowledge and mystical power. Gradually, the resulting societal tension evolved into an ever-present polarity which further concretized into the many and diverse conflicts and unending wars. The dystopian, post-apocalyptic wasteland across the Middle East and Northern Africa is a grim testament to their resolve and resourcefulness. The primary technique and tool in this warmongering enterprise is of course the false flag operation. Only by launching terrorist attacks, that they themselves have conducted under the rubric of Operation Gladio, have they been able to foist the false reality of Ersatz Israel upon the world community of nations. As far as the Neocon Zionist perps are concerned, the successful execution of their misguided scheme keys on the total destruction of Syria. There are multiple mundane and religious reasons for this; some are merely practical, others are geopolitical. One thing is for sure and that is the part that Syrian President Bashar al-Assad has played up until now. His integral role is keeping things together has been nothing short of heroic and exemplary. The Well-Hidden Back Story Nevertheless, the Neocon Zionist cabal is quite determined, perhaps even destined, to bring about their own demise in Syria. How could they even attempt to implement the next stage of the Greater Israel project without suffering extraordinary consequences. Any major moves or bad maneuvers by the Neocons in the Syrian theater of war virtually guarantee the wholesale destruction of Israel. In this day and age of technologically-advanced and highly destructive weaponry how does Israel think this will all end. Do they really feel secure in Tel Aviv under the utterly fictitious Iron Dome? Even after the Israeli military unleashes all of their American-provided weapons of war, how, pray tell will they fend off the inevitable and overwhelming counter-attack? Clearly, the Neocon war planners in Washington, London and Tel Aviv have not thought through their strategy. But it is Israel that stands to lose the most in this epic war for the Holy Land. Their reprehensible and barbaric behavior have brought upon them the wrath of you know who. All the evidence now indicates that the Khazarian Mafia is in complete control of the Trump administration. It appears that this was the plan all along. TMR has taken the liberty of posting the entire piece so important is understanding both the historical and current context. Maketi, Makitu, and Makedo. The 3rd Millennium of course is no different. The ancient city of Megiddo, known as Armageddon in Greek, has a storied history for major military conflicts and war. Hence, it has come to represent a place where epic conflicts are either started or resolved. What follows are a few of the famous battles which took place there: Battle of Megiddo 15th century BCE: Battle of Megiddo BCE: Battle of Megiddo The critical point is that this part of the world has always been a combustible hotspot. Even during the days of the Phoenician seafarers the eastern Mediterranean coast has been coveted by kings and emperors, pharaohs and generals. The Mideast also serves as a barometer for the true state of international affairs. There is an old saying that goes like this: That does not necessarily mean the exact location of Tel Megiddo, although anything can happen from this point forward practically anywhere in the Levant. The rapidly changing circumstances in Syria especially are both extremely volatile and dynamic. Both sides of the conflict have never been so dug in, although for completely different reasons. To greatly complicate this evolving WWII scenario, there are a variety of pacts and treaties which have bound together and torn apart both friends and enemies alike. Loyalties now exist between unlikely partners just as animosities are brewing between scripted allies. The whole Middle East is being set up to explode like a massive tinderbox that has been baking in the Middle Eastern desert for eons. Each day that passes brings formidable obstacles to peace and legitimate justifications to go to war. Truly, what is taking place in Syria at this very moment is a tragedy that has taken on biblical proportions. The final battle is shaping up before our eyes, and yet very few even understand the profundity and enormity of the cascading events. Polarities and Conflicts Abound What has essentially transpired in Syria and Iraq and the contiguous countries is that they have become the dumping ground for pent-up hostilities. Even traditional friends are becoming angry at each other on this expanding battlefield. However, the incessant combat is really being incited by those who are not domiciled anywhere near the region. Those powerful nations, which have no reason to be present in Syria, are forever looking at ways to pit Muslim brother against brother. The primary manifestation of this war-mongering is occurring between the two major sects within Islam—the Shiites and the Sunnis. The Western powers have forever exploited this fraternal tension for the sake of controlling both land and resources, particularly oil and gas reserves. The global hydrocarbon fuel paradigm has seen to it that the Mideast would be the most sought after location on Planet Earth. And so it has been. Inasmuch as various countries in the region possess vast amounts of petroleum reserves, it has become a magnet for the richer nations. These forced migrations actually see millions of traditional and conservative Muslims leaving their homelands to arrive in a much different European culture. The highly permissive society of Europe is quite foreign to them, yet they continue to migrate to Northern Europe in the hope of a job. This massive social engineering experiment is at the very heart of the purposefully manufactured wars. The racial and religious demographics of the entire European Union EU are being deliberately altered in order to create a more malleable supranational state entity. In this way there will ultimately be very little resistance to the totalitarian government that has been inexorably shoehorned into place as the various EU organs of governance. So were the staged Charlie Hebdo terrorist shootings. The conflicts between Sunnis and Shiites are likewise being exacerbated around the globe. This is by purposeful design. They know that the Mideast possesses the potential to trigger a global conflict, especially the Syrian theater of war. The NWO globalists are also desperate to pull the plug on the current Global Economic and Financial System as it is no longer sustainable. The markets are all on life support just as the world community of nations is one step away from the 2nd Great Depression. Usually the ruling cabal will trigger the economic collapse or financial crash first in order to soften up the national populations to readily go to war. In this way the chaos of war distracts the people from all the crimes by their leaders, and especially the betrayals by their governments. Historically speaking, a man without a job, or prospects for employment in his homeland, is much more likely to hire himself out to his government as a mercenary fighting in a foreign land. Although it has always worked like a charm, we think the charm has finally worn out. In this way the co-conspirators have methodically carried out one false flag terror attack after another.
