In this resource Dr. Warren Wiersbe leads the reader through Daniel. Warren Wiersbe Publication Date: Meet some concerned believers who made a difference in their time and who show you how to make a difference in your time: Obadiahâ€™The prophet who explained why longstanding family feuds ultimately bring defeat and disgrace. Micahâ€™The prophet who shows why the only hope for any nation is surrender to the Lord and obedience to His Word. Zephaniahâ€™The prophet who saw the coming "Day of the Lord" and told the people how to get ready. Haggai, Zechariah, Ezra Author: Others may not know, but God sees what they do and He honors them. In times of crisis, when everything seems to have fallen apart, God raises up His heroes and uses them. So it was with the Jewish remnant after the captivity in Babylon. They returned to the Holy Land, rebuilt the temple, and restored their civic life. Their story is told in the Book of Ezra, describing the record of the sacrifice and service of a godly priest and 50, Jewish exiles who trusted God and accomplished wonders. And finally in the Book of Zechariah, where a young prophet had insight into the times and what God was doing for His people. By studying these three exciting books and applying what they teach to your life, you can develop heroic faith and learn to trust God in tough times and not give up, claim promises that will give you victory, and become an encourager of others. The group of writers called "The Minor Prophets" calls us back to a life of amazement and achievement as they remind us of: Does God close His eyes when nations sin? Are we giving the Lord our best? The messages of these six Minor Prophets point the way to an attitude of wonder and worship that can transform your life. While attending the seminary, he was ordained as pastor of Central Baptist Church in and served until Wiersbe has authored over books.

Others, like Joshua, have purposes. A whole generation of Israel wished and died wishing. For them, 40 years of wandering turned the Promised Land into Fantasy Land. For those same 40 years, Joshua nurtured a victory just waiting to happen. Why did Joshua succeed where others did not? Get Spirit-filled content delivered right to your inbox! Twice the Bible makes this wonderful, all-inclusive statement: Joshua did not ride into Canaan on the back of an Arabian stallion but marched in upon the basis of the promises of God. What had God promised to Joshua? For Joshua and Israel, the only land remaining to be possessed was what Joshua had made up his mind to have. It was theirs by faith. The door of history swung open at his touch. Get a vision of what you should do for God, then work to bring it about. He promised this to Joshua and repeated the same statement 1, years later by the writer of Hebrews see Heb. God is with us not because we are good or because we have great faith; He is with us because He has committed Himself irrevocably to us. If God was with us only when we had success, success would never come. Know that God is with you as much as He was with anybody. Others before you simply took advantage of this great circumstance, believed it and acted on it. You can go forth in the name of the Lord with the same courage that God drummed into Joshua: Israel had been on the east side of the Jordan for an entire generation. They were used to thinking of the other side of the Jordan as Fantasy Land. But in God you are not a grasshopper ever. Realize what was happening when God called Joshua. What a moment for purpose to unfold! It began with a funeral. It was a disastrous hour. However, God revels in bringing life out of death. Cast off feelings of inferiority.
