What are some good examples of friendship? Check out these five Bible stories about friendship and friends. They had a relationship of respect and obedience. This does not mean that Abraham was sinless, but he trusted God to lead where he was supposed to go. When God spoke to Abraham he immediately obeyed. Even though he was obedient to God, Romans 4 makes it clear that his salvation was not earned by works, but through faith in the promise of God for a Savior. Jonathan and David One of the most famous stories about friendship in the Bible is the story of Jonathan and David 1 Samuel Saul was the first king of Israel and Jonathan was his son. Jonathan would have been the next king in Israel, but his father Saul had disobeyed God to the point of having the kingdom taken away from him. God had already chosen David to be the next king of Israel. Even though Jonathan knew that David would be the next king, he befriended the young man. Saul tried to kill David but Jonathan helped him escape. When it was clear that King Saul would not allow David to live, Jonathan put himself at risk to protect David. They eventually parted out of necessity. While they were connected by a marriage relationship, they were also dear friends. Ruth insisted on returning with Naomi to her home country of Israel. Though Ruth had lost her husband to death, she did not want to lose her friend. They returned to Israel together grieving deeply for their mutual loss. They were faithful to one another. Their marriage brought peace and joy to the two ladies. Jesus and Peter Jesus had a strong bond and friendship with all the disciples. Each one had their own relationship with the Lord. One of the men who was prominent during the life of Jesus and for many years after was the disciple named Peter. Yet Jesus forgave him over and over. Jesus knew that Peter would deny Him. But before the Lord returned to Heaven He went to Peter in John 21 and showed compassion and forgiveness to him. Though Peter had denied Jesus, Jesus knew that he would be a man who would boldly proclaim the saving grace of God to the world. Barnabas and Paul Many people remember that Paul and Barnabas had an argument which separated them from working together. However, it should also be remembered that these two men spent many years together as friends and partners in ministry. When he returned to Jerusalem the people only remembered who he had previously beenâ€”Saul, the persecutor of the Christian church. Barnabas was willing to accept Paul as a friend and student Acts 9: Early in their relationship it is obvious that Barnabas was the leader of the team. Barnabas was training Paul to be the great evangelist that he ultimately became. Later in the book of Acts, Paul is seen as the leader of the team. There is a change in the language. The two men worked for many years together. Early in their traveling ministry, John Mark went back home Acts But later Paul said that the young man had become profitable for the ministry 2 Timothy 4: Paul benefited from the stance that Barnabas took in choosing to train John Mark. Though they did not always agree it appears that these two friends continued to have a respect for each other and their decisions. Was This Article Helpful? Chapter 3 : Adventist Adventurer Awards/Bible Friends (EB) - Wikibooks, open books for an open world

The Adventurer Club is a Seventh-day Adventist Church-sponsored ministry open to all families of children in grades who agree to keep the Adventurer Pledge and Law.

Does the Bible say much about adventure? If so, is it positive or negative? What an Adventure Most of us probably have enough drama in our lives to make a great TV reality show but can you even imagine seeing and experiencing what Moses did? Just to get a glimpse of the glory of God and all those miracles would be too much to behold. Adventure is interwoven throughout the Bible and there are a lot of good things that come from it and a lot of bad things. If God is going with you, then your adventures will be more good than bad, even if bad things happen along the way. Those who walk with God are pleasing God and not going ahead of His sovereign plan for their life and not lagging behind His will for their life. Adventure can be good or it can be very bad. The vital component is whether God is with you and Christ is in you as you go through life, which is an adventure enough in itself. Archaeologists and historians record that these pagan nations were living in idolatry and much of their religious practices during worship included sexual immorality like orgies. This is where the real adventure begins for the young nation of Israel. That must have been quite an adventure for the spies because they put their lives at risk. And when the gate was about to be closed at dark, the men went out. I do not know where the men went. Rahab and her family would later be spared by the victorious Israelite army and she would become part of the royal lineage of Jesus Christ. The key to his army was God was on His side. When God first approached Gideon, He saw what would be, not what was at the moment. In other words, since God knows the end from the beginning, even before it begins, He knew that Gideon would help Israel rid themselves of the invasions by the Midianites. Every time a harvest was ripe, the Midianites would come sweeping in and take all of it all with them. Conclusion Never underestimate what God can do through those who the world has little regard for. This ensures that God receives all the glory. Is there an adventure awaiting you? Ask yourself; will it bring glory to God; is it biblical; is it taught in Scripture; is it legal; and will anyone get hurt? Her sons got married but after about ten years they died too. At least Naomi still had her sons wives to keep her company, their names were Orpah and Ruth. Naomi called her sons wives and told them, "I am going to go back to where I used to live and I would like you also to go back to your family where you used to live. May God show you kindness as you have shown me. So Orpah left to go back to her family. But no matter what Naomi said to Ruth, Ruth would not leave. Where you go I will go, and where you stay I will stay. Your friends will be my friends and your God will be my God. Notice that Ruth never complains but is a good friend to Naomi. When they got there Ruth decided that she should do some kind of work. It was harvest time, so she worked in the fields following behind the harvesters and picked up any barley that they had dropped. The owner of the field came by to greet the harvesters and noticed Ruth in the field. He asked one of the harvesters who she was. I will make sure you are safe and whenever you are thirsty go and get a drink from the water jars. May the Lord reward you for your kindness. Boaz even ordered his workers to drop extra barley so Ruth could have more for herself. Ruth took all the barley home and shared what she had with Naomi. And eventually Ruth married Boaz and everyone was very happy! Being a good friend takes a long time to learn. God gives us friends when we need them, and we should treat them like a gift from God. And Ruth had such a good attitude and wanted to help, she moved away from everyone she knew and went to work to help Naomi. Could listen to these online as an option for this requirement.
