

Chapter 1 : Manuscripts from the Cope collection, relating to Hampshire and the Isle of Wight - Archives H

Bibliotheca Hantoniensis A List of Books Relating to Hampshire, Including Magazine References, &C., &C by H. M. Gilbert The International Directory of Booksellers and Bibliophile's Manual Including Lists of the Public Libraries of the World; Publisher, Book Collectors, Learned Societies and Institutions, Theological Colleges and a Bibliography.

Dictionary of National Biography, Second Supplement, volume 2. Godwin Goldschmidt and buoyancy of spirits, especially in his earlier years, together with a trenchant style, powers of sarcasm and humour, and keen sympathies. He belonged to the school, without sharing the pedantry, of the early Benthamites, and he remained to the end of his life an advanced liberal in the sense which would have been given to that term between and He was not so much a man of original ideas as original in the strength and constancy with which he held by his principles and beliefs. By the mere force of his convictions and the ability with which he illustrated them he evoked a fervent enthusiasm for the commonplaces of good government and honest administration. With an only sister, Sarah Louisa, he was brought up at Winchester, and was educated there at a private school. After engaging in private tuition, and qualifying in at the London College of Divinity, he was ordained deacon in and priest in He subsequently proceeded to Trinity College, Dublin, where he gained the Cluff memorial prize in , and graduated B. Mary 1877 , he was appointed chaplain of the forces in , and continued in the army until , serving at Malta, Cairo, Dublin, the Curragh, and Netley Hospital. From to he was vicar of East Boldre, and after holding other parochial appointments, became curate in charge of Stokesby, Great Yarmouth, in Godwin was best known as an antiquary and local historian. His special knowledge was freely placed at the service of antiquarian and scientific societies. He died suddenly of heart failure while staying for the night at an inn in Little Walsingham on 10 Jan. Godwin was twice married: In addition to the works mentioned, Godwin published: His grandfather and father were Hamburg merchants, with an English connection, their firm having branches in Glasgow and Manchester. In early youth Otto was given pianoforte lessons by Jakob Schmitt younger brother of Aloys , and harmony lessons by Fried. Mendelssohn opened the Leipzig Conservatorium on 3 April , and Goldschmidt entered it in the following autumn. He came to know Joachim, while W. From to Goldschmidt taught and played in Hamburg. In he was sent to Paris to study under Chopin, but the revolution drove him to England before he could fulfil his.

Chapter 2 : Vintage Books Genealogy, Social & General History Hampshire & Isle of Wight | eBay

Bibliotheca Hantoniensis An Attempt at a Bibliography of Hampshire by Henry March Gilbert. Download. Read. Paperback. Premium. Clothbound. Excerpt. This work was a.

Gilbert], enclosing the notebook and offering him every assistance in the preparation of a new edition of his Bibliotheca Hantoniensis, 30 Jul An attempt at a bibliography of Hampshire Southampton, c. This large-paper edition of the book was issued interleaved and this copy has numerous additions and corrections in the hand of Sir William Cope, together with entries from other catalogues pasted in, and Bramshill shelfmarks. The North Hampshire Regiment were transferred to Bristol in to take charge of French prisoners, were at Bideford later in the year, and wintered at and around Newbury. They remained there till early in April, moved to Stockbridge for a few weeks, then to Andover, where they remained until July; from there they went to Reading and in October they returned to their base at Winchester. Included are two letters from Granville Leveson Gower to Foljambe, , about the Cope family and printing London parish registers, together with a pedigree of the Copes. Early eighteenth century with one reference to Taught by Richard Waller. The nominations were made by the lord of the manor and the curate. Southampton, , with extensive manuscript annotations of prices and purchasers. Likewise, a table shewing at sight, the distances of market-towns and other noted places, not only from one another, but also from London. With many remarkable anecdotes from the best authorities, and other particulars, worthy of notice. This is the earliest county history of Hampshire recorded. The work, largely a compilation from printed sources but containing some original materials, is by Thomas Gatehouse, who is probably to be identified with the occupant of Compton House, Bossington, near Romsey p. Little is known of him save that he occupied Compton House until about see W. Tunnicliff, topographical survey of the counties of Hants, Wilts. Another copy of this manuscript was in existence at the time of the compilation of the Hampshire volumes of the Victoria History in the early s and was then in the possession of Lord Swaythling. A contemporary copy, written by a single hand, in one operation, in a gathering of 32 paper folios. Harvey Porstmouth Record Series 2; p. Magdalen College, Oxford, MS Gunther Edward Gibbon was treasurer of the trust. Poems on several occasions the majority written in the early part of life by Mrs Lefroy of Ashe in the county of Southampton Another manuscript version of the poems, again compiled by C. Endorsed by Sir William Cope: The volume contains a topographical survey and brief lives of prominent islanders, together with extracts from records and notes on customs and contemporary events, and an engraving of Sir John Oglander, April Long The Oglander memoirs. The commonplace book of Sir J. Bamford London, pp. Where no particular locality is given, the habitat must be considered as being near Andover. Wilson appealing for funds to build headquarters for the Southampton Gordon Boys Brigade, 24 May Poll books and election material. Some of these items may have their origins in other collections of the Hartley Institution, some possibly in the records of the Corporation of Southampton. Cope was the son of Lieutenant General E. He was a minor canon of Westminster Abbey from until and chaplain of Westminster Hospital from to He was the author, with Revd H. Conditions Governing Access The Special Collections Division is available for anyone to use, regardless of whether you are attached to an academic institution. Access to the Archives and Manuscripts and Rare Books reading room, however, is by prior appointment to access the manuscript material. See our website for more details. A description of the bequest of the Hampshire and Isle of Wight collection is given in R.

Chapter 3 : George Nelson Godwin - Wikipedia

*Bibliotheca Hantoniensis, An Attempt At A Bibliography Of Hampshire [Henry March Gilbert] on calendrierdelascience.com FREE shipping on qualifying offers. This is a reproduction of a book published before*

Chapter 4 : Bibliotheca Hantoniensis

DOWNLOAD PDF BIBLIOTHECA HANTONIENSIS.

Bibliotheca Hantoniensis. An attempt at a bibliography of Hampshire. by Gilbert, Henry March. Publication date [] Topics Hampshire (England) -- Bibliography.

Chapter 5 : Timeline of Southampton

Partner institution members: Login to download this book. If you are not a member of a partner institution, whole book download is not available.

Chapter 6 : Timeline of Southampton - Wikipedia

Note: Citations are based on reference standards. However, formatting rules can vary widely between applications and fields of interest or study. The specific requirements or preferences of your reviewing publisher, classroom teacher, institution or organization should be applied.

Chapter 7 : Bibliotheca Hantoniensis. An attempt at a bibliography of Hampshire. - CORE

Search the history of over billion web pages on the Internet.

Chapter 8 : Godwin, George Nelson (DNB12) - Wikisource, the free online library

Bibliotheca Hantoniensis. An attempt at a bibliography of Hampshire. By Henry March. Gilbert. Abstract. calendrierdelascience.com of access: Internet.

Chapter 9 : George Nelson Godwin | Revolvly

Moved Permanently. The document has moved here.