

Chapter 1 : Blessed Be Your Name - SongSelect

Blessed be Your name in the land that is plentiful, where Your streams of abundance flow, blessed be Your name. The Arrangement Details Tab gives you detailed information about this particular arrangement of Blessed Be Your Name - not necessarily the song.

It was written back in by Matt and his wife Beth Redman. The 6 month period before that it was actually in 2nd position. So why has Blessed Be Your Name been so popular? When the darkness closes in, Lord, Still I will say: Blessed be the name of the Lord, Blessed be Your name. Blessed be the name of the Lord, Blessed be Your glorious name. You give and take away, You give and take away. My heart will choose to say: Lord, blessed be Your name. I would therefore suggest that one reason Blessed Be Your Name has been so popular is due to the fact that the majority of people can relate to this song. Interestingly, despite "Blessed Be Your Name" being so popular, many people have had an issue with the theology of the bridge, that mentions that God "Gives and takes away". This is taken from the book of Job when Job says: In all this, Job did not sin by charging God with wrongdoing. The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full. So he forms a good image of God that sees God as only a giver of good and we judge him as screwed up. Let me clarify that I do understand that God gives and takes away. I could argue scripturally for both sides of this subject but which one would be right? First of all, just in the area of sickness, did Jesus pay the price for everyone to be healed? I would dare to believe that some of you would not categorize "health" as one of the things God takes away but I bet some of you here on the forum would believe that he does also. Let me just illustrate just one concept. Job was written before the Law. So if Job would have lived during the Dispensation of the Law, then he would have had a right to good and not bad due to the fact that he was a righteousness man, exchewed evil and feared God. Dispensation here is very important. Obediance to the Law was a very good deterrent to bad consequences and it would be your right because of this covenant. Just based on the fact that "this devil" appearing in Job has now been defeated by our Saviour. Yet good Christian people still get sick and die of horrible diseases. Now I would never insult a person dieing with cancer with such a harsh word but I would try to give them hope through the scriptures that they could be healed based on the Word for today. Like I said, this is just in the area of health, healing and sickness. It could get a lot more complex than this. Each dispensation came with a new covenant that had promises along with it. No matter what we believe I think most of us can sing the line "You Give and Take Away" and let it mean what we want it to. Some will think it means that God takes away good things like babies, health, money etc and others will take it to mean that God takes away sickness, sin, poverty etc. At the end of the day a lot of these issues come down to the way we understand the Sovereignty of God.
