Not long ago a reader requested a specific quote, a poem about kindness, and I got to work trying to turn the words into something pretty. I knew what I wanted: I spent an hour here and there over the past few weeks working on it, getting nowhere, starting over, and getting nowhere again. Because honestly, my first response was to be just a little bit annoyed. I could have spent all that time playing with my kids! In fact, I probably should have spent all that time playing with the kids. Suddenly I was not only completely incompetent at creating printables, I was also a slacker mom. And then I had a thought: What was really important here? I think that hobbies and creative endeavors are a blessing in our life, and that feeling good about the things we work hard on can be a great source of joy. Life is not a competition. Creativity is not a competition. The key is to stop comparing and start appreciating. I might need to print this one out ASAP, right? One of my favorite C. Great goals from The Elli Blog: My favorite Winnie the Pooh quote from Kayla Aimee: I love this beautiful chalkboard quote from Entirely Eventful Day! Pin8 I have read a lot of books of quotations over the years. There are many I have forgotten and many I have yet to discover. First, let me say that for some reason, I just cannot ever force myself to like quote books that are organized by author. Am I alone in this? They just seem so much harder to extract the gold out. If a book is sorted by subject, at least you know a little bit of what to expect. The Book of Positive Quotations: This one is my latest discovery. The Forbes Book of Business Quotations: One of the big problems with big books is that you can sometimes read PAGES before you find anything good. All filler; no killer. Sometimes this book has that problem, but much less than other big quote books. I must admit that this is one of the best books of quotations that I have ever read. Apparently they even held some publicity-getting events around that claim, by amassing a group of people to judge it vs. I plan to challenge them one day. The New Dictionary of Thoughts: A Cyclopedia of Quotations I really love this old book. I sometimes feel like many quote-seekers prefer many of the witty, new, current quotations and cannot handle reading some of the deeper, longer, wise thoughts of old. This book requires you to stop, think, and digest. Sometimes you have to ask yourself if you just want to be entertained or if you want to grow. Aspire to Something Higher: No more reading 14, quotes just to find good ones. You take it with you wherever you go; that way, during spare moments of time, you read a little here-and-there. Instead of reading a quote once in an email and forgetting it, you will eventually commit many to memory with this book. I will explore many other books in the future. Chapter 3 : 20 gorgeous printable quotes | free inspirational quote prints - It's Always Autumn

My wife bought me this as I used to give a quote of the week when working or add particular quotes to bottom of emails to enhance the effectiveness of the email by pertaining to it in some way or to the person it was written too.

Please note the product in the title of this post can be found below the following sponsor recommendation Tried and Proven Affirmations Over Minutes of mp3 Downloads Sadly most people are living in the country of negativity and sadness and while they may always dream about traveling to that wonderful destination called happiness they have no passport to get there. Affirmations can be your passport to help you gain entry into that happy place. A passport can take you places. With a passport you can travel all over the world and see things you would never normally see. And when this starts to happen you see opportunity when it presents itself and reach greater heights than ever before. Start using Christian affirmations today, treat them as your passport and whip them out just like you were passing through customs to the land of happiness Christian mp3 Affirmations Require No Concentration There is one key factor between succeeding with using affirmations and failing It has to be easy You will get excited in the beginning but will not endure long enough to see results. One of my friends commented that he and his wife were listening to my Bible based affirmations while traveling in his car when after a while it dawned on him that he had been sub-consciously thinking about each affirmation. It was then he realised because there was a pause between each affirmation it sort of forced him into thinking about them without him even trying to do so. He said he was amazed at how much better they made him and his wife feel and was actually gob-smacked that they had that result because they were so easy That is the whole purpose of affirmations. Let them do the work for you without striving or trying to work out how. When they come in mp3 format you can download them to your Ipod and if you are into walking just listen to them while you do so. If you are stuck long hours at a computer job all day than why not listen to affirmations that will permeate your sub-conscious mind and make you feel better. Burn them to CD and they make a great traveling companion in your car. Listen to them when you want to and alternate with the radio or other music you might have. The trick is to keep it fun and easy. As soon as something seems like work you will stop. Over time the affirmations will start to permanently sink in. Your sub-conscious mind will take on board all of the positive things the Bible says and before you know it those scriptures and affirmations will become a part of you. And it will take place the way affirmations are meant to - nice and easy. The easier it is, the more consistent you will be. There is a total of three series featuring over minutes of Christian affirmations. These mp3 affirmations are a great way of maximizing your time as for example you can listen to them while walking, exercising, gardening or doing the housework and they will make you feel wonderful What I like the most with the Christian mp3 affirmations is that they require no concentration. You just listen to them and as we tend to do your mind can wonder off thinking about other things however you hear enough to feel great. Every day a different affirmation or Bible promise will just stick with you. Every affirmation set also comes with background music. I just know you will love them Within the virtual book you will find each affirmation set divided into two sections. On one page the heavy duty Bible study section and on the other page quick and easy affirmations which provides a perfect mix of in depth research and light and easy reading. One of the greatest ways to maximise your time and kickstart your day is to read just one page of quick and easy affirmations every morning. This is very quick and easy to do yet the affirmations will stick in your mind all day. If you are in the position where you give sermons then you can easily gather at least 51 sermons handed to you on a platter. But delve just a little bit deeper and the sermon possibilities are endless. For the lay person interested in further Bible study it is all there for you. Every scripture reference about the wonderful things God had done for us. I sell my affirmations package through Clickbank, which means I play by their rules. However, for your peace of mind, know that a refund is available anytime for the next 8 weeks by simply emailing me or Clickbank if you are dissatisfied for any reason. Yes, Allan, I want my Christian mp3 and virtual book package. I stand by my money back guarantee if you are unsatisfied for any reason. You will be able to use these marvellous affirmations over and over again for years to come. Just listen to them with your favorite mp3 player or Ipod and you will be amazed at how much better you feel afterwards.

So why not make it a great one? But we do have a choice. We can give in and relent, or we can fight, persevere, and create a life worth living, a noble life. Pain is a fact; our evaluation of it is a choice. The greatest success stories were created by people who recognized a problem and turned it into an opportunity. As you think, so shall you be. They imagine that my limitations weigh heavily upon my spirit, and chain me to the rock of despair. Yet, it seems to me, happiness has very little to do with the senses. If we make up our minds that this is a drab and purposeless universe, it will be that, and nothing else. On the other hand, if we believe that the earth is ours, and that the sun and moon hang in the sky for our delight, there will be joy upon the hills and gladness in the fields because the Artist in our souls glorifies creation. Surely, it gives dignity to life to believe that we are born into this world for noble ends, and that we have a higher destiny than can be accomplished within the narrow limits of this physical life. Nothing truly holds you back. For your own will is always within your control. Sickness may challenge your body. But are you merely your body? Lameness may impede your legs. But you are not merely your legs. Your will is bigger than your legs. Human beings have the awesome ability to take any experience of their lives and create a meaning that disempowers them or one that can literally save their lives. I, not events, have the power to make me happy or unhappy today. I can choose which it shall be. If I keep on saying to myself that I cannot do a certain thing, it is possible that I may end by really becoming incapable of doing it. On the contrary, if I have the belief that I can do it, I shall surely acquire the capacity to do it even if I may not have it at the beginning. Look on the new day as another special gift from your Creator, another golden opportunity to complete what you were unable to finish yesterday. Let your first hour set the theme of success and positive action that is certain to echo through your entire day. Today will never happen again. You were not born to fail.
