Download this entire Bible College course including the 74 page manual and pray in corporate agreement with us from home. One morning, I was reading Isaiah He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners. The passion of Christ is to heal the brokenhearted easy prey for strongholds. Most mental strongholds start with hurt and trauma. Healing leads to freedom, which leads to release to fulfill our destiny! Strongholds are erected by our wounded souls to protect us and to keep pain and rejection out. When we were brokenhearted, we went into self-protection mode. Hurt and trauma caused us to be brokenhearted. We indulged in sinful thinking patterns. We allowed sinful behavior. We defended our right to sinful thinking and sinful behavior Liberty Savard explained it in "Shattering Your Strongholds. A stronghold is what our minds use to defend sinful thinking against outside opposition. When we were confronted about our sinful thinking and sinful behavior, we defended our right to think and behave that way because of our hurt or trauma. Then the devil, the opportunist, came in to reinforce our decision to keep our unforgiveness, resentment, bitterness, jealousy, rejection, self-pity etc. Now we have a fleshly problem and demonic oppression. The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary, they have divine power to demolish strongholds. We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ. We can bind our minds in joyful obedience to the truth that makes us free from captivity. The passion of Christ is to set the captives free and release us from our bondages! Satan knows what hurt and trauma will activate our strongholds, trigger us to fortify them and to erect new strongholds to protect our deceptions. Of course, demons are drawn to strongholds, like vultures circle death. We need to get rid of the death. It is often the opposite of the way western Christians use the words. The Biblical definition of bind is to tie, gird, join together for the effectual working of every part, knit together. I bind my soul to the will and heart of Jesus Christ. The Biblical definition of loose is to smash, crush, destroy or lacerate. According to the Biblical use of these words, we loose our souls from indulging in self-deception and pretending that we are free already. Flesh cannot be cast out, but must be brought to Jesus and taken to the cross to be crucified. We choose to repent and to bring every fleshly pattern to Jesus so that He can crucify it on the cross. We choose to follow the strategy for combat that Jesus gave us in Matthew 4. We commit to you, God, to pray: We receive your truth about our identity in Christ from your Holy Word and your purposes and plans for our life in you. We choose to allow you to live through us with Godly responses to hurt, trauma and offense. Purify our hearts and minds, Lord, from every sinful pattern of sinful thinking and sinful behavior. Jesus demonstrated the use of spiritual weapons by praying scripture. Jesus said, "But if I drive out demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come to you. His armor is made up sinful reactions that we choose to indulge in. We put on his armor piece by piece. We have bitter root judgments and bitter expectations that have not only sprung up but are well lodged and protected in our mind. Lord, show me how the strongman has taken my house and my goods; show me the pieces of armor that I have allowed to make up the bitterness stronghold. We can choose to pray "It is written We can pray scripture in corporate agreement with others in the Tearing Down Strongholds class. We can choose to allow Jesus to demonstrate Godly responses through us in the future. We can resign from being their judge and surrender them to God, since He is the judge of all the earth. It is important to learn to forgive 5 ways in order to dismantle the stronghold of bitterness. We need to 1. Now we can bring our fleshly stronghold to Jesus to bring it to death on the cross for us. He will then be free to restore all the blessings and rewards that we missed while we were protecting our stronghold. Lord, we choose to trust you to avenge every wrong. We choose to love our enemies, take our house back and to enjoy our goods in peace, submitted to the stronger Man. I will teach on each stronghold so clearly that you will be able to see how each one operates in

Chapter 2 : Anger/Bitterness Issues

Bitterness destroys relationships, marriages friendships, and most of all churches Week ending in: We have begun to note some of the principles concerning the blessing of God upon Sarah, when the unconditional promise of God is given by the phrase: The combination of beauty and brains in this woman was unbeatable. One of the main manifestations of spiritual growth is a decrease in bitterness. Every believer who does not have a personal relationship with God is a walking bombshell ready to explode at any moment. One of the great triggers, or buttons to push is bitterness. When you allow the missile of bitterness to explode, you always hurt your own life. See to it that no one comes short of the grace of God; that no root of bitterness springing up causes trouble, and by it many be defiled; HEB If you harbor bitterness you have a very serious spiritual problem, in fact, it is a problem which is not correctable apart from personal love for God, and impersonal love for all mankind. Bitterness imprisons life; love releases life. Bitterness paralyzes life; love empowers life. Bitterness sours life; love sweetens life. Bitterness sickens life; love heals life. Bitterness blinds life; love anoints its eyes. So, every believer who harbors bitterness or jealousy in reality is a walking bombshell waiting to explode. When this happens the life is shattered. Once the believer uses his own volition to allow bitterness, anger and jealousy to control him, he shatters his own life. Bitterness refers to animosity, jealousy, hostility, and is actually a part of anger and harshness. What does it mean to become bitter? It means to be caustic or sarcastic. It means to have pain in the mind. Bitterness is also an expression of misery and disappointment. Bitterness is severity of temper, biting sarcasm, painful inward affliction, deep distress of mind, and it defiles others as well as self. Bitterness also means inward pressure, or to poison with a painful, piercing and unpleasant irritation. Bitterness results in hatred, cruelty, antagonism, implacability, vindictiveness, vengefulness, and inordinate ambition and inordinate competition. The causes of bitterness are very interesting in the Bible. For example; in the administration of divine discipline to Israel, especially to the southern kingdom of Judah, it became quite apparent that they were a bitter people. Bitterness was the reaction and demonstrated the weakness, and the failure of the people. What happened first bitterness or the downfall and the destruction of the nation? Actually bitterness occurred first. The people were bitter therefore their spiritual lives were destroyed. The destruction of the spiritual life resulted in very few invisible heroes and therefore the nation was brought into captivity. Bitter people cannot have true peace on any scale, or in any type of relationships in life. For the Lord saw the affliction of Israel, which was very bitter for there was neither slave nor free, nor was there any helper for Israel. Suffering causes bitterness to people who do not understand the principles behind suffering and who do not give number 1 priority to their relationship with God. They shall be wasted by famine, and consumed by plague and their destruction will be bitterness. The economic disasters merely indicate a result of bitterness. Ridicule is a source of bitterness in LAM 3: They made up songs about Jeremiah and his message. Notice what they said in LAM 3: It is inevitable that when the truth is taught, there is going to be the reaction of bitterness by some. Arrogance is simply preoccupation with self. People who are preoccupied with themselves inevitably become bitter and jealous. For example, in ACT 8: When someone leaves you be careful that you do not become bitter. Being rejected is a strong reason for bitterness in the lives of most believers. Degeneracy is also a source of bitterness in ROM 3: When people are degenerate, they speak evil of others and curse with their mouth. Bitterness is so bad among believers that strangers avoid them. Bitterness produces a complaining attitude, and no one likes to be around a complainer. Bitterness is found in the believer who is a walking bombshell who has exploded within, and has times of outward explosion as well. This verse teaches that bitterness results from backsliding and disrespect toward God. And how it has touched your heart. Then Moses led Israel from the Red Sea and they went out into the desert Shur; and they went three days in the wilderness and found no water. And when they came to Marah, they could not drink the waters of Marah, for they were bitter; therefore it was named Marah. So the people grumbled at Moses, saying, what shall we drink? Then he cried out to the Lord, and the Lord showed him a tree; and he threw it into the waters, and the waters became sweet. There He made for them a statute and regulation, and there He tested them. Marah means angry discontentment, angry frustration. So, there were springs of water all over the place, but they could not drink the waters of Marah because the waters were bitter. Now this is another test. So the waters of bitterness come into the picture. Then he cried out to the Lord, and the Lord showed him a tree; and he threw it into the waters, EXO The tree is also a picture of the branch, Jesus Christ. Just as the tree was cast into the bitter water, making it sweet, so the Lord Jesus Christ heals the bitterness in those who invite His presence into their soul through residual doctrine. Bitterness is also a blasphemy, one that was uttered by Job beginning in the last phrase of JOB 9: Bitter people love to complain. This is the attitude that bitterness eventually develops. Why did God let this happen to me? Why is God doing this to me? When a person says, why did God let this happen to me, that person is in a state of bitterness. Jealousy is irrational, in fact jealousy, as we have noted is insanity. Bitterness will lead a person to the sin unto death, in fact it accompanies the sin unto death. So bitterness produces complaining JOB 7: All people who habitually complain are bitter people. Complaining is simply an outward effect of an inward sin In JOB They have inordinate competition. Bitterness destroys relationships, courtships, marriages, friendships, and most of all, it destroys churches. In Psa 64 bitterness is revealed by the sins of the tongue. For the inward thought and the heart of a man are deep. However, in verses 7 and 8 they reap what they sow. So they will make him stumble; Their own tongue is against them; All who see them will shake the head. Then all men will fear, And they will declare the work of God, And will consider what He has done. This is why bitterness makes a person stupid and produces self-induced misery. Grace orientation and bitterness cannot co-exist. It is a major problem solving device. Bitterness is self induced misery as well as chain sinning. Bitterness is misery to others in your periphery. Bitterness means revenge motivation. You must remember that two wrongs do not make a right. Sarah had to deal with bitterness just like Hannah did in 1SA 1: This became the means, over the years that made her into a real witch. For her type to break out of this type of reversionism, with bitterness and jealousy, is a very difficult thing to do. However, God the Holy Spirit tells us that she finally attained that status and this speaks volumes for her greatness and for her persistence. In speaks of the fact that she continued day in and day out to take in doctrine, in spite of reverses and failures of all kind. And Abram took Sarai his wife and Lot his nephew, and all their possessions which they had accumulated, and the slaves which they had acquired in Haran, and they set out for the land of Canaan; thus they came to the land of Canaan. And Abram passed through the land as far as the site of Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. Now the Canaanite was then in the land. Then he proceeded from there to the mountain on the east of Bethel, and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east; and there he built an altar to the Lord and called upon the name of the Lord.
