To last as long as I did with the skills I had, with the numbers I produced, was a triumph of the human spirit. Catcher in the Wry Bob Uecker , "At all those banquets, stars get up and give credit to their coaches and parents. I give credit to no one. I made myself what I am today. I sit in the bullpen and let people throw things at me. Just like old times. Widely Attributed "Career highlights? I got an intentional walk from Sandy Koufax and I got out of a rundown against the Mets. Widely Attributed "If a guy hits. I always tried to stay around. And I tried to get them all in September. That way I always had something to talk about during the winter. Widely Attributed "I had slumps that lasted into the winter. Widely Attributed "I knew when my career was over. In my baseball card came out with no picture. It was my second season in the bigs. Widely Attributed "I set records that will never be equaled. But he eventually scraped it up. San Francisco Examiner March 29, "It is dangerous for an athlete to believe his own publicity, good or bad. I was fined seventy-five dollars for being intoxicated and four-hundred for being with the Phillies. I came down with hepatitis. The trainer injected me with it. Widely Attributed "The biggest thrill a ballplayer can have is when your son takes after you. That happened when my Bobby was in his championship Little League game. He really showed me something. Struck out three times. Made an error that lost the game. Parents were throwing things at our car and swearing at us as we drove off. Gosh, I was proud. Sports Illustrated September 8, "The highlight of my career? Louis, I walked with the bases loaded to drive in the winning run in an intersquad game in spring training. Umpiring is not an easy or happy way to make a living. Widely Attributed "The way to catch a knuckleball is to wait until it stops rolling and then pick it up. Widely Attributed "They said I was such a great prospect that they were sending me to a winter league to sharpen up. When I stepped off the plane, I was in Greenland. Baseball Digest June "When I looked to the third base coach for a sign, he turned his back on me. One day Uecker was left to do play-by-play coverage and his talent could not be denied. But Bob Uecker , the radio voice of the team for 32 years, has just about done it all. Nationwide, fans still remember Uecker as an actor, comedian and author. Here in Milwaukee , we also appreciate him for his dry sense of humor that can keep any game entertaining, even when the team is mired in a slump. And thank you ladies and gentlemen. This has been a wonderful, wonderful time. I, in deference to Hal McCoy, was asked to quit many times. I was born and raised in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Actually, I was born in Illinois. On the way home, my mother was with child. I remember it was a nativity type setting. An exit light shining down. There were three truck drivers there. One guy was carrying butter, one guy had frankfurters, and the other guy was a retired baseball scout who told my folks that I probably had a chance to play somewhere down the line. I remember it being very cold. I think the birth certificate said something like ten ounces. I was very small. And I remember the coldness on my back from the asphalt. And that was the start of this Cinderella story that you are hearing today. I did not have a lot of ability as a kid, and my dad wanted me to have everything that everybody else had. I think the first thing that he ever bought me was a football. And I was very young. And it was very discouraging for him and for me. Almost, we almost quit. And finally we had a nice enough neighbor, came over and put some air in it, and what a difference. I got a lot of my ability from my father. As a lot of these other guys did. My father actually came to this country as a soccer player. And to see a man put that valve in his mouth and insert it into a soccer ball, and blow thirty pounds of air. And then have the ability to pull that thing out without it fracturing the back of his mouth was unbelievable. You had to see his neck and his veins popping. How proud I was as I watched him do it time after time. My first sport was eighth grade basketball. So my mother made me one out of a flour sack. And the tough thing about that is, you put that thing on, you whip it out of your bag in the gym. You know all the guys are looking at it. And you start the game. But the Braves took it. The signing took place at a very popular restaurant in Milwaukee. And from there on it was baseball. Starting with the Braves in Milwaukee, St. Traded, sold, released ,whatever it may be. And having been with four clubs, I picked up a few of these tips. I remember Gene Mauch doing things to me at Philadelphia. Look down at the first base coach for a sign and have him turn his back on you. But you know what? Things like that never bothered me. In I set a major league record for passed balls, and I did that without playing every game. Their parents were sitting right behind home plate. I saw their folks that day more than they did the whole weekend. But with people like Niekro , and this was another thing, I found the easy way out to catch a knuckleball. It was to wait until it stopped rolling and then pick it up. There were a lot of things that aggravated me, too. My family is here today. My boys, my girls. My kids used to do things that aggravate me, too. I remember one of my friends came to Atlanta to see me once. In their championship little league game, one of them struck out three times and the other one had an error that allowed the winning run to score. I remember the people as we walked through the parking lot throwing eggs and rotten stuff at our car. What a beautiful day. You know, everybody remembers their first game in the major leagues. For me it was in Milwaukee. My hometown, born and raised there, and I can remember walking out on the field and Birdie Tebbetts was our manager at that time.

Despite recent media reports that have clouded, or even misrepresented, the facts, there is compelling evidence that al-Qaida and Iraq have been linked for more than a decade. I did fail my recent drug test. The idea was you turn on the radio and you want to hear some music and up comes a commercial. Recent warming coincides with rapid growth of human-made greenhouse gases. The observed rapid warming gives urgency to discussions about how to slow greenhouse gas emissions. Some activists believe the recent rise in homophobic violence might be a gauge of the success of positive gay images. But now, the changes have made it feel fresh, like starting over. And one perhaps nearing its end. It blew me away. Recent studies have revealed that children years old are being diagnosed with Type II diabetes, high cholesterol, and high blood pressure at an alarming rate. Now, put yourself in their shoes - with compassion. Try to understand and appreciate their point-of-view - not to change your own opinions, but to celebrate all our human differences - in peace. Hull However, in recent years our nation has seen a sizable influx of illegal immigration that at best highlights some alarming inadequacies and at worst indicates a broken system. Price The development of new instrumental and vocal idioms has been one of the remarkable phenomena of recent music. However, we do not lack anti-terrorist laws. I do not believe that the recent London bombs were the result of any deficiencies in our legal system. Pickering is positioning the merger with Compaq and the recent actions by Walter Hewlett and David Packard as a fight between the past and the future. Schumacher As we work to create light for others, we naturally light our own way. When the vast cathedral of our being becomes a sanctuary for all creation, we become the face of God. Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our Light, not our Darkness, that most frightens us. We give our own meaning to time as to life. We do not inherit the Earth from our Ancestors, we borrow it from our Children. It has always been a mess. We are not going to change it. Our job is to straighten out our own lives. Hay The purpose of our lives is to be happy. All that we are arises with our thoughts. With our thoughts, we make the world. To see Light and Joy in everything. To spread our wings and fly boldly. To give thanks for rainbows and butterflies - our symbols of renewal and rebirth. To offer daily Thanksgiving - for ourselves, our family, our friends, our community, for the whole world. We all have our thorns. We, and Life, have our moments. Life occurs before our morning coffee. Life occurs in our bathrobe with our hair uncombed. Bless and give thanks for All of Life - the bloom and the thorns. Ray Our greatest glory is not in never falling, but in rising every time we fall. If we hold them too close, they break - as a butterfly would. Have the courage to trust that the beautiful butterflies of your life will return - or not - as life intends. Our faith gives us knowledge of something better: Schumacher As we let our light shine, we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same. As we are liberated from our own fear, our presence actually liberates others. Demanding that life meet our expectations is a sure fire recipe for a miserable existence. Life is a game with no rules. Life just happens to us regardless of our best intentions. Our only path to happiness lies in being open to receiving whatever life throws at us - with Gratitude. Have NO Expectations of life. This is the most basic kind of peace work. We have to let go of all blame, all attacking, all judging, to free our inner selves to attract what we say we want. Those whose minds are shaped by selfless thoughts give joy when they speak or act. Joy follows them like a shadow that never leaves them. Kennedy We are here to awaken from the illusion of our separateness. Rejoice and give thanks. The more we care for the happiness of others, the greater is our own sense of well-being. When the mind is pure, joy follows like a shadow that never leaves. May the world be kind to you, and may your own thoughts be gentle upon yourself.

The idea was you turn on the radio and you want to hear some music and up comes a commercial. Hull I am struck by the fact that personal faith and political agendas are intertwined more closely now than at any other time in recent history. Now, I believe that war is never inevitable until it starts, but there has been a great proclivity in human history, and including in recent history, for war. The literary tradition of anonymity goes back to the Bible. But now, the changes have made it feel fresh, like starting over. Some activists believe the recent rise in homophobic violence might be a gauge of the success of positive gay images. The equation of religion with belief is rather recent. Toynbee During the Fifties, political and military activities in Vietnam were heavily influenced by the French, who as recent colonial masters, made all-important decisions. My deepest sympathies are extended to those who lost a loved one in the recent terror attacks. I do not believe that the recent London bombs were the result of any deficiencies in our legal system. I did fail my recent drug test. Ports, a thorough review of foreign management of U. A cloudy day or a little sunshine have as great an influence on many constitutions as the most recent blessings or misfortunes. Along with you, I have witnessed the unfortunate rise in gasoline prices that has accompanied the summer driving season and the more recent spike in prices due to Hurricane Katrina. I was lucky enough to see with my own eyes the recent stock-market crash, where they lost several million dollars, a rabble of dead money that went sliding off into the sea. The observed rapid warming gives urgency to discussions about how to slow greenhouse gas emissions. And one perhaps nearing its end. Traffic is one of the most powerful films to come out in recent years. It blew me away. As the archeology of our thought easily shows, man is an invention of recent date. May the world be kind to you, and may your own thoughts be gentle upon yourself.
