Obituary Condolences Cady, Jr. He was 92 years old. Fred led an extraordinary life, growing up in Saginaw, where he had a wonderful childhood involved in many activities, including Boy Scouts and all things sports related. He returned to Saginaw and had a flourishing medical practice where he was known for his kind demeanor and loud voice. Fred served twice as the Chief of Staff at St. He had a deep and unyielding love for America and the great State of Michigan. Fred was also a coach to many youth sports teams in Saginaw, where he served as a role model for generations of young men in the Saginaw community. The University of Michigan had no greater fan Fred loyally rooted for his Wolverine football team through the good years and bad. He was a passionate sportsman and was never happier than holding a shot gun, hunting geese and ducks with a hunting dog by his side. Other hobbies included gardening, and golf. Fred was an avid world traveler, having visited many different countries and interacting with different cultures. Frederick is survived by his sons: A Funeral Liturgy will take place at Stephen Catholic Church, Malzahn. Andrew LaFramboise will officiate. Military Honors and Rite of Committal will follow at St. Andrew Mausoleum under the auspices of the U. Navy and VFW Post In lieu of flowers, those planning an expression of sympathy may wish to consider memorials to the Aleda E. Lutz VA Medical Center.
