Chapter 2 : List of Ministers of India, Cabinet Ministers of India and their Portfolios

It consists of senior ministers, called Cabinet Ministers, and junior ministers, called Ministers of State. It is led by the Prime Minister. The current ministry is led by Prime Minister Narendra Modi, who took office on 26 May

According to the Constitution of India, in the everyday administration the Prime Minister is assisted by the Council of Ministers, which consists of the Cabinet Ministers, Deputy Ministers, Ministers of State with independent charge, Ministers of State working with the Cabinet Ministers and others. The Prime Minister is the Chairperson of the Cabinet. The various departments are allotted to various ministers by the PM. The PM presides over Cabinet meetings and oversees the important functions of the Cabinet. Ministers are removed from departments if the PM does not approve of the performance of the minister. He is the Leader of the House of Parliament to which he belongs. As India follows the Westminster Model of constitutional democracy, it is the Prime Minister who oversees the day-to-day functioning of the Indian administration. He is also the Chief adviser to the President. The PM has many functions and powers. The PM also oversees defence-related issues of the country. He makes all important policies and schemes of the government.

Categories of Ministers in Government There are three categories of ministers within the Council of Ministers - Cabinet, Ministers of State with independent charges and Ministers of State working with the Cabinet Ministers. All the important portfolios of the Central Government together comprise the Cabinet. The role of the Cabinet ranges from advising the Council of Ministers and provide assistance to them, attend Cabinet meetings called by either the Prime Minister or any one of the Cabinet ministers to discuss issues related to his ministry. It is the collective responsibility of the Cabinet to be accountable to the two Houses of Parliament, for its policies and schemes.

Roles and Responsibilities of Ministers of State with independent charges The Ministers of State with independent charges are the second category of ministers in the Council of Ministers. They are not as important in their role as the Cabinet. There is no overseeing Cabinet Minister for the portfolio of the Minister of state with independent charges.

Roles and Responsibilities of Ministers of State Ministers of State working with the Cabinet Ministers are the third rank of ministers. These are junior ministers who assist the Cabinet Minister in the particular portfolio. These junior ministers look after one or two aspects of the Cabinet portfolio, and not the whole ministry as such. Know about the Cabinets of Indian States.

It consists of senior ministers, called 'cabinet ministers', junior ministers, called 'ministers of state' and, rarely, deputy ministers. It is led by the prime minister. A smaller executive body called the Union Cabinet is the supreme decision-making body in India. [2].

Alok Soni If by strength is meant brute strength, then, indeed, is woman less brute than man. Has she not greater intuition, is she not more self-sacrificing, has she not greater powers of endurance, has she not greater courage? Without her, man could not be. In , when the Father of the Nation, Mahatma Gandhi, made this statement to the women of India, he was envisioning something similar to what happened yesterday at the swearing in ceremony of the Modi government. While there were veterans like Sushma Swaraj and Najma Heptulla on one side, there was an equally good show by relatively young ones like Smriti Irani and Harsimrat Kaur Badal in Indian general elections She holds a B. She was a practicing Supreme Court advocate from In , she became the youngest ever Cabinet minister in the country at 25, and after 2 years she was appointed as the State President of the Janata Party, Haryana state. Sushma Swaraj was the first female spokesperson of a national political party in India. She has contested 10 direct elections from four states. In the general elections, she won from Vidisha Lok Sabha constituency with the highest ever margin of 4,00, votes. But this model-turned-actor-turned-politician is no less than those with decades of experience. She has been nominated as executive member of the central committee for five times and was appointed as National Secretary of the party. She had given a tough time to her opponent, INC Vice-President Rahul Gandhi in the general elections in Amethi and reduced the victory margin for him to a mere one lakh votes one of the closest ever. Though she is a well recognised woman at the international level, her nomination by the United Nations Development Programme as its human development ambassador stands apart among the list of achievements. She has also written on human social security, sustainable development, environment, reforms for women and on ties between India and West Asia. She was married to Sanjay Gandhi, son of Indira Gandhi, at the age of 18 years only. When Maneka was just 23 years and her son Varun Gandhi , just days old, Sanjay died in an air crash. Three years later, Maneka formed her own party Rashtriya Sanjay Manch focusing on youth empowerment and employment. The party won 4 of the 5 seats it contested in Andhra Pradesh state elections. She contested the Lok Sabha elections in as an independent candidate from Amethi against Rajiv Gandhi. As a six-term Member of Parliament five times from Pilibhit and once from Aolna , Maneka Gandhi is among the most senior legislators of India. She is currently Chairperson of the Parliamentary Committee on Govt. Born in Delhi in the year , Harsimrat is a matriculate and holds a diploma in textile design. She has retained her Lok Sabha seat of Bathinda in the Indian general elections for her party Shiromani Akali Dal and emerged victorious by over 19, votes. Uma Bharti was born in in Tikamgarh district of Madhya Pradesh and has studied till class sixth only. However, in , she was elected for the first time as Member of Parliament of India from Khajuraho Lok Sabha seat and retained it for the next three elections. It was only in that she switched the seats and contested from Bhopal constituency. She has won from Jhansi Lok Sabha seat in the general elections. The year-old BJP leader is an official spokesperson of the party since and well known for her soft and unruffled demeanour. In , she was nominated to the National Commission for Women in Delhi. Nirmla Sitharaman is married to Dr. Parakala Prabhakar, a political commentator and television anchor, who is also an alumnus of JNU.
