The metaphysical interpretations given in this dictionary are based on the practical teachings of Jesus Christ, as understood and taught by the Unity School of Christianity under the direction of Charles Fillmore and Myrtle Fillmore, its founders.

A[ edit ] Abiding Presence - the Spirit of God, which permeates everything. Absolute - the God principle, the Supreme, the Unknowable, Unthinkable, Unmanifestâ€”yet manifest in all. The Unconditioned, yet in every condition. Absolute and relative - refers to the Unconditioned Cause and any effect which It may project. Abstract - in the realm of the formless; apart from any particular object, as in the realm of ideation. Abstract thought is in the higher ranges of thought, rather than in the concrete, as in particular objects. Abundance - since thought produces fact, then fact must be like the thought which produces it. Hence a thought of impoverishment would create an impoverished condition, while the recognition of abundance would inevitably produce abundance. Accumulated Consciousness â€” the sum total of all that one has ever said, thought, done or seen, consciously or un-consciously. Active ideas of truth - a spiritual treatment is a definite statement, an active state of consciousness created for a definite purpose. Active right thinking - mental treatment is an active thing; it sets about to demonstrate or prove a certain point in Mind through the definite activity of consciousness. Treatment is always active; it is never day-dreaming. Adam - undeveloped, or unenlightened man. The opposite of the Christ Principle, as "in Adam all sin, so in Christ all are made free from sin" 1 Cor. Adam as Christ - the first Adam is of the earth; the second Adam is the Lord from heaven. Adam as Christ means lifting up the principle of Reality within us to a comprehension of its union with Spirit. Affirmation - see supreme affirmation, subconscious denial of our affirmations, tool of affirmation, Affirmation in mental treatment - affirming the Divine as the only Presence. That is, affirming the presence of whatever ought to be. Affirmation of truth - any statement which affirms the supremacy of good or which denies the reality of that which is contrary to good. See also spiritual affirmations; transforming power of thoughts and words. Affirmative factor - the invisible Power that concentrates primordial substance into new forms. It is the principle of the unfoldment of life through the Intelligence that permeates all space, the very Nature of Being Itself as Subjective Intelligence. Cooperating with It, man may create his world of perfection. Affirmative prayer - a form of prayer or a metaphysical technique that is focused on a positive outcome rather than a negative situation. Agnosticism - agnostic The doctrine that neither the nature nor the existence of God nor the ultimate character of the universe is knowable. Any doctrine which affirms that all knowledge is relative and uncertain. Akasha - space, or ether, as a mind principle. Alchemy - a medieval science, the object of which was to try to transmute base metals into gold. In the life of the metaphysician, the term alchemy is used in referring to the transmutation of the lower nature that is, the qualities of ruthless selfishness, greed, cruelty, etc. The uncovering of the God-self, which already exists, potentially, in each one. This alchemy, or transmutation, is an actual chemical change in the cells of the body, through the use of mental law and high spiritual aspiration. All is mental or spiritual - not only is the invisible Principle of Life a thing of mind and spirit, form also is mental and spiritual. It is Spirit caught in a temporary mold for a definite purpose. All is mind - all creation is Mind in form and responsive to the Intelligence which creates it. This same Intelligence in us therefore responds to us. Immanuel Kant said that we are able to recognize an apparently external object by reason of the fact that it awakens an intuition within us. All thought is creative - it would be impossible to assume that one type of thought would be creative without assuming that all types must be. Alpha and Omega - this symbolizes all that God isâ€”Spirit, Matter. The first and the last, and all that lies between. The beginning and the end. Altar - symbolizes spiritual idealism upon which are sacrificed the lower forms of thought. Analogous - similar or bearing some similarity. The principle that like attracts like, in that we attract that to which our thought is attuned. Analogy - that which resembles something else. An agreement between two things in some ways, but not identically. In metaphysical teaching, stories are told which bear a resemblance to the thing being illustrated, in order to clarify the thought on the subject at hand. The teachings of Jesus are filled with analogies. Analytical realization - realization arrived at by analysis, argument, process of thought, etc. Ancient of Days - God, Spirit, Reality; that which never changes. Ancient wisdom - the continuous stream of Truth that has run through all the great spiritual and philosophic teachings from times of antiquity. The Wisdom of the Ages. Androgynous - having the characteristics of both sexes. The Father-Mother God Principle. Anointed, The - refers to the consciousness of the Indwelling Christ. Anti-Christ - any attempt to use spiritual power for a destructive purpose. Antitype - that which preceded the type, and of which the type is the prefigurement or representation. Apparent separation - any thought or appearance which causes us to believe that we are separated from the Divine Presence. Apparition - an unexpected or spectral appearance. Sometimes used synonymously with the word "ghost. The image and likeness of God. Archetype - the ideal form, written about by Plato. The eternal, perfect concept of things, existing in the Mind of God, or Universal Mind, after which form is patterned. The perfect pattern of a thing in thought. Argument of doubt - any mode of thought which denies us the privilege of accomplishing a healing or of making demonstrations for ourselves or others. This arises out of the race consciousness. Argument of error - subjective thought patterns of experience resisting any attempt to neutralize them. Ascending arc of the circle - a term used to symbolize the evolutionary Force, both personal and cosmic, by which the individual rises from gross materiality into the realm of pure Spirit. Ascetic - one who devotes himself to a solitary and contemplative life; one who practices extreme rigor and self-denial. Asceticism - refers to the doctrine that the material or carnal world is evil or despicable, and that salvation is gained by mortification of the flesh. Atomic intelligence - the primary Intelligence inherent in the very substance of things; the Intelligence in the atom that keeps it revolving around its central unit of power. This Intelligence is characterized by responsiveness, which may be made use of in healing work. Every atom in every cell of the body has intelligence. Atonement - the old Jewish doctrine of redemption through suffering or sacrifice to expiate for a sin. To make amends for an offense. We all atone for wrongdoing, in that the Law of Cause and Effect punishes us until we learn to stop making mistakes. Metaphysical students now realize that the only atonement—that is, the real redemption—is an At-One-Ment with Life Itself, God. Through unity the old accounts are settled and dissolved. See also Atonement Understood by Annie Rix Militz Attachment - to be bound by sense objects, so that it is painful to be without them. Attraction, Law of - a metaphysical belief that "like attracts like", that positive and negative thinking bring about positive and negative physical results, respectively. Automatic writings - written messages received when one is controlled by some psychic influence, which many believe may emanate from oneself, those around one, or discarnate spirits. Axiom - a Truth so self-evident that it would be impossible for sanity to contradict it. B[ edit ] Blessing — constructive thought directed toward any one. Baptism by fire - the purging of the conscious and unconscious processes of thought whereby mental patterns are transmuted from a material into a spiritual consciousness. Baptism by the Holy Ghost - pure spiritual intuition transcendent of intellectual processes. The Light of Heaven. A state of consciousness which is no longer a symbol nor a purging, but which is a deep interior awareness of peace, poise, power, wholeness, and perfection. Beginning, in the - the starting point of any creation. That out of which all experience is projected. Being - in its absolute sense, God, Spirit, Reality. See also Truth of being. Belief, change of - changing our psychological patterns of thought to the acceptance of that which includes the Allness of God, relative to any fact or experience. Belief is a certain way of thinking - no matter how spiritual the belief or the faith may be, it is still an act of consciousness, hence it can be reduced to a state of thought. Belief, Law of - belief creates its own law, which is changed only by reversing the belief. Believe in your heart - refers to the positive inner conviction. Beloved Son - the divine unique individualization of God which every man is. Bible, The - sacred book or books of any race of people; a book containing the sacred writings of any religion, which is used as an authority. Black magic - an inverted use of the creative Power of Mind. Blessing - constructive thought directed toward any person or any condition; any constructive thought designed to be helpful. Blind force and Infinite Intelligence - blind force refers to the Law of Cause and Effect, which is a doer and not a knower.

They were down and almost out when they conceived the idea that became Unity. Charles Fillmore was born August 22, on an Indian reservation near St. His father was a Chippewa trader there. Myrtle Fillmore was born in Pagetown, Ohio on October 6, They met in Texas. He was a railroad freight clerk. She was a school teacher, in fragile health, suffering from recurring tuberculosis. In the Fillmores came to Kansas City. They invested what little money they had in real estate. And they lost it. It was then they decided that spiritual work would be their future. Unity leaned heavily on their printed pieces. They sold them at cost for "love offerings. By Unity had its own publishing plant. It was also from here that Silent Unity was broadcast on their radio station, and the magazines Wee Wisdom for kiddies and Daily Word for adults were published. They named it Unity Village in the s, and the name remains today. It became their world headquarters, with a landmark Unity Tower. A fountain, crossed by the Bridge of Faith, runs lengthwise of the manicured grounds. Eighty-six year old Myrtle Fillmore died October 6, Charles Fillmore remained active at Unity until his death at age 93 on July 5, The ashes of both founders were reportedly scattered from the Bridge of Faith into the flowing waters below. American mystic Charles Fillmore founded a new variety of religious expression, the Unity movement, which combines traditional Christian elements with esoteric and metaphysical principles.

R â€” The Revealing Word Metaphysical Dictionary R The Revealing Word A Dictionary of Metaphysical Terms race consciousnessâ€”The human race has formed laws of physical birth and death, laws of sickness and physical inability, laws making food the source of bodily existence, laws of mind that recognize no other source of existence except the physical. The sum total of these laws forms a race consciousness separate from and independent of creative Mind. When creative Mind sought to help men spiritually, the mind of the flesh opposed it and made every effort to solve its problems in its own way. The great need of the human family is mind control. Jesus showed us that mastery is attained through realization of the power of Spirit. Man has built into the race mind a consciousness of corruptible flesh instead of the inherent incorruptible substance of God-Mind. The descent of potential ideas into substance. There is an individual consciousness, which is the ark, and a universal consciousness, which is the heavens and the earth. Clairvoyants and psychics have long claimed that they can see these rays surrounding not only human beings, but animals, plants, and even stones. Their claims have been considered chimerical until in the last few years, when science found that it can measure the force of these invisible rays. The character of the thoughts colors the emanations of these rays. If the thoughts pertain to the things of sense, the rays are dark and weak; if the affectional and intellectual nature is active, they become highly colored and forceful. When the mind is exalted in prayer, a dazzling light radiates from all parts of the body, but especially from the head. They heal both mind and body. The basic principles of mathematics and music are real, because they are not subject to change. A wrong application of their principles may produce discord, but the principles are not disturbed. God is the one harmonious Principle underlying all being and the reality out of which all that is eternal comes. All causes are in mind. Error thoughts produce the mental and physical inharmonies called disease. These effects are not enduring and eternal. Error can be erased from the mind and be made to disappear from the body. It means at-one-ment, completion, perfection, wholeness, repose, resting in God. It is the dawning of Truth in the consciousness. When realization takes place, one abides in the light of God-Mind. It is the inner conviction that prayer has been answered, although there is as yet no outer manifestation. The supreme realization is unity with God-Mind, complete oneness with the Christ consciousness. This highest realization is taking place more widely today among men than at any time in all history. Jesus fully attained this supreme realization. The realm of Spirit is wherever God is working to express Himself. When man as principle becomes the perfect image and likeness of God, no other realm will appear to have being. One rebels because he believes he is not being rightly governed, his conditions are not satisfactory. Man has been taught that God brought on him sickness, poverty, inharmony, and that these conditions are the will of God. While he recognizes that God is supreme ruler and governor of all things, man rebels at such conditions being imposed on him. As soon as a man comes into the understanding that his own thoughts and words are the cause of the conditions in his life, he no longer rebels and blames God. He uses his creative thought power, he sets the Word into right activity, and good comes into his life. It is not the arbitrary disciplinarian, but the loving, tender, understanding heart that in visible life lightens the intricate problems that perplex the mind. When one who is receptive and obedient gives himself unreservedly to Spirit and receives without antagonism its guidance, he is delighted with the possibilities that are disclosed to him in caring for his physical and spiritual needs. The body is redeemed from destruction by attaining spiritual consciousness on earth. The transformation that takes place through bringing all the forces of mind and body to the support of the Christ ideal. The unification of Spirit, soul, and body in spiritual oneness. Regeneration begins its work in the conscious mind and completes it in the subconsciousness. The first step is cleansing or denial in which all error thoughts are renounced. This includes forgiveness for sins committed and a general clearing of the whole consciousness. After the way has been prepared, the second step takes place. This is the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Then innate desire for material expression asserts itself, and the ego seeks the primal cell and builds another body. Reincarnation will continue until the ego awakens to the Christ Mind and through it builds an imperishable body. The law of Being is broken by sin and death. Resurrection or regeneration in this body here and nowâ€”not reincarnationâ€”is the aim of overcomers. It is not an aid to spiritual growth, but merely a makeshift until full Truth is discerned. Loosening the tight mental grip we have on ourselves in order that the healing Christ life may flow freely through our being. There is a wide range of religious experience between the blindly groping faith that caused men to pass their children through the fire as sacrifice to their deities, and the divine consciousness of Jesus, who submitted His body to the purifying fire of the Spirit and came forth alive with a life that never dies. In the study of things pertaining to religion we should keep in mind the three activities of consciousness: The spiritual is the realm of absolute principles; the psychical is the realm of thought images; the physical is the realm of manifestation. The well-balanced, thoroughly developed man, of which Jesus is the type, comprehends and consciously adjusts his spirit, soul, and body as a whole, and thereby fulfills the law of his being. Those who are on the way to this attainment have various experiences, which are symbolically set forth in the Scriptures. A healthy state of mind is attained when the thinker willingly lets go the old thoughts and takes on the new. This is illustrated by the inlet and outlet of a pool of water. The center of renunciation, sometimes called elimination, in the lower part of the abdomen, carries forward the work of elimination of error thoughts from the mind and waste from the body. When we repent, we break with mortal thought and ascend into a spiritual thought realm, the kingdom of God. The field of action for that which has been assumed to be goodness in the sight of God has nearly always been in conduct. There is always hope for the repentant sinner. A repentant state of mind is an exceedingly good state for one who has been on the error side. If you find yourself suffering the result of transgressed law, begin at once a righteous repentance. As soon as you repent and recognize that the way of Spirit is the way of pleasantness, your sins are forgiven you, and you are made whole and well. Nothing outside of man can affect him when he is in contact with his inner spiritual source. Beware of every form of fighting, and of all thoughts of a destructive character. Thoughts build or destroy, and they will work in your mind and body in an adverse way and tear down the good you desire to build up if you do not form them with care. A mental state of resistance indicates an unyielding personal will. Evil has no power except that which man gives it by his thought. Resisting evil is a way of affirming its power. A positive, fearless attitude in facing the appearance of evil overcomes it, and this attitude comes from the understanding that evil has no power. The restitution work also includes the earth, which is to be redeemed from the curse that fell on it through sin. It is to blossom and bring forth and be a paradise, a fitting home for redeemed man. Restlessness cannot be satisfied by change of climate or environment or by travel or by any other outward change. This is accomplished by the realization that God is Spirit and that God created man with power like that which He Himself possesses. When man realizes this, his mind and body automatically become immortal. The word resurrection also suggests that there has been a falling short of the divine standard; therefore, the necessity of being restored and revived. Jesus was raised from the dead. He overcame death in the body. The power of the resurrection is the Christ. Christ, absolute Principle, the God-idea man, is the true resurrecting power and life in each of us here and now. A new flood of life comes to all who open their minds and their bodies to the living word of God. The revelation of Christ to all men is the ultimate revelation. Divine revelation is much more common than is understood. The Spirit of truth is revealing the hidden wisdom to thousands on every hand. Poets and writers of Truth are being inspired of the Most High. Quiet citizens in every walk of life are the recipients of the divine word. Every man who has earnestly asked for divine guidance, or who has earnestly desired to do right in the sight of God and man, is being taught by the Holy Spirit. Without it the mind loses a certain necessary connection with Spirit and lacks that central poise of faith that gives a religious tenor to the process. Personality; the state of consciousness in man that lays hold of the world of form, seeking satisfaction in personal possessions and in fulfilling the letter of the law. It leads directly to eternal life. Truth working in consciousness brings forth the perfect salvation of the whole manâ€”Spirit, soul, and bodyâ€”and righteousness right relation is expressed in all his affairs. Whenever you, the master, are there, the nets are filled with ideas, because you are in touch with the infinite storehouse of wisdom. The physical body is the tabernacle or temporary structure in and through which the enduring body is formed, and regeneration is a combination of chemical, mental, and spiritual processes. And he has the ability to take others with him into the waters that cleanse, purify, and vitalize. To go forward to more advanced demonstrations, we must give up the present ruling ideas. When we reach a point in our ongoing where there is necessity of greater spirituality, our own meditations reveal to us that the way is through reforming our methods of thought and life. The I AM center is in the crown of the head and dispenses the substance and life and intelligence of Spirit.

The Revealing Word is a volume in the Charles Fillmore Reference Library that will help you bring the Bible to life. This reference work is a metaphysical dictionary of common names found in the Bible, as well as words and phrases that are frequently used in Unity and New Thought teachings.

Man appears unlike God because he, through disobedience, fell into sin. Through accepting race thoughts, man has adopted wrong ideas about himself and his relation to his Source. He has believed that he is unlike God and separate from Him, and these concepts have, by the law of thought, become manifest. Ideal man is the perfect man, the Christ, the offspring of Divine Mind. Manifest man should be as perfect as the ideal, and he will be when the individual identifies himself with the Christ. When he is identified with anything less than perfection he manifests some degree of imperfection. Man makes his world through the activity of ideas in his consciousness—ideas of wisdom, power, intelligence. The real man is the embodiment of God, and all the God-substance and the power to make it active is inherent within him. When we are quickened to spiritual understanding and fully realize the true character of God and our own nature as the image, or idea, of God we will begin to live as Jesus lived in order that we may bring forth the likeness. To perceive the true character of God and His attributes and then to grasp our relationship to Him is to realize that His attributes are our attributes, His power is our power; His character is our character. He has existed with the Father always. At the very beginning of creation he was born into being through the Son, the Christ, the perfect, ideal man whom God made in His image and likeness. He is a unit when he knows himself. His ignorance of himself and his relation to God is the cause of the seeming duality. When wisdom comes to him and he makes wisdom his own, there is no longer war between the ideal man in God and the becoming man in the Lord God. By his error he falls into a state of consciousness where he is bound in limitation and error. He falls short of his divine possibilities. God, the Father, Divine Mind, had an idea of man, and this idea is his Son, the perfect man idea, the offspring of God-Mind. This Son is the Christ, the only begotten of the Father. The Son, being the express image and likeness of the Father, is perfect, even as the Father which is in heaven is perfect. Everyone who overcomes this inner adversary will be saved from all deception that may be practiced by anybody or anything that claims the place of the Lord Jesus Christ. He gathers his information and makes his judgments from evidence gathered by the senses. He seeks his pleasure through the satisfaction of his sense appetites. He is the false man, the antichrist man. He was manifested as the higher self of Jesus. In the New Testament He is called the Christ. He called Him Father more than forty times. He does not know God as the prosperity of himself and all others. Represents the realization that the divine substance is everywhere present, in every part of the consciousness. Degrees of realization of the Truth of Being. No matter how deep in transgressions the body may be, it still bears the stamp of God. When we open the door of the mind by consciously affirming the presence and power of the divine I AM in our midst, there is a marriage or union of the higher forces in being with the lower and we find that we are quickened in every part; the life of the I AM has been poured out for us. Jesus described the situation forcibly and clearly in Matthew The truth is that the material world is a limitation of the four-dimension world; it has no permanent existence and will come to an end. This is attested to by both religion and science. When man is quickened of the Spirit he knows Spirit to be all, in all, and he gives all thought to this reality. For many reasons it is better to abstain from a meat diet. Injustice and cruelty react on the one who practices them, whether he himself kills or partakes of that which has been killed for him by others. Meat eating requires the spilling of blood, which destroys Truth in consciousness. Destructive ideas are introduced into the stomach, producing doubts and fears and physical inharmonies. The love of God should be expressed toward all animals. The purpose of meditation is to expand the consciousness Christward; to bring into realization divine Truth; to be transformed in spirit, soul, and body by the renewing of the mind. Your mental attitude, thoughts, and words are creative or destructive influences in your world. All sin, suffering, disease, and death are the work of the adverse mentality. In order to attain the inner pearl, the unadulterated Truth, man must give up the so-called values and realize his oneness with the Christ within. The important point in desiring to be merciful is righteous adjustment, as this results in true overcoming. Messiahâ€”The promise of the visible manifestation of the Christ. Christ is the fulfillment in man of this promise. By pure metaphysics is meant a clear understanding of the realm of ideas and their legitimate expression. Thoughts become entities and have identity according to the character of the thought in the mind of the thinker. Error thoughts make disease microbes. Positive thoughts form intelligent body-builders. This partition is broken down by the realization and manifestation of the one Divine Mind. That day will always be in the future until we let go of our thought of a future. The millennium day is now. It is established todayâ€”this very hour. Mindâ€”By the term Mind, we mean Godâ€”the universal Principle, which includes all principles. As an aid in understanding how the universal Mind creates, we can observe the action of our own mind because we are the offspring of the one Mind and we bring forth in like manner. Man in the consciousness of the one Mind has no sense of apartness. Through affirmation he can attune himself to Being, transmute his thoughts into ideas, and accomplish the seemingly impossible. God is mind, and we cannot describe God with human language, so we cannot describe mind. We can only say: I am mind; I know. God is mind; He knows. The mind is the seat of perception of the things we see, hear, and feel. It is through the mind that we see the beauties of the earth and sky, of music, of art, in fact, of everything. That silent shuttle of thought working in and out through cell and nerve weaves into one harmonious whole the myriad moods of mind, and we call it life. If man affirms his unity with the life, substance, and intelligence of God, he lays hold of these spiritual qualities. A state of consciousness formed about a false ego or false concept of man. We go into this new and higher state of consciousness as we would go into another country. The kingdom of heaven is right here in our midst and will become tangible reality to us when we have developed the faculties necessary to comprehend it. It is the opposite of the Christ Mind, which is the perfect Mind of God in man. Mortal mind gathers its information through the senses. It judges by appearances, which are often false judgments. Man must renounce this false state of mind if he is to be one with God. Mortal mind breeds sin, poverty, sickness, and death. These thoughts are what we find in persons of Gentile consciousness, and in the regeneration they must be eliminated. The subconscious mind sometimes acts as though separate from the conscious mind: The subconscious mind has no power to do original thinking. It can act only upon what is given to it through the conscious or the superconscious mind. The superconscious mind transcends both the conscious and subconscious phases of mind. The harmonious working together of these three seemingly separate minds is necessary to the bringing forth of the latent possibilities of man. In reality miracles are events that take place as a result of the operation of a higher, unknown law. All true action is governed by law. All happenings are the result of cause and can be explained under the law of cause and effect. Mighty things have been wrought in the past by those who had mere blind faith to guide them. The materialization of spiritual substance. The symbol of the idea of prosperity. Money is a symbol that represents values in goods, land, or service. Substance in the form of money is given to us for constructive uses. The money idea is good and draws to us good when we are functioning in divine order. Love of money is the root of much evil. Man should love the source of all money, God. The consciousness must be cleansed of these if the body temple is to be kept pure and holy. Its light is supplied by the sun, symbol of spiritual light. This is a false consciousness. Consciousness must harmonize with God-Mind to be free from thoughts of poverty, sin, sickness, and death. They are empty because they lack the life and substance necessary to impart spiritual life and nourishment to the mind. Going up into the mountain to pray means elevating our thoughts and our aspirations to the spiritual viewpoint.
