Speeds starting at 60 Mbps. No data caps or extra fees. This special deal is great for first-time customers! Incredible number of television channels The primary reason to buy Charter Spectrum TV packages is the incredible number of channels that you can choose from. Charter Spectrum TV divides its packages into three main tiers – Select, Silver and Gold – and then gives you a different number of channels with each of them. Those are easily the most popular premium movie channels around, and you get them included in your Silver package! With Gold, you get even more premium movie channels. At one time, these premium movie channels just showed movies. Maybe there was an occasional concert or comedy show, but it was mostly movies. The most obvious example, of course, is HBO. Of all the major cable companies, Charter Spectrum seems to believe in HD more than anyone else. As a result, every channel is delivered in beautiful, stunning High Definition quality whenever possible. Did you know that HD delivers 6 times the screen resolution of SD? Imagine being able to watch your favorite shows with the crispest, highest-resolution screen possible. Imagine watching a football game and seeing your favorite stars up close! All these HD channels are free, too. And if you go on the occasional vacation, you probably want some convenient way to keep up with all your shows, right? This DVR can connect up to 4 different TV sets in your household, and it contains enough storage for the entire season of any show. This makes it so easy and convenient to use. You probably like to binge-watch shows, right? Record an entire season of a show, and then binge-watch it with your DVR. You can use it to stop, rewind, or pause your shows. Imagine watching a baseball game with your favorite team. This really gives you some amazing power to control your own personal entertainment experience. It might be 2: Many of these On Demand offerings are free, too. What it means for you, the viewer, is that you get any single show on primetime, completely free at any time. Oh, and did you know that 1, of the 10, titles are offered in HD? This might be a killer heavyweight boxing match, or an epic wrestling event, or some incredible MMA cage match. It can also include things like concerts and other performances. But now you can just invite people over to your house and watch on a big screen TV. One of these is by offering an on-the-go TV experience. There are 13 different mobile apps that you can download in order to enjoy Charter Spectrum TV content. This lets you watch live TV channels anywhere you go in your home on any one of your mobile devices. And it also lets you watch 60 networks on-the-go, even when you leave your house. This includes a mix of networks offering sports, movies and shows. For most people, having 60 TV networks to watch wherever they go would be more than enough. But you can see why there have to be more apps than just the Spectrum TV app, right? You might want to watch more than 60 TV networks. That lets you stream content very easily. Since every square foot of your home is going to be blanketed in Wi-Fi, which means you can use your mobile devices wherever you go. For example, you might want to watch a movie on your tablet before you go to bed in your bedroom. If you have a problem with your service, you can always reach a human customer service representative. This is one reason why Charter Spectrum is so popular these days! This makes things so much better for customers. Every call is really going to be a chance to learn more about Charter Spectrum. Charter Spectrum makes it easy to switch The main reason someone might not want to switch to Charter Spectrum is because their current provider is making it difficult – if not impossible – to do so. And can you blame that poor competitor? That company knows the value proposition of Charter Spectrum is so strong and so appealing that, as soon as someone even samples Charter Spectrum content and services, they are going to want to switch. And now Charter Spectrum

Below is a look at some of the benefits you receive with it: We offer a guide on the best satellite television providers here. Charter Spectrum Bundles On the other hand, if you want to find the best cable TV providers with bundling services, then Charter Spectrum is a better fit, featuring plenty of bundling options for you. It is more than likely you at least want high-speed internet too, but if you also want home telephone service it has multiple bundling choices for you. With this, you can stream live programming or on-demand content through your internet device. With over channels available, including HBO, Starz Encore, and Epix, you receive all the movie channels you want, so you can enjoy the latest hits commercial free. You also have access to specialty sports options like the NFL Redzone channel. What makes each of these bundling offerings enticing is the fact you can try them out with no long-term commitments. While other providers require service contracts, Charter Spectrum does not. However, if you lose it for any reason, Charter Spectrum has you covered. You visit its website. Next, you should click on the cable TV tab located at the top of the website. Select the channel lineup tab. This will scroll the screen down to where you enter your physical address. You can also take a look at our Charter Channel Guide for an entire list of the channels available to you. Along with this, you can sign up for DVR service; this is where you have the option to pause live programming and record your favorite shows. Spectrum On-Demand Charter Spectrum gives you access to a wide variety of entertainment options with its on-demand programming. In addition, you receive free on-demand showings for all local channels. This gives you the opportunity to sample out new primetime shows. Lastly, it gives you the option to purchase pay-per-view events such as UFC or boxing matches. Service Availability If you want to see if you live in an area where it services, you have several options for obtaining this information. Simply, type in your address to view offers. If you live in an area it services, you will see plans and pricing information. You can also find out this information by contacting its customer service reps. When doing so, you can also learn about any promotions going on and have any questions addressed. Deals To find the best cable deals , my recommendation is to first check online, as many providers offer their best promotions there. Similar to checking for service availability, you can find the current promotions Charter Spectrum offers on its cable TV by visiting its website and selecting the find best offers tab on the right-hand side of the website. If you are a current customer and your promotion period is ending soon, it is best to contact its customer service department. I recommend being proactive in this regard, as the faster you can lock in a new rate, the fewer chances you have of sticker shock occurring when your TV service falls off promotional pricing. In this regard, Charter Spectrum lives up to this reputation. This places it in the bottom tier of cable TV subscription service providers with other companies like Time Warner Cable and Mediacom. According to the study, Charter received a 4. Keep in mind that the experiences of one customer are not representative of the company as a whole, but it is important to spot potential issues you may have with the company early nonetheless. However, there is a separate phone number if you need help purchasing online packages. If you have been or are currently a Charter TV customer, I would enjoy learning more about your tech support experiences with it. Feel free to fill out the review section located at the bottom of the page to share with us your experiences. Is Charter Cable Right for You? The first is it offers one-hour windows for service appointments with an on-time guarantee. Through my research it is the first company to offer anything of this kind, illustrating the attentive consideration it has for its customers. How this works is that customers who are stuck with service contracts through other providers such as Comcast can switch services to Charter Spectrum. Once you install its Triple Play bundle you will fill out the contract buyout form. Next, you email this form along with your final bill from your last provider. Charter Spectrum will cover the early termination fees assessed when you switched service providers. Overall, these perks are rare to find. Recap Charter delivers an uneven performance. On one hand, it has many enticing benefits.

Every cord cutter knows what their breaking point was. But I started to wonder more and more as the bills came rolling in: Somehow having TV in the bundle actually lowers the price probably due to some stupid government subsidy. Regardless, still too rich for my blood. That was the last straw, goodbye Verizon. We tried Playstation Vue and found it ok, but pricey to get all the channels we wanted. We more or less had settled on Sling , which had both a mix of channels we liked and features we were used to from years of TiVo: Or so we thought. Needless to say we were still on the hunt for an alternative, and despite some promising recent developments in YouTube TV land, a lack of full Viacom and Turner channels meant it was still out of the running for us. It works on Rokus and most other devices you probably have and seems to look a lot like an independent streaming offering. The effort of picking just 10 though seems easy until you try to do it. Giving up something like all Disney channels because you want Nick and Cartoon Network for your kids, leaving you with just 8 other channels for everything else you watch is just something it takes time to make your peace with. But the control offered is unprecedented for a cord cutter, and I love it. One thing Spectrum has done a really great job on is the Watch Spectrum app. In my time using it the past week, I have never had a hiccup on mobile, the roku app, Samsung TV app, it all works flawlessly and all at the same time. Now for the downsides. I made the mistake of ordering the CableCard at the same time, and thus did not get any channels via the Watch Spectrum app within the promised 2 hours of ordering. When you do this, the order gets configured to wait for the CableCard setup to activate. After 2 calls to support I was finally able to get the service turned on without waiting for the CableCard activation. I sincerely hope by then that the streaming services get more granular with the options they offer, or at least substantially up their DVR game. But for me, this Spectrum package worth it just for the full control you get over the channels you want, and only those channels. Finally, and perhaps most frustratingly, you may not even be eligible for the service. Author chrisa Posted on.
