Chapter 1 : World War 2 (WW2) Records | Ancestry

Abstract. The first recorded encounter of Bermuda was between and by Spaniard Juan Berm dez on a return trip to Europe, on the eastern side of the Gulf Stream at 64 40  West and 32 20  North.

Some time ago, Eldon Sentner approached me about putting abbreviated obituaries in the newsletter for those who had passed away during the week, and which appeared in Island newspapers. I have long wanted to do this, but lacking a volunteer until now, it was too time consuming to do myself. Eldon volunteered, and this is the result. The main period for them will be Jan - January 31, They will be going on alphabetically. I can not guarantee that these are the full Island notices for this period.
