Thursday, January 27, Church Bulletin Sayings Why does someone believe you when you say there are four billion stars, but check when you say the paint is wet? A clear conscience is usually the sign of a bad memory. On the way home from church one Sunday little Jason cried all the way home. Finally his dad asked what was wrong. God always puts omnipotence back of His commands, and we can do anything we ought to do. What makes the Dead Sea dead? Because it is all the time receiving but never giving out. Why is it that many Christians are cold? Because they are all the time receiving but never giving out. Moody So live that when people speak evil of you, no one will believe it. There are three crowds in every church: The house of many mansions requires reservations in advance. Having common enemies is a poor basis for fellowship. Someone who thinks logically provides a nice contrast to the real world. The chains of habit are generally too small to be felt until they are too strong to be broken. Without Christmas there would be no Easter. Good marriages are not the result of finding the right person but being the right person. People are funny, they want the front of the bus, the middle of the road, and the back of the church. I dreamed last night that I died and went to hell. One time Billy Sunday was asked what he did to get people to come to church. Then the people come to watch me burn. He has promised, however, that if you come next week his belly will be full of fire. Today is the tomorrow you worried about yesterday. Look forward to some success, not backward at some failure. Grace is God giving himself for us; Lordship is us giving ourselves to Him. Speak when you are angry and you will make the best speech you will ever hate. A balanced diet is a cookie in each hand. Experience is a wonderful thing. It enables you to recognize a mistake when you make it again. People who are green with envy are ripe for trouble. Unsolicited advice is a form of criticism. What do you have when you have 20 people and 20 different opinions? Turn to The Bread of Life! The Bible can be read through in 60 hours. Campbell Morgan Men do not reject the Bible because it contradicts itself, but because it contradicts them. Feelings come and feelings go And feelings are deceiving, My trust is in the Word of God, None else is worth believing. A reputation once broken may possibly be repaired, but the world will always keep its eyes on the spot where the crack was. A day hemmed in prayer never comes unraveled. No man is high born until he is born from on high. What do you call someone whose opinion differs from your own? Give me an example. Nostalgia is like a grammar lesson: We cannot avoid growing old, but we can avoid growing cold. You should have been there. Faith is the ability to not panic. He who dies with the most toys is still dead. The most important things in your home are the people. Feed your faith and your doubts will starve to death. When a man has not a good reason for doing a thing, he has one good reason for letting it alone. Many people believe that admitting a fault means they no longer have to correct it. Self always wants to be crowned, but God says it must be crucified. My besetting sin is exaggeration. To stay youthful, stay useful. The heart that loves is always young. What a big difference there is between giving advice and lending a helping hand! A good rule; give God the first part of every day, the first day of every week, and the first part of your income. Free trip to heaven. A lot of kneeling will keep you in good standing. Exercise daily - walk with the Lord. Now is the time to invest in eternity. A pessimist is one who, when he smells flowers, looks around for a casket. Some people are kind, polite, and sweet-spirited -until you try to sit in their pew. The chances are about 10 to 1 that when someone slaps you on the back, he wants you to cough up something. Coincidence is when God chooses to remain anonymous. It is easier to preach ten sermons than it is to live one. Most people want to serve God, but only in an advisory position. Exposure to the Son may prevent burning. Blessed are the flexible, for they shall not be bent out of shape. Silence is often misinterpreted, but never misquoted. We can never evangelize the world until the evangelized become evangelists. Prejudice is a time-saver. It enables you to form opinions without bothering to get the facts. It is only with the heart that one can see rightly; what is essential is invisible to the eye. God grades on the cross, not the curve. What the world really needs is one more hymn: The best thing about the future is that it only comes one day at a time. Classify yourself and come back next Sunday. If God is your Copilot - swap seats! As a child of God, prayer is kind of like calling home every day. God wants spiritual fruit, not religious nuts. Growing old is inevitable, growing up is optional. Peace and freedom never come at bargain prices. Some minds are like concrete, thoroughly mixed up and permanently set. The phrase that is guaranteed to wake up an audience: Dijon vu - the same mustard as before. With her marriage, she got a new name and a dress. Character is not made in a crisis - it is only exhibited. Our generation has seen television go from infancy to adultery. Success is getting what you want; happiness is wanting what you get. For a Christian, life is not divided into the secular and the sacred. To him all ground is holy ground, every bush a burning bush, every place a temple of worship. There is no difference between what is sacred and what is secular, it is all sacred. Mercy is not getting what you deserve. A plateau is a high form of flattery. God never does for His children what His children can do for themselves. The best ability is dependability. If raising children was going to be easy, it never would have started with something called labor! Why do I have to swear on the Bible in court when the Ten Commandments cannot be displayed in the courthouse? Blessed is he who has learned to admire, but not envy; to follow but not imitate; to praise, but not flatter; to lead, but not manipulate.
