

Chapter 1 : Growing Through Prayer Online Bible Study - Love God Greatly

This prayer journal, in a handy pocket-size format, is designed to be used by youth in one month's practice of the discipline of prayer. The material builds from the group experience, but youth can use the resource without having had the group experience provided in the accompanying Leader's Guide, Closer to God: Youth Experiencing Prayer.

Also, there are non-traditional disciplines. Here are a few examples to get you started: Share your faith with others 2. Perform a random act of kindness for a stranger e. Thus, the more we interact with those around us in serving and positive ways, the more we tend to grow spiritually. This is where the battle is won or lost for most of us. The fact is, we live in a VERY distracting world. We have lots of things The busyness and distraction in our world is truly overwhelming. This is precisely why before we schedule our intentional spiritual growth activities, we need to be realistic about finding the time for them. Even better, you can use minutes you are already dedicating to other things. Allow me to explain. Did you know you can pray anywhere Even though we may not feel close to God, He is with us always Matthew We can speak with Him at any moment. Now admittedly, you may not want to have ALL your prayer time waiting in lines or driving in the car. Start with a 5 minute goal. Next to each item on your spiritual growth activity list, write down which days of the week you intend to do that activity. You can use check marks for the days of the week and write time goals, as appropriate, for each activity. Write Activities on Your Calendar At this point, you simply need to add all these activities in the desired dates and time increments to your calendar of choice - either a day planner or an electronic calendar. The result is the foundation for growing spiritually and feeling closer to God. Now the most important part You have clearly documented what you plan to do and when you plan to do it. You have also put a system in place that highly increases the chance you will do what you plan - specifically, adding these activities into your calendar. Do not worry too much about missing one activity here and there. It is bound to happen in our modern busyness. That will only prevent you meeting your spiritual growth goals. As you start growing through your spiritual growth activity, you will naturally be drawn to do more. When a memory verse like 1 Corinthians In summary, the practical application of what you learn in the Bible and through spiritual growth activities is profound. Once you have your plan in place, you should expect to revisit and revise it as needed. Your schedule and your opportunities for certain activities are bound to change as you grow. Conclusion Like every other area of life, our spiritual growth achievements and feeling closer to God will only happen if we are intentional about them. We must set spiritual growth goals and be involved with spiritual growth activities if we expect to grow. If we do not, we will surely be dragged around by a list of other priorities that leave us untransformed 5, 10, or 20 years later. While it may feel impossible to start an intentional spiritual growth plan, here is an easy way to get started. First, identify a few minutes a day you can dedicate towards a spiritual growth activity. The resource provides a nice template to take you through these 3 easy steps: Select a personalized list of spiritual growth activities 2. Follow the plan as Scheduled If you know anyone else who is looking to feel closer to God and may benefit from building an intentional spiritual growth plan, please share this article and resource with them! Inspire your friends, too:

Chapter 2 : Benefits of Keeping a Prayer Journal - calendrierdelascience.com

*Prayer Journal: Days Closer to God Daily Bible Organizer With Verses Prayer Requests Gratitude Reflection Creative Religious Christian Writing Inspirational Book With Floral Lettering Cover [Modern Journals] on calendrierdelascience.com FREE shipping on qualifying offers.*

Privacy policy This Privacy Policy describes how and when I collect, use, and share information when you purchase an item from me, contact me, or otherwise use my services through Etsy. This Privacy Policy does not apply to the practices of third parties that I do not own or control, including Etsy or any third party services you access through Etsy. You can reference the Etsy Privacy Policy to learn more about its privacy practices. You may also choose to provide me with additional personal information if you contact me directly. I use your information to provide the services you requested and in my legitimate interest to improve my services; and 2 Compliance with the Etsy Seller Policy and Terms of Use. I use your information as necessary to comply with my obligations under the Etsy Seller Policy and Terms of Use. Information Sharing and Disclosure Information about my customers is important to my business. I share your personal information for very limited reasons and in limited circumstances, as follows: I share information with Etsy as necessary to provide you my services and comply with my obligations under both the Etsy Seller Policy and Etsy Terms of Use. I engage certain trusted third parties to perform functions and provide services to my shop, such as delivery companies. I will share your personal information with these third parties, but only to the extent necessary to perform these services. If I sell or merge my business, I may disclose your information as part of that transaction, only to the extent permitted by law. I may collect, use, retain, and share your information if I have a good faith belief that it is reasonably necessary to: Data Retention I retain your personal information only for as long as necessary to provide you with my services and as described in my Privacy Policy. However, I may also be required to retain this information to comply with my legal and regulatory obligations, to resolve disputes, and to enforce my agreements. I generally keep your data for the following time period: Transfers of Personal Information Outside the EU I may store and process your information through third-party hosting services in the US and other jurisdictions. As a result, I may transfer your personal information to a jurisdiction with different data protection and government surveillance laws than your jurisdiction. Your Rights If you reside in certain territories, including the EU, you have a number of rights in relation to your personal information. While some of these rights apply generally, certain rights apply only in certain limited cases. I describe these rights below: You may have the right to access and receive a copy of the personal information I hold about you by contacting me using the contact information below. You may also have rights to change, restrict my use of, or delete your personal information. Absent exceptional circumstances like where I am required to store data for legal reasons I will generally delete your personal information upon request. You can object to i my processing of some of your information based on my legitimate interests and ii receiving marketing messages from me after providing your express consent to receive them. In such cases, I will delete your personal information unless I have compelling and legitimate grounds to continue using that information or if it is needed for legal reasons. If you reside in the EU and wish to raise a concern about my use of your information and without prejudice to any other rights you may have , you have the right to do so with your local data protection authority. If you have any questions or concerns, you may contact me at Claudia.

Chapter 3 : His UnEnding Love: Tips and Thoughts for Navigating a Prayer Journal and Growing Closer to Get these cute printable sheets, perfect for a prayer journal or war binder. Included are 7 printable sheets which include a daily devotion sheet, sermon notes sheet, church notes, prayer requests, bible verses of encouragement, prayer sheet, and a bible quote.

And then over the years I would sing this song to myself whenever I was anxious and scared. I often think about the many times in the middle of the night I would hug my younger self singing this song in my head eventually falling asleep. That song always comforted me. It still does today. Perhaps this song was the seed planted all those years ago that is now become The Prayer Journals. I cannot imagine not going a day without my daily writing and praying visits with God. Because no matter how much I rely on my faith, there are days I when I feel the raindrops of doubt are the ones I do see Him more clearly. If we love each other, God lives in us, and his love is perfected in us. We know that we live in him and he lives in us, because he has given us his Spirit. We have seen and testify to the fact that the Father sent his Son as the Savior of the world. God lives in those who declare that Jesus is the Son of God, and they live in God. We have known and believed that God loves us. We are all witnesses to that. And love your neighbor as you love yourself. A new day will dawn on us from above because our God is loving and merciful. He will guide us into the way of peace. And when I find myself being bitter about not receiving the thing I want or something not happening when I think it should happen, I go to the prayer journal and I write: I only want what you want me to have and when you want me to have it and not a minute sooner. It never fails to amaze me the feeling that comes over me. All his ways are fair. He is a faithful God, who does no wrong. He is honorable and reliable. Keep me from relying on my own power, my own purpose and the love of this world instead of my love for you. Help me to understand that wisdom is born and grows to maturity through faith in Christ. Grant me the patience and confidence in Your mercy and hope in Your promises. I pray in the name of Jesus Christ, who is Wisdom. Amen May I pray for you? The Prayer Journals blog is my personal spiritual journey in conjunction with writing my spiritual memoir. My posts in are a series relating to this theme. If you have just joined The Prayer Journals, I hope you will take the time to explore previous posts on this site. Please reach out to The Prayer Journals if I can answer any questions about keeping a prayer journal of your own. A prayer journal is an intimate communication between you and God. Perhaps you are an illustrator, a painter, a poet, a lyricist or creator of scrapbooks. Use your gifts to communicate with God, however you wish in your prayer journal. God enjoys hearing from you and you will be blessed! Blessings on your day,.

Chapter 4 : How to Make A Prayer Journal: 5 Steps (with Pictures) - wikiHow

Prayer Journal Printable for keeping track of your blessings and answers to prayers Prayers and how to pray. Find this Pin and more on Inspirational by Michelle McDaniel. You can print these for your guests to help them track their own personal prayer requests and praise reports.

May I Pray for You? Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do, thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the Power of God, cast into hell satan and all of the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Glory to God in the Highest! You can make a beautiful journal. You can use a notebook. You can use note cards. A journal is a collection of your thoughts and ideas. You can freely write your ideas and questions in a journal. You can use a structured plan to make your journal writing easier. Keep your bible near you when you write. Open your heart to His love. You can write a few words, sentences or paragraphs. Where do you want me to go with this journal? Write what comes to your mind. Other ideas You can record your favorite prayers in your prayer journal. You can tell God about your day. You can tell God how excited your are about something that happened to you. You can tell God about your problems and challenges. You can tell God about your deepest desires and longings. You can tell God about your worries. You can ask God for forgiveness. You can write a story about God. You can ask God to bless someone. You can ask God to take care of your children. You can ask God to heal the sick and dying. Simply sit and pray. Look up a favorite passage in your Bible. Write what you think about this passage. Still stuck for ideas? If you like, become an art journalist. Draw in your journals. Color in your journals. Add photos to your journal. Set a goal of writing minutes per day in your journal. Date your journal each day that you write. Consider your time, when you are prayer journaling, as a sacred time, a precious time to be with God. Journaling is another type of prayer. It is a tool to deepen your relationship with God. I do put my handwritten journals away after I finish writing. These days, I journal on my computer. Perhaps you would find an app helpful to you. However you choose to handle your journal, remember, that God will be working with you through your journal. If you need to vent in your journal about someone, and it might be someone who could read your journal, vent, then rip that page out of your journal. Ask God to bless that person. Someone might read your journal and see your vent. That could cause hurt feelings. Remember this is our year of Mercy. Draw closer to Him through your prayer journal. Posted by rosebud at.

Chapter 5 : Free Printable Prayer Journal - calendrierdelascience.com

Feel free to make your own tracker, or you can download our FREE Intentional Spiritual Growth Planner template. Write Activities on Your Calendar At this point, you simply need to add all these activities in the desired dates and time increments to your calendar of choice - either a day planner or an electronic calendar.

A Guide for Parents of Teens! What should I say? I then turn to the bible. We find in Matthew 6: Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you. Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks receives; he who seeks finds; and to him who knocks, the door will be opened. But seek first His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well. All of that combined then tells us to pray for the benefit of glorifying God not for our own benefit. My husband and I attended the church when we lived in Omaha. He taught an acronym for the word pray "Praise, Reflect, Ask, and Yield. But tell Him you love Him and how amazing you think He is. Praising God first when praying helps you to focus on Him and not on yourself. Remember, the point of praying is to glorify God, worship Him, and to increase your relationship. Reflect Your kingdom com, your will be done on earth as it is in heaven Reflecting is to look at how God works in your life and in the world. Take the time to be thankful for the blessings he has provided you. Because really, not matter what is going on in your life, God has blessed you! Ask Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one. Let us look again at Matthew 6: So when we are asking God to help us, who is it to benefit? Give us today our daily bread is asking God for more of Him. Forgive us our debts so we can be back in alignment with Him. So when we are asking, seeking, and knocking the desire is to glorify God, worship Him, and increase your relationship with Him. If we are asking God to help us just for the purpose of benefiting us and making our life easier, it may not happen. But God is also not our own personal genie! And we certainly do not have control of Him. Remember the movie Aladdin? Genie was a slave. What do you need? Yield And lastly, yield. This is often the hardest part of praying. The word yield is interesting however. The synonyms are surrender, submit, and relent. We are told to to surrender, submit, and relent to God and His desires for us. Yielding in prayer is then listening and submitting to God. Some people hear God audibly. Still others experience signs. And yet the word yield also means to produce or provide. So think of it this way. When we yield or surrender to God, He produces or provides blessings in our life. Remember, God loves us abundantly! I pray that this prayer process helps you to become closer to God and increases your faith to glorify Him!

Can a Journal Bring You Closer to God? Do you want to become more aware of God's presence in your daily life? To learn to speak to Him in your own words? When prayer seems dry and you are not hearing the voice of God, a prayer journal can become a pivotal tool for improving your spiritual life.

We would like to know how to get closer to God. In fact, this is a desire that tends to grow greater and greater over our lifetimes. We begin to better understand our need for God and His grace, as well as to experience our gratitude for all His blessings. So, why do we have this desire and how can we satisfy it? How do you interact with this friend on a daily basis? What happens when great things happen in your life? What happens when something crazy happens in your day? Now consider that your relationship with God is, at a minimum, reflective of this kind of relationship. Now think about how you currently share experiences and news with Him? And therein lies the disconnect. To begin to approach the depth of feeling close to God that we seek, we need to begin building that kind of relationship with God. Your experience was likely one of the most peaceful, satisfying, and complete moments in your life. The satisfaction and wholeness that comes from an emotional connection to God is what drove King David to write Psalm after Psalm of joy and literally dance in the streets for God. We release His power in our daily life. We are motivated for righteousness. What can we do to invite the presence of God into our lives more routinely? I know you already know this, but stay with me for a bit. As a result, your prayer time now is short and shallow. This is typical, even for Christians. But consider taking what you already know about prayer and implementing it in a radical way. I am asking you to consider the discipline of prayer. Not just that you pray, but that you have an unbreakable habit of prayer. You see, "habit" is just another word for discipline. Although the word discipline can have negative overtones, it actually exudes power. When you have discipline, you have self-control. You are empowered in ways that conquer your dependencies on outside circumstances or things. There is truly no greater freedom! Here are a few: Use a Prayer Journal. Keep a prayer journal. Buy a journal at any local office supply store, Walmart, or even grocery store. Then start writing down people, places, and things you want to pray for. Create Prayer Cards. You can make prayer cards out of index cards or note cards. Simply dedicate each card to a specific person, place, or thing. Write that name at the top of the card. Then you can write your specific prayer requests for those people, places, and things on their respective note cards. When it comes time to pray, you have all of your cards to go through and talk to God about. We offer a digital Online Prayer Journal here, but there are others as well. You can search your app store for one that looks suitable for you. Once you establish your preferred system for prayer time with God, and you start to execute that system, you will start reaping the benefits. You will begin to be blessed by witnessing His answering your prayers, even the ones you forgot about from months ago. Ultimately, you will be assured that the living God is indeed close and all around you at all times. Reflecting gives you the opportunity to remind yourself of His work you have witnessed. You can ask yourself periodically: Conclusion. We have discussed our deep desires for, as well as the benefits of, a deep relationship with God. Deeper than friendship or marriage. We have considered how a habit of prayer is foundational to inviting the feeling of closeness to God more often. We also reviewed some very practical methods to start that habit - a prayer journal, note cards, or an online prayer journal app. With a real habit of prayer, you will be blessed with continual reminders of God working through your prayers. Inspire your friends, too:

Chapter 7 : How to Start a Prayer Journal | Busted Halo

How to Make A Prayer Journal. There are many different ways to talk to God through your prayer, and there even some things to calendrierdelascience.com method of prayers is to write a journal (something like a diary of prayers).

Come Ye Sinners, Poor and Needyâ€¦ by WhitneyD Mar 3, 22 Comments "The more mature a believer is, the more likely he is to open his mouth in any expression of worship and come out, first of all, with a confession of his own unworthiness. I do not wake up each morning with praise on my lips. Oh, how I wish I did. My sweet husband reminded me the other day that I tend to be discontent where I am, but look back fondly at the places I This last week we are going to be answering the The new year did not start the way I had planned or prayed it would. We had lots of illness, unexpected dental procedures, sick pets, and a minivan that started acting up. While such steep bills were frustrating - and certainly not In waiting upon God, the first thought is of the God upon whom we wait. God longs to reveal Himself, to fill us with Himself Why would a loving God not give His children what they ask for? We read last week that God is generous and knows how to give His children For we do not know what to pray for as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes for us with groanings too deep for words. And he who searches hearts knows what is the mind No matter the size, those simple prayers have been enough for the God of the Love Your Enemies by Jen Thorn Feb 11, 22 Comments Love Your Enemies But I say to you who hear, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who mistreat you. Complete transparency here, girls. I keep asking that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the glorious Father, may give you the Spirit of wisdom and revelation, so that you may know him better. I pray also that the eyes of your It was near the end of our pre-marital counseling She seeks justice again and again from this If someone were to do something truly awful to my children or my husband, I would want to see them crushed. And when I see some of the horrific things happening around the world and then read I honestly try not toâ€¦it just sort of happens. Each morning, after my Bible reading, I choose a Psalm and pray it as a form of adoration to the Lord. I ordered a tiny little baby tree, which looked like a stick with one leaf on it. A couple years passed and my little apple tree still resembled a stick with one leaf on it Our Prayers Matter by Angela Jan 19, 77 Comments I can only imagine the heartbreak those who loved Tabitha were feeling when Peter was urged to go and see her. It was an earnest reach by those who were mourning and overcome with grief from the passing of their dear friend. Their request was filled with sadness, I live in a world filled with noise. From the time I get up until I lay my head on the pillow each night, there is almost always something competing for my attention. There are schedules to keep, people to feed, phone calls to answer, work We fall to our knees in prayerâ€¦ by WhitneyD Jan 12, 52 Comments She arrived home from school on a mission. It was written all over her seven year-old face from the second she peeked her big brown eyes though the front door window, signaling her arrival. She rushed in to find her little pink Bible and promptly tucked it under one Prayer is the easiest and the hardest discipline for me. It is easy in that it does not require I have any special talents, sophisticated vocabulary, or a specific place I need to go. And yet it is difficult because I am easily I know you want to! Embracing all that God has for us as we pursue less of us and more of Him. Our brand NEW Winter online

Chapter 8 : Closer to God Prayer Journal: calendrierdelascience.com: Brian Hardesty: Books

That day in the basement crawl space reading prayer journals inspired me to write this post about the benefits of keeping a prayer journal. 1. No matter the form, prayer always draws us closer to God.

Chapter 9 : Free Prayer Journal Printable | Intentional Hospitality

Here's how you can encounter God through journaling: Begin with prayer. Invite God to use your journaling experiences to draw you closer to Him and help you grow as a person.