Kisses on the lips are very often interpreted as a form of spiritual communication. They can be thought of as a way of securing an agreement. Consider your current relationships, either with the person you kissed or with others, and whether you are entering a new phase in any of them. Perhaps your dream represents your desire to "seal the deal" in some way. What Type of Kiss Was It? What type of kiss was it? Was it passionate, friendly, respectful, or polite? If you dream that you are French kissing a person, this means that you need to express your emotions in an honest way. It may mean that you need more passion and desire in your life. Kissing the ground in a dream may represent negative emotions. It may mean that you will have emotional distress and setbacks in your life. A dream about a kiss can symbolize passion, desire, deceit, respect, loyalty, and many other feelings. The only way to know for sure what your dream means is to ask yourself: How did I feel when I had the dream? How did I feel in the dream? Sigmund Freud, the psychoanalyst who made a study of dreams and the unconscious, argued that dreams were a form of repressed desire. His theory was that emotions that we repress in our waking lives bubble up in dreams. Another dream researcher, Dr. Ernest Hartmann, found that the central image of the dream in this case, a kiss is directly related to an underlying emotion. Other theories attach symbolic meaning to the emotions experienced in dreams. Feeling afraid in a dream means the dreamer is experiencing self-doubt in their waking life. Aggression symbolizes repressed sexual desire. Feeling amorous in a dream means that your runaway emotions will get you into trouble in your waking life. Dreaming about love means that love in your waking life is strong and has spilled over into your unconscious.
