

DOWNLOAD PDF COMPLETE ANNOTATED RESOURCE GUIDE TO BLACK AMERICAN ART

Chapter 1 : African Films & Resources - Annotated Index

*Complete Annotated Resource Guide to Black American Art [Oakley Holmes] on calendrierdelascience.com *FREE* shipping on qualifying offers. Focuses on survey and historical sources related to black visual artists in the U.S.*

Jet is another magazine made available over the Internet by Google books. Whenever possible, links are provided directly to the online source identified. So this is a great tool for undergraduates not knowing where to start. It is also a good starting point for graduate students and faculty looking for materials outside their established silos. Once you do a search; note how SearchPlus offers a large number of facets on the left side to refine your search. SearchPlus is a starting tool. Advanced researchers will still want to explore more deeply in specialized databases, particularly those that are not covered by SearchPlus. Features more than wide-ranging periodicals by and about African Americans. An index to periodical articles published about African Americans in popular and scholarly magazines from to References from the Journal of Negro History have been excluded since that journal publishes its own index. Access is by author and subject. A fully cross-searchable gateway to Black Studies including scholarly essays, recent periodicals, historical newspaper articles, and much more. It combines several resources for research and teaching in Black Studies: Index to Black Periodicals Collection title varies. An annual author, title, and subject index to articles and book reviews by and about African Americans published in thirty-nine black journals from through Index to Selected Periodicals received in the Hallie Q. Hall, , printing. Available at the Library of Michigan AI3. O4 Index to Selected Periodicals, v. Compiled by the staffs of the Hallie Q. O4 Index to Black Periodicals, Print. Hall Index to Black Periodicals, O4 Black Studies on disc [electronic resource], cd-rom. Digital and Multimedia Center 4 West Z Full-text coverage of 40 core Black Studies periodicals to the present , along with indexing and abstracting for over scholarly and popular journals, newspapers and newsletters from the United States, Africa and the Caribbean to the present. Kaiser Index to Black Resources, A monumental publication in providing bibliographic access to African-American resources. Provides approximately 50, bibliographic records with abstracts covering topics such as discrimination, immigration studies, and other areas highly relevant to African American Studies and Ethnic Studies in general. Use these to find articles and other research on your topic. For a more extensive list of databases and electronic resources available in the MSU Libraries, go to the Electronic Resources page. Provides coverage of 3, indexed and 1, full-text titles in a wide variety of disciplines including: More than 1, journals are peer reviewed, and more than 20 years of backfile coverage are included. Check out the browse subject section for all the entries starting with African American! Years available vary with each title, but the most recent issues available in JSTOR will normally be years old due to embargoes from publishers. Covers more than 3, journals. Years offered by each journal vary but usually are only the most recent issues. Muse is a unique collaboration between the participating publishers and the Milton S. Eisenhower Library at the Johns Hopkins University. Proquest Research Library indexing: Provides online access to an extensive collection of published material. You can search for information in thousands of different journals, periodicals, dissertations, newspapers, and magazines. Provides full text coverage of over journals. However, full text coverage varies by date from journal to journal. Google has created this database to speed location of reports and journal articles available on the Internet. Google is also working hard on facilitating links to subscription resources offered by university libraries. However not all the links work yet. So if you find an interesting article or resources via this database, be sure to check whether it is available via the MSU Libraries electronic or print collections. Full-text database of selected newspapers, magazines and journals of the alternative and independent press. Coverage complements the reporting in the mainstream press. Also listed under Newspapers. Designed to provide the "other side of the story," ENW titles offer additional viewpoints from those proffered by the mainstream press. Coverage varies by paper, but goes as far back as for some publications. Provides access to the citations of articles and in some cases, the full text of articles , book reviews, and dissertations in American and Canadian history. Access limited to 6

DOWNLOAD PDF COMPLETE ANNOTATED RESOURCE GUIDE TO BLACK AMERICAN ART

simultaneous users. America History and Life is listed near the bottom of the page! Provides access to Encyclopedia of World Dress and Fashion and other Berg titles where one can find some articles about African-American dress and fashion and related topics. Provides indexing and abstracting for more than publications, and includes selected full-text coverage for more than journals in communications, mass media, and related fields. Topics include among many others health communication, gender and communication, communication theory, and mass media. Contains hundreds of in-depth abstracts of current books, book chapters, journal articles, government reports, and dissertations published worldwide. Also offers extensive coverage of new books from scholarly and commercial publishers and valuable reports from public and private agencies in many nations. For each document, a summary of the finding, methodology, and conclusions is provided. Topics include crime trends, prevention projects, corrections, juvenile delinquency, police, courts, offenders, victims and sentencing. Provides access to full-text news, business, and legal publications, using a variety of flexible search options. One of the most heavily used databases in higher education. Indexes selected books, government documents, and periodical articles on contemporary public issues and the making of public policy. Provides full text for over publications, and cover-to-cover indexing and abstracts for more than journals. The database also features more than full-text reference books and monographs, and over 27, full text conference papers, including those of the International Political Science Association. Covers over journals in over 30 languages from approximately 50 countries. Also includes psychology articles from related disciplines such as sociology, linguistics, education, medicine, law, physiology, business, psychiatry, and anthropology. Includes bibliographic records covering essential areas related to race relations, including ethnic studies, discrimination, immigration studies, and other areas of key relevance to the discipline. The index contains more than 46, records, which are carefully selected from the most important sources within the discipline. Sociological Abstracts Proquest to date. Provides access to the latest research in sociology and related disciplines in the social and behavioral sciences. Includes citations and abstracts since for articles in over 1, journals. Draws information from an international selection of journals, serials, conference papers, books, and dissertations. Indexes science, social sciences, and arts and humanities information from nearly 9, of the most prestigious, high impact research journals in the world.

DOWNLOAD PDF COMPLETE ANNOTATED RESOURCE GUIDE TO BLACK AMERICAN ART

Chapter 2 : Women of Color Resource Sites

Note: Citations are based on reference standards. However, formatting rules can vary widely between applications and fields of interest or study. The specific requirements or preferences of your reviewing publisher, classroom teacher, institution or organization should be applied.

Bibliography - Visual Arts and Worship Annotated bibliography related to visual arts, theology and worship. The following is an annotated bibliography related to visual arts, theology and worship. Publications Printing the Word: Prints and accompanying scripture include: OT, life of Christ, teachings, miracles, and passion of Christ. Reflective readings by Patricia Raybon, lyrics to the songs, and scripture texts are included. Other published works include: Great Verses of the Bible in Expressive Calligraphy Brewer An exploration of biblical stories within overarching themes of creation, fall, redemption, and consummation. The stories are told through reflections, scripture, and contemporary art work seen in full color. Other published works together include: These verses have the rhythm of drums and can therefore be enjoyed best when read out loud. The Dutch artist Anneke Kaai explains the imagery and color symbolism she uses to express the psalm on which each painting is based. At the same time, extracts from The Message by Eugene H. Peterson allow the reader to encounter and meditate on a contemporary rendition of the scripture passages. Other published works by Kaai include: Reflections on the images, by artists and writers, invite the reader to contemplate on the many faces of Christ. Scripture passages are included. Works from Japan to India, Australia to China is presented. Each example has information on the artist, a description of the artwork and a scripture reference. The Art of Forgiveness: Out of print but worth searching for or checking out of the library. Black and white drawings illustrate content that is practical and theologically significant. Caemmerer looks at church history, church liturgy, and the church mission to encourage congregational participation in worship through the use of the arts. Beginning with a brief history, the authors then turn to guidelines for placing art in churches, for viewing art, and for understanding art for worship. Resource list, references with furthering reading list, and index. Case studies are used to explore the dynamics between art, artist, and the church. A DVD is included to show before and after pictures of space installations, vestments, etc. She draws on the riches of scripture, history and contemporary liturgy to unfold the symbolic or sacramental dimensions of the baptismal font. Why is this important? It is important because, after about a thousand years we have recently come to reappropriate a much older mentality which saw the whole rite and its participants and its timing and the spatial context of its unfolding as sacramental. Sure to inspire a sermon as well as a new interest in the visual arts as biblical commentary. Behold the Beauty of the Lord: In this small pamphlet Schaeffer discusses the place of art in the Christian life. Rainbows for the Fallen World: A must-read for anyone interested in aesthetics. Covers topics such as the biblical charter, an obedient aesthetic life, the contribution of Christian aesthetics to reading the Bible, theory, and modern art. Appendices look at iconography, the Reformation, "glory to God in the kitchen," and Henry Moore. Bearing Fresh Olive Leaves: Walton An excellent resource to begin studying connections between art and worship—looking to the past, listening to the church and listening to artists plus thinking about the future with principles for partnership between the artist and the church. Perfect for small group study on worship and congregational life Spaces for Spirit: Chinn talks of the process of doing art, the practicalities of forming an art committee, but more importantly, she looks at why using the visual arts would benefit the church and enhance worship. The use of case studies is helpful and the wide variety of ideas can be tailored to any size church. Dyrness In Visual Faith, Dyrness shares insights into the biblical, historical, theological and practical relationship between the arts and worship. This overview would be particularly helpful for churches beginning a dialogue on worship and the arts. Excellent sections on dealing with contemporary challenges, new opportunities for Christian involvement in the arts, and how culture can be engaged. Includes bibliography for further study. Reformed Theology and Visual Culture: Art and the Visual in Christian Worship Other published works include: White and Susan J. White In its second printing, this book has been a standard work in the area of church architecture. This is a must-read for those thinking of building or reorganizing their worship space. The authors discuss six distinct spaces: Protestant Worship and Church Architecture: Theological and Historical Considerations

DOWNLOAD PDF COMPLETE ANNOTATED RESOURCE GUIDE TO BLACK AMERICAN ART

DOWNLOAD PDF COMPLETE ANNOTATED RESOURCE GUIDE TO BLACK AMERICAN ART

Chapter 3 : EasyBib: Free Bibliography Generator - MLA, APA, Chicago citation styles

*Complete Annotated Resource Guide to Black American Art [Oakley Holmes] on calendrierdelascience.com *FREE* shipping on qualifying offers.*

Afro-American Poetry and Drama, Uris Z N39 A25 A. White Library Publication Date: Gale, Really two volumes in one: There are author, title and subject indexes at the end of this volume. A focused yet thorough annotated bibliography of primary and secondary works related to the four groups noted in the title, including background material such as brief narrative histories. Plus supplements and This bibliography lists American editions of prose fiction written by Americans and published between and Chronological and title indexes are included. This volume is followed by supplements covering the years and respectively. Bibliographical Guide to the Study of the Literature of the U. Uris Z G61 A. A guide for students and teachers which will aid in the techniques of research. Materials listed include American history, biography, art, religion, and philosophy. Arrangement is topical with author and subject indexes. Thomas ed Call Number: Volume 1 covers the early black writers of the eighteenth century, the slave narratives, the early modern writers, the Harlem Renaissance, the Langston Hughes. Uris Z J77 A. Harvard A guide listing works presenting the intellectual, sociological, and political backgrounds of American literary history. Includes an extensive reading list on American literature. Libraries Unlimited, c A bibliographic guide to Latino literature, works both written in and translated to English, with a focus on genres. Uris Z M19 A. A bibliography of books and articles on literary criticism in the fields of fiction, drama and poetry. The time span for literature covered runs from the Epic of Gilgamesh to the present. Entries are arranged alphabetically by the author being reviewed. A complete Title Index is provided at the end of Volume 4. American Literature Publication Date: Bibliographies are browseable by subject area and keyword searchable. Contains a "My OBO" function that allows users to create personalized bibliographies of individual citations from different bibliographies.

DOWNLOAD PDF COMPLETE ANNOTATED RESOURCE GUIDE TO BLACK AMERICAN ART

Chapter 4 : The complete annotated resource guide to black American art (Book, ) [calendrierdelascience.

Get this from a library! The complete annotated resource guide to Black American art: books, doctoral dissertations, exhibition catalogs, periodicals, films, slides, large prints, speakers, filmstrips, video tapes, Black museums, art galleries, and much more.

Founded in , this organization is open to anyone with interest in sculpture. It features ISC news, portfolio extensive list of sculptors with descriptive information and images , Sculpture Magazine with online selected articles, resource information, and much more. It publishes The Studio Potter that features articles, reviews, and a gallery of ceramic artists. It maintains affiliates in 39 states, including Tennessee. This site contains excerpts from its most important publications and images of work by artists who work with VSA Arts. Ask Art " The Artists Bluebook. This site provides information on 27, American artists useful for collectors, gallery owners, scholars, and students of fine art. Includes such information as dates, biographies, methods, subjects for which the artist is best known, literary sources, etc. This site provides information on over 70 painters and 19 art movements with links to detailed reference material, image galleries, and relevant books. This site provides brief biography, critical essays, and bibliography. Web Gallery of Art. This is a searchable database containing over 10, art reproductions with commentaries and biographies on many of the artists. This site focuses on European painting and sculpture of the Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque periods. This site offers information, images, links, and book recommendations relating to Rodin. In addition it lists all major collections and biographical web sites. Site categories include life, museums, books, archives; it further provides year by year biography with representative works from each year of his life. The Vincent van Gogh Gallery. Site inventory includes 2, works of art and letters, as well as criticism, analysis, historical commentary, chronology, and links to other sites. Provides an extensive listing of artists samples of their artwork, some include biographical information. Covers such areas as business, exhibitions, and marketing. Features a series of articles designed to teach artists the skills they need to manage their own careers. Professional Practices in the Arts. It focuses on historically significant artists who emerged in the late sixties. Artist " Info " Contemporary art data base. This site contains information on over 82, contemporary artists and almost 9, galleries. It provides images of their art work and is international in scope. This site is a network of people and projects investigating new media in the practice of art. It is international in scope and includes extensive links under such categories as projects, resources, organizations, exhibit spaces, and portfolios. It provides access to current artists and their projects. It also features books on contemporary artists and artist web projects. This is an art column by Alice Lovelace and includes an introduction and features interviews, articles, and original works. A national broadcast series on contemporary art, artists, and ideas. It also provides biographical information on the artists in the series. It includes an online glossary and art activities. Features Irish and international contemporary art on the web and promotes specific web projects. It is a searchable catalog of internet resources that have been selected and cataloged by professional librarians for the UK Higher Education Community. Provides links to many categories of art such as artists, architecture, art communities, art education, art history, etc. Web site for art collectors. Lists gallery web sites for almost every state in the U. Provides links to art history departments, research resources, image collections, fine art schools, art museums, and much more. It links to sites useful to the scholar. Provides information about 11, artists and where to find their work and provides a directory of museums from around the world. Provides access to over art dealers, artists from A. Provides links to hundreds of artists, a lengthy list of galleries, many art museums, and an extensive list of informative art sites. Provides a portal to member sites that might otherwise not appear on search engines. This directory has sixty categories to over 39, references to artists, museums, art styles, and more. Visual Arts Resources form Artslynx. Exhaustive coverage of all aspects of visual arts. Art on the Internet. Provides links to art web sites with critical commentary for each site. Links to museum web sites and is international in scope. Yahoo Directory " Arts. Directory to web sites in such areas in art as education , famous artists 1,, galleries 1, , genres , museums , personal pages 1, , resources and more. A directory of authoritative art and culture web sites. A comprehensive directory of on-line museums and museum related resources. It is international in scope and includes U. Provides directory information for art agencies, art galleries, museums, art schools and much more. It provides links to some home pages. Links to web sites in the following categories: Provides links to over 1, international museums and museum-related web sites. Links to over art resources in such areas as art history, photography, printmaking, mixed media, etc. Serves as guide to museum related information and links to museum web sites, virtual exhibits, educational and entertaining games and activities, and extensive learning resources. Net-Art Links Search Engine. Provides links to art and photography sites. Art categories include artists, crafts, criticism, directories, education, galleries, etc. Provides links to the following: Top 20 Art History. Links to web sites in art history. Categories are arranged by periods, culture, artist name, or museums. Virtual Library Museums Pages. An international listing of museum websites arranged by country. Voice of the Shuttle. Internet Resources for Art Historians. Links to web site in the following categories: Resources on the Web. Directory to web sites in a wide variety of art history subjects, arranged by historical period and nationality.

DOWNLOAD PDF COMPLETE ANNOTATED RESOURCE GUIDE TO BLACK AMERICAN ART

DOWNLOAD PDF COMPLETE ANNOTATED RESOURCE GUIDE TO BLACK AMERICAN ART

Chapter 5 : An Annotated List of Web Sites Pertinent to the Visual Arts

African American Visual Artists An Annotated Bibliography Of Educational Resource Materials Global Art Resources Guide No1 printable document Leah Chase Listen I Say Like This.

Contact Us Menu StudentGuide. We provide articles on hundreds of student related topics to help them improve their study habits, writing skills, organizational skills, and analytical skills. Great Civil War Resources for K Students Learning about the American Civil War is not only critical for students in the United States, it also has the potential to engage all kinds of learners in a variety of ways. Through essays and articles, engaging web-based activities, and primary source documents such as photos, letters, diaries, and literature, students of all ages that explore the websites we have compiled, will gain a balanced perspective of the Civil War. They can walk in the shoes of a slave bound for freedom on the Underground Railroad, or make strategic decisions as Union General Ulysses Grant. They will learn about popular music of the day, about life on the home front through the love letters of its soldiers, the significance of paper money, or the role of women during the Civil War. Teachers will also find lesson plans and resource to help guide the exploration of students. The Internet is full of fascinating and accessible resources about the Civil War—this list is just the tip of the iceberg! General Resources Civil War at the Smithsonian provides information and images of Smithsonian artifacts related to different Civil War topics, from Abraham Lincoln to life and culture during the war. Also includes a timeline and the story of what happened to the Smithsonian Institution during the war. Civil War Overview is a multimedia overview of the war, with video and photographs, as well as links to student and teacher resources. Also includes on-line activities for students, and links to lesson plans for teachers. Also includes classroom activities and lessons for teachers. For Elementary School Students American Civil War Kids Zone Exhibits is full of information, images and resource links on a variety of topics from the causes of the war, to news reporting during the war to medicine and hospitals, to songs, to recipes. A great resource which also includes links to other sites. Includes resources and lesson plans for educators. Gettysburg National Military Park Kidzpage has engaging information about the Civil War, from the big picture, to food, to flags, to slang, etc. Includes fun activities and quizzes, as well as information about the battlefield and Civil War-era artifacts. Kids Guide to the Civil War is an easy-to-understand site created by elementary students, and full of information and photographs about the war. See a slide show, learn about major events and military campaigns, and test your knowledge with fun quizzes. Also includes book reviews and links to other resources. The Civil War for 5th Graders has a ton of information geared towards middle elementary students covering topics from the sides, the causes of war, battlefield life, to reconstruction. Includes art and writing activities for 5th graders and links to other great Civil War resources. The Civil War for Kids was created by elementary school students for elementary school students and includes a timeline, general information about battles and leaders, and special topics such as children of the Civil War. Also includes fun activities and links to more info. The Underground Railroad site has an innovative approach to learning about slavery and the Underground Railroad—by studying the African American quilting tradition. Learn about the important information embedded in the quilts, as well as about aspects of slavery, one of the causes of the civil war. For Middle School Students Civil War Medicine tracks the advances of medicine during the Civil War, and highlights such as medical technology, amputations and transport. Civil War Preservation Trust: Student Resources has great information and historical research tips for students. Includes glossary and a timeline, and fun civil war activities such as crosswords and quizzes. Also, links to information about historical civil wars sites and other resources. Social Studies for Kids: The American Civil War Homepage is a clearing house of annotated resource links, including articles, primary documents, links to discussion groups, and further web resources. The Valley of the Shadow: Two Communities in the American Civil War highlights one northern and one southern, before, during and after the war, through extensive primary source documents including letters, newspapers and census records. Includes an extensive bibliography. Includes photo galleries, speeches, and genealogy, and special information for students. American Slave Narratives includes extensive firsthand accounts of slavery from over 10 former slaves. Includes suggestions on reading the narratives, as well as links to related resources on the web. Black Confederates in the Civil War is a website dedicated to a little known topic: Black soldiers in the Confederate army. Includes noted examples of black confederate soldiers, problems with documentation, estimates of numbers, first hand accounts, and treatment of these soldiers by Union troops, to name a few. Causes of the Civil War Confederate View provides the southern perspective about the causes of the war, from a variety of primary sources. Chinese Soldiers Fought in the U. Civil War is a fascinating article about a little considered topic: Chinese soldiers in the American Civil War. Good starting point for a research topic. Civil War Academy is full of general information about the Civil War, including information about music, uniforms, women, food, prisons, etc. Includes Civil War-era images and a link to a Civil War blog. Civil War Resource Guide is an online text book of sorts which includes links well as links to essential Civil War readings, primary source documents and further web resources. From Slavery to Civil Rights is an interactive timeline of the Civil War and beyond, including photographs, a brief overview of different Civil War topics, and links to more information for each topic. Great American History Overview of the Civil War is an detailed, interactive overview of the Civil War, from slavery to reconstruction. Click on a link to read an in depth article on the subject. Some of these links are broken, but there is still a lot of great information! Includes primary documents and genealogical information. Includes lesson plans using the letters, genealogical information about Scott, and links to other Civil War information. Includes Black soldiers in the war, and letters, telegrams and photographs illustrating factors that affected the Civil War. Includes images and links to additional resources and products. Includes song lyrics and streaming audio, as well as links to background information for context for the music. Teacher Resources has extensive lesson plans for all grade levels, on a variety of topics from Civil War personalities, to Civil War slang, to the impact of Civil War photography to mapping the Civil War battles. Life in the North and South is a curriculum unit developed by the National Endowment for the Humanities and covers various themes such as plantation vs. Includes background information for teachers, guiding questions, activities, and assessment suggestions, and links to other resources. Teaching the Civil War Through Technology Blog compiles great information about how to teach Civil War through the resources available on the Internet. Includes links to lesson plans, photo essays of modern battlefields, quick statistics about the war. The Role of Women in the Civil War is a web-based lesson plan geared at High School students Includes links to primary source documents and other resources for students to use in their research. Wartime Correspondence is a language arts lesson plan that asks students to imagine what it was like to be involved in the Civil War. Includes lesson extensions for teachers. Additional Museums and Archives American Civil War Collections at the Electronic Text Center has compiled a number of collections of letters, diary entries, contracts, and other texts related to the Civil War. Collections include searchable transcripts as well as images of the primary source documents. Online Exhibition is on online exhibit about Civil War paper currency and the significance of its imagery. Includes an overview of the Civil War as well as extensive bibliography. Also Includes information about traveling around the US to Civil War memorial sites, current and archived news articles, and a discussion board. Civil War Love Letters includes transcripts of love letters written by Civil War soldiers and their sweethearts. Includes links to other Electronic Exhibitions of Civil War-era letters. Also sorted according to location. Includes an overview of the collection and links to more teacher resources. Gettysburg Address is on online exhibit about Lincoln and the Gettysburg address. Includes detailed descriptions of the exhibit items, archival preservation information, and links to related exhibits and multimedia highlights. Library of Congress Teacher Resources: American Civil War provides an overview of the Civil War as well as teacher resources that provide links to primary sources such as maps and poems, and classroom activities and lessons. Would you make choices that lead to freedom? Includes historical images, music and links to additional resources.

DOWNLOAD PDF COMPLETE ANNOTATED RESOURCE GUIDE TO BLACK AMERICAN ART

DOWNLOAD PDF COMPLETE ANNOTATED RESOURCE GUIDE TO BLACK AMERICAN ART

Chapter 6 : Smithsonian American Art Museum and Renwick Gallery

The compiler's intention was that it serve as a guide to American fiction, rather than as a complete bibliographical description. Chronological and title indexes are included. This volume is followed by supplements covering the years and respectively.

Johns Hopkins University Press, Johns Hopkins University Press; Madness, Malingering, and Malfeasance: The Wounded of Gettysburg. Robertson, James I ed. Broadfoot Publishing Co, " reprint. Bleeding Blue and Gray: Years of Change and Suffering: Modern Perspectives on Civil War Medicine. The Encyclopedia of Civil War Medicine. Confederate Hospitals on the Move: Stout and the Army of Tennessee. University of South Carolina Press, Women at the Front: Hospital Workers in Civil War America. Chapel Hill, North Carolina: University of North Carolina Press, Disease in the Civil War: Natural Biological Warfare in " Medical Histories of Confederate Generals. Kent State University Press, Medical Histories of Union Generals. Primary sources[ edit ] Barnes, Joseph H. Government Printing Office, " Letters from a Civil War Surgeon: The Letters of Dr. Polar Bear and Company, Holland, Mary Gardner, ed. Michigan State University Press, The Fate of Liberty: Abraham Lincoln and Civil Liberties Lincoln and the Triumph of the Nation: Constitutional Conflict in the American Civil War. Constitutional Problems under Lincoln Slavery and emancipation[ edit ] Main article: Emancipation Proclamation Belz, Herman. Emancipation and Equal Rights: A Slave No More: Two Men Who Escaped to Freedom: Including Their Own Narratives of Emancipation. Chambers Jr, Henry L. The Gray and the Black: The Confederate Debate on Emancipation. Louisiana State University Press, The Dred Scott Case: Oxford University Press, Abraham Lincoln and American Slavery. Three Views Huston, James L. Calculating the Value of the Union: Slavery and the Commerce Power: Yale University Press, Ordeal of the Union: On the Threshold of Freedom: Masters and Slaves in Civil War Georgia. University of Georgia Press, Slavery and the American West: The Radical and the Republican: The Legacy of John Brown. Ohio University Press, From Property To Person: Great Britain and the American Civil War 2 vols. Britain and the American Civil War The United States and France: U of Pennsylvania Press, Confederate Commerce, Diplomacy, and Intrigue. University of Delaware Press, The Cause of All Nations: Lancashire and the American Civil War. University of Chicago Press, University of Tennessee Press, A World on Fire:

Chapter 7 : Great Civil War Resources for K Students | Student Guide

Provides links to the following: museums from around the world, ethnic galleries, black artists, women artists, index to artist links (living & dead), art games, lessons, art education, and art magazines & journals.

Chapter 8 : Bibliographies - American Literature: A Guide to Resources - LibGuides at Cornell University

The history sections of the Resource Guide organize resources by level (elementary and secondary). They also begin with broad essential questions to guide use of resources in the eras.

Chapter 9 : Bibliography of the American Civil War - Wikipedia

WHAT IS AN ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY? An annotated bibliography is a list of citations to books, articles, and documents. Each citation is followed by a brief (usually about words) descriptive and evaluative paragraph, the annotation.