Click thru to each on the following links: To find out more about this click here. Their website has details of their meetings IE location, dates and times. Here is an extract of my Talk from the DSV newsletter: Erika L Soul was very warmly received at our last meeting in August. She clearly inspired many seasoned dowsters with some new thinking and suggestions. People flocked to collect copies of her printouts. As part of her presentation Erika did some dowsing demonstrations, including work on the Community Centre where the DSV meets. The Committee has worked for some years on the energy of this building which so often reverts to negatives, sometimes resulting in members falling asleep. I had come across pendulums and dowsing for answers to questions many years before and had dabbled with this and read up on how to use a pendulum but not with regards to changing energies, clearing programs and so much more. I already had many healing modalities I utilise in my work as a Divine Angel Reader and Energy Healing practitioner, however dowsing was a tool I could use for anything and I was very keen to learn. I got a note book and I wrote down my dowsing sessions I was doing for people I knew and clients so I could know when I had done what and could see if things changed. After reading Raymons books I wanted to find a Dowsing Society and I easily found the Dowsing Society of Victoria via their website right here in Melbourne, only 20mins away. Over a period of time I borrowed dowsing books from the library and learned tips and tools for dowsing. I put a lot of time and energy into my dowsing practice and I often use it with my reading clients and healing sessions. It is an ongoing learning process with dowsing and I improve with my dowsing all the time. Dowsing for me takes confidence that I am able to connect with the pendulum and trust what I receive and to have faith in the Divine. Then I find something comes in that guides me with the answer. I use a range of pendulums some crystal, some brass and some home made ones also, with a gold little spiral cage that you can put some small rounded crystal beads in. I really love pendulums. I love to use dowsing for many things, to change energy, to balance the brain, to clear negative energy, to help others with their challenges, to neutralise ill effects of foods etc etc. I facilitate Energy dowsing in my Soul Energy Healing facebook group, like Brain Balance Dowsing sessions, Deep Pendulum Clearing, Clearing Fear and Anxiety , Mystery dowsing and some people have reported good results like feeling clearer and happier. I record what it is I am guided to dowse for them, and then later on I check with them, to see what changes or benefits have occurred for them. I do in person sessions with dowsing on whatever the person has going on for them or at a distance we can conduct a session and I can give the person the details of their session. We are simply working with energy and using a pendulum or bobber to facilitate this. I hope some of this has been useful for you and thankyou. I conduct the sessions in my Therapy room in my home in bayswater. You can book a session with me by calling me on 03 to make an appointment. If you wish you can prepay for your session via my shopping cart on this page. All the details are there on how to use the cart and details of what a dowsing session entails. At the moment there are 5 different protocols you can use as follows:. Collated by Erika L Soul www. So you see after years of doing healing work on myself and for others this Brain Balance protocol has arisen and mainly from working on balancing my own brain and switching it on if it has switched off from some stress or negative thought or reaction! I have gathered these brain balance healing items from many sources of the many various healing modalities I utilize and from my own understandings of what the brain needs to function properly I have gathered over the years since approximately. I started creating this protocol from what I did for myself to have my brain function optimally , over time I added more and more items to the list. I love to use this brain healing balance for myself and I am its best guinea pig!! Raymon Grace has a youtube video where he dowse 3 things for the brain, it is called Random Acts of Kindness. Other items are from other healers also and I have reworded a lot of it and some is as they say it also. So you can simply use the healing techniques you know or my suggestions here to have this done anytime you feel off balance, stressed, not yourself or unwell. You can simply dowse each item one at a time also as needed as each of these are what you would dowse for individually also.. If you want to have this dowsed for you and your brain function checked for how balanced you are simply contact me and we can arrange this which will require a show of appreciation of a donation via my Ecwid shop on my website!!! I have a Soul Energy Healing group on Facebook that I facilitate as an online healing circle which you are welcome to join and you can join a list of names there to receive this regularly. I am also available for Energy dowsing and Healing sessions. You may share this whole document file to others privately as long as you change nothing at all, and do not reword it and leave all links and details included as they are thankyou. Heal and Balance the Brain completely. Hydrate the cells in the brain fully. Oxygenate the cells in the Brain fully. Balance all Brain chemicals to optimum levels. Balance my hormone levels to their optimum levels. Make all electrical activity in the brain in perfect harmony and balance. Balance both the right and left Brain hemispheres. Brain is switched on! Heal the negative charges on all negative thoughts, emotions, memories in each cell in the physical and etheric brain. Heal any stress and trauma in every cell of the physical and etheric brain. Create a calm clear happy bright positive mind and Brain. Increase recall, memory and organisational abilities. Reboot, repattern my brain and keep it clear and balanced. Neutralize, balance, transmute any and all ill effects of EMR on brain and any harmful influence of EMR and electronic devices and change to beneficial energies. Mind and brain functioning in perfect and divine order. Do all Theta Healing commands for the brain that are beneficial now. Put the brain and body on their ideal frequencies for overall harmony and balance. Balance any detrimental or harmful energies of any kind from anywhere affecting the brain and overall brain functioning and bring healing energies needed to balance the etheric and physical brain. Neutralise any and all ill effects of Low X Energy upon the persons brain, body and their home. Reset the body, brain mind and emotions by touch and integrate with the BRAIN Release the brain and body from viruses, bacteria, fungus and parasites Bring the Heart and the Brain into harmony and co-operation and wellbeing. Simply repeat this prayer out loud and at the end chant any word over and over til the energy stops as in your voice peters out. If you like dowsing with a pendulum simply swing the pendulum as you say this cord cutting Macro. Dowsing on Negative states of being: We ask to neutralise any and all negative non beneficial thought forms affecting us right now and change these into the highest purest thoughts aligned with the Divine. WE ask to bring all non beneficial energies influencing us right now into the Light and Sound of God healing them and blessing them all. We ask to neutralise the negative effects of the surrounding area upon US, our homes and family. WE send them back to the proper plane to free them from attachment. You can also say a Most Benevolent Outcome for this protocol or dowse this with a pendulum, or say it as a prayer or cut cords with all of this, whatever is the best way for you to do this and you can change the wording to your preferences. Ask to clear the results of smoking from the body. Ask that the desire for smoking be removed or steadily lessened over the next month. Ask to remove all toxic conditions from the body 4. Invite the nature spirits back to the body to optimum levels and make a promise to them and to yourself that you will work hard to keep your body free of toxins so they will stay.

With 40 years experience, Maas considers dowsing a life skill for everyone. What got you interested in dowsing and how did you learn it? I had this feeling since I was a kid that there was more to the world than what we were taught – that something was missing. When I was 12 or 13 I made myself a pendulum from string and paraffin wax, and I taught myself how to use it. Years later I took a course and formally learned about basic dowsing practices and L-rods, etc. And then my Mom always did something with a ring suspended by a string to tell the sex of an unborn baby. On the other is the story of the recent discovery of an enormous cavern underneath Montreal, which the explorers matter-of-factly admit they located using a dowsing rod. Dowsing has traditionally been used in mining activities and for locating water. Since the majority of us will never have any need to do either of these things, is dowsing still relevant to the average person? How could we use it? More and more we see dowsing being used for spiritual purposes. People are so caught up in the material world that they forget they are spiritual beings who are only temporarily in a material body. People need to learn there is more to life than going to work each day. When I teach classes I show my students how to identify the auras of trees and the energy coming off rocks. You focus on earth energies in your dowsing practice. What type of services do you offer and why are they needed? When I go in I generally find energetic disharmony. After I neutralize or harmonize it using dowsing techniques, the house sells pretty quickly. Similarly, I do work for private homeowners who move into a house and suddenly find that family members are arguing a lot more than normal or are falling ill. After I go and harmonize it, things generally improve. How do you – or your clients – know that your dowsing has been successful? The feedback my clients give is that the house sells or there are fewer arguments in the house so living conditions improve. The feedback I get comes in the form of repeat and word-of-mouth business. In some ways dowsing for and remediating energies seems more complicated than dowsing for water – a dowser just needs to find water, but he needs to change the actual flow of the energies. This is a legitimate concern, especially since more and more of us are living in cities. Could we be doing it wrong and actually creating dis-harmony instead of harmony? Or is that something you normally only have to worry about with the larger standing stones? This is a good question. What people need to understand is that crystals are amplifiers; whatever you project – negative or positive – they will amplify. After you are finished using salt water, pour the water outside in a garden or on the lawn. This way, any unwanted energies go back to the Earth, not into the pipes of your home. A lot of people believe that crystals that are optically clear are stronger and more effective, but I like crystals with imperfections – I like the energy that many of these so-called defects give off. L-rods and Y-rods are only as good as the dowser – and are only as good as the questions the dowser is asking. New energies and vibrations are coming to our planet, and we can use dowsing to find out how to enhance them. Tell me about them. I started by asking questions: Are there new energies coming to the Earth? Can I make devices to enhance them? I might receive an image in response. Should it be in this shape? Should it be made out of that material? Should it be less than one foot long? Should it be over three feet long? You get the picture. Most people who sit in my pyramid unit have some sort of experience – they feel unusual heat, they feel a breeze, they get an image of a starship, or they hear people talking to them. They have their own personal experience. Did this information come from them? The Arcturians are transmitting information down to the Earth with the goal of helping humanity to come together to make the world a better place. And they are broadcasting the information to everyone, not to a certain person or persons. Anyone who is listening can hear it as long as you are living at a high enough vibration. I respond to the information I get – sometimes words, sometimes images – by creating pyramids and other energy devices. Others create sculpture or make paintings. There are many modalities unique to each of us which enable us all to share the energy. If people could know one thing about dowsing, what do you wish that would be? I would like people to realize how simple dowsing really is. People need to apply it to something that is important to them. If you are interested in health, learn to dowse for physical weaknesses or vitamin deficiencies â€” dowse for whatever will enhance your health. If you believe that locating fresh water sources is how you can be of greatest use, do that. Be creative in your approach to dowsing. People should get a teacher and learn the basics, but after that just go out and do it. We use L-rods and pendulums to give us confirmation of yes or no responses. With practice, we find ourselves getting the answers before the dowsing tool gives a response. This is how practice helps us strengthen our confidence in our intuition and our ability to listen to our higher self.

Dowsing rods can be used as divination tools often referred to as divining rods to assist a feng shui practitioner in locating and determining the kind of chi energy in your home. In addition, these rods are used to locate underground springs as well as areas known as stress pockets. What the Energy Dowsing Rods look like The rods are made of a thin metal, usually brass or copper, and are L-shaped. What can Energy Dowsing Rods can detect Everything has an energy field surrounding it and the advent of quantum physics proves their existence. These unseen energy fields can interfere with your life. Radio waves Various wireless electronic devices and signals Cell phone tower and other microwave energy interference Geopathic stress pockets: These collect energy beneath the earth. Curry lines discovered by Dr. Manfred Curry and Dr. Carry electrical currents in an earth grid, running diagonally, Northwest to Southeast and from Northeast to Southwest. Man made electricity interferes with these lines and creates a negative result. Hartman Lines first to discover natural electrical lines in earth. Lines run North to South and East to West. Man made electricity can create negative energy along these lines. Both Hartman and Curry lines are also known as ley lines. Everyone has an electrical field, if those fields of energy are not compatible, it can cause conflict and disharmony in the family. How to use the Energy Dowsing Rods The dowser holds the short L portion of the rods very loosely in his or her hands so the long ends of the rods point outward, away from the dowser. As the dowser walks over energy fields, the rods will either cross over each other or move out from each other. These are indications of energy fields. Whenever the rods spread out, away from each other, it indicates a change in the energy field. Negative energy causes the rods to separate from each other and move in an outward direction. This is very similar to how negative sides of magnets repel each other. Positive energy draws the rods together. An experienced feng shui practitioner maps out and corrects the negative energy in your how with the use of dowsing rods. Why everyone cannot dowse effectively Not everyone can dowse. This is because a dowser uses the rods to create a link between his or her own energy field and other energy fields. In order to achieve this connection, the dowser uses both sides of his or her brain equally. This brain balancing act is vital in order to use the rods properly and can be achieved through yoga and meditation. How to learn dowsing If you wish to learn how to dowse, you need to do a few things before jumping into the process. This is a very personal choice since the energy field surrounding your body and spinning within your chakras will resonate to certain rods. Brass is a favorite choice among dowsers, although copper is a close second choice. Your first reaction may be typical with the tendency to grip the rods too tightly. You need to hold the rods tight enough to provide balance and support, but loose enough to move freely with the fluctuations of energy.

Chapter 5 : Home - Patrick MacManaway

Dowsing isn't just for water; Jody Maas is an energy and spiritual dowser. With 40 years experience, Maas considers dowsing a life skill for everyone.

She is now the protector of her loving husband, 3 daughters, grandchildren and humanity. Below is their journey together. Our quest in alternative medicine started back in when our two-year-old daughter was diagnosed with asthma and at age three with allergies. When she was nine years old, doctors wanted to give her steroid medicine, but my wife, Sharon, and I disagreed. Sharon and I felt there had to be a better option, so we started looking into alternative medicine. Thankfully, we learned about acupuncture. To our surprise, they were able to treat our daughter and not only did she not have to take the steroid medicine, she no longer had asthma as well. After learning what we did, my wife and I started to refer everyone we knew to our acupuncturist. This was the beginning of something bigger for me. Over the years I read book after book on natural path healing and chose to continue on an alternative path. Later on my wife and I became certified in Reiki, which taught us even more about energy healing. After that Steve attended a three day workshop with Raymon Grace. Raymon is a well known dowser. After that, I was trained by a well-known acupuncturist in Wisconsin to eliminate allergies using a cold and soft light laser technique. Next, we were on to learning about dowsing. Joey Korn trained us in energy dowsing and taught us how it has unlimited possibilities for healing and changing energies for the most positive outcomes. We attended an amazing workshop with Ken and Ann Graydon. Ken is a specialist in regeneration healing and wrote the book Healing, The Handbook. We have been trained to teach others how to properly use the healing modalities in the book, like the regeneration of your spine, to removing blocks to allow for healing or changing past events which can cause many emotional issues and disease. Healing from your heart space is a must. Our clients have had very positive results. We enjoy helping people with life, energies, allergies, and their well-being and are extremely passionate about sharing our knowledge to benefit others. Sharon and I have been on our journey together for forty-five years together and we hope to continue for many more years. Sharing our knowledge and healing abilities to help people on their life's journey has become our passion. Pulvermacher is a minister, energy healer, and is Reiki certified. He received dowsing training from Joey Korn, a practitioner of spiritual dowsing, and learned dowsing techniques from Raymon Grace, an international energy worker. Under Joseph Burchik Jr. It brings Steve joy to enable people to eat foods they had to give up because it made them sick. Or to relieve them from the effects of pollen that made them sneeze, noses run, and eyes water. Steve once had that same problem, but not any more. Steve is a certified practitioner of the Emotion Code by Dr. Bradley Nelson and also uses his Body Code system to find the underlying cause of PTSD, auto immune diseases, emotional eating and imbalance related to energies, circuitry, toxicity and pathogens, structural and nutritional. Steve practices regeneration healing techniques having attended an intensive workshop with Ken Graydon, author of Healing - The Handbook. Steve is a family man with a wife and three adult daughters, along with grandchildren and great grandchildren. He works from his home near Portage, Wisconsin.

Chapter 6 : Art of Healing: ENERGY DOWSING RODS IN FENG SHUI

Hopefully we can all learn to expand our energy fields to attract the right people, jobs and opportunities into our lives. Find more info. about Dowsing here. Thank you so much Sanctuary for allowing me to learn a whole new me and to realise the potential we all have within us.

I came to Puerto Escondido for the surf and instead have ended up volunteering at the Sanctuary. I have now got so much more out of my time here in this community by volunteering at this beautiful healing casa. We have just finished the Self empowerment retreat and what a great week it was. We had a very different group of people from all walks of life but we all managed to come together and everyone experienced a huge shift within themselves with lots of laughter along the way. My day at the Sanctuary consists of daily chores after a fun surf whether its cooking, cleaning or helping guests out. Energy Dowsing One particular workshop we did whilst the retreat was called dowsing - using copper rods. We were told they would measure our energy field. I was a little skeptical but watched what was about to unfold. Bek would hold the rods to another person and tell them to think of something that makes them really angry, she would then start walking towards the person and the rods would cross just before reaching them. When the rods crossed this would indicate where your energy field is. Once again she would start to walk towards the person and instead of the rods crossing close to the person, they would cross meters away. This indicated a large energy field. This all seemed very confusing and I did not believe it till I tried it. Indeed the rods had a mind of their own, crossing at certain points to represent where someones energy field was. So what does all this mean? When you are feeling angry and upset your energy field is very small and therefore not at its full potential. When happy your energy field is 10 times bigger and is going to attract way more opportunities and positive people into your life. Hopefully we can all learn to expand our energy fields to attract the right people, jobs and opportunities into our lives. Thank you so much Sanctuary for allowing me to learn a whole new me and to realise the potential we all have within us. I have managed to connect with not only other people on a more deeper level, but also with myself. Gabrielle Mouat, August

Chapter 7 : Dowsing to change your life: Energy Cell for you!

Dowsing uses the natural intuition that everyone has within them. Dowsing is a skill that once learnt can provide you with the opportunity to receive answers regarding almost anything. From money to home and daily life, dowsing can give you the answers that you might otherwise not reach on your own.

What instruments are used in dowsing? There are simple instruments and equipment used in dowsing. The most common instrument is the V-Rod, which can be made out of a forked stick or twig, but it can be made out of metal or plastic as well. This is what most people use when it comes to dowsing. The twigs most commonly come from trees, including the peach, willow, and witchhazel tree. The dowser holds one fork in each hand with the end of the stick resting at a 45 degree angle upward. He or she walks about an area to see if there is a water source underground. If so, the butt of the stick will be pulled downward toward the water. Other common instruments include Angle rods, which are L shaped, pendulums, and wands. A wand is a long rod that acts either in a circular or oscillating motion when the object is discovered. Is dowsing for real? In the United States, you may hear dowsing referred to as water witching or doodlebugging for those seeking to find petroleum. The science community speculates that there are plenty of water dowsers that are successful because there is quite often plenty of water sources underneath the surface, especially in areas where rain fall is adequate. Not a big surprise there. What is dowsing really about? Some believe that dowsing, or looking for hidden objects, is more about detecting energy than anything else. Believing that everything and everyone is made up of energy, dowsers tap into their innate ability to discover subtle energies. Therefore, dowsing can be an opportunity to draw closer to the spiritual realm angelic beings, God, higher self, etc. Water under the surface has a particular energetic frequency, so a dowser who is good at reading energy will be apt to detect the water source more easily than one who is not sensitive to energy frequencies. Regardless of why people choose to dowse, it is an activity that brings joy to many people around the world. Some regard the activity as a hobby and others use the technique out of necessity.

Chapter 8 : ENERGY DOWSERS - Energy Dowzers

Now, In this "new"-er dowsing some call it spiritual or emotional dowsing: We use a pendulum to change energy. We use a pendulum to change a state.

Marilyn Gang, the Leader of the Toronto Dowzers <http://www.torontodowzers.com>: When I think of dowzers all over the place doing this, I have a mental picture of a field of windmills each small windmill making its own contribution to changing the wind patterns in a beneficial manner, each one making a difference. Hope the following is accurate. Have tried to include a lot here. What one generally uses dowsing for is to get information. We use it to get answers to questions, to detect. Now, In this "new"-er dowsing some call it spiritual or emotional dowsing: We use a pendulum to change energy. We use a pendulum to change a state. We use a pendulum to make a correction. We use the pendulum to actively make a change. We may ask what the situation is, such as energy level, and, if it does not seem to be at a high enough level, we ask that it be made higher and we Make It So. Through the use of the pendulum. Through our intent, focus, practice and belief. How do we do this? How do we use the pendulum to change energy? Here is one way: When we tell our Dowsing System something such as: In asking we often ask: With some people it circles in a "yes" direction. With some people, it circles counterclockwise to remove and clear energies, clockwise to add energies. The longer and stronger the circle, the more energy it is moving. Bobbers are used in the same way. When it stops moving, the energy change is completed. So, we are clear, we have permission, then we state something such as: Here are some questions that are good to use every morning, and, also when you begin your dowsing session: Can I may I should I release these non beneficial energies now? For many questions, we use charts. Your chart might have a scale of , , numbers on the positive as well as the negative side, etc. The chart in Letter to Robin www.torontodowzers.com. You decide the scale you like. I used my own, below: What is the level of my Vitality on a scale of ? If it is less than 10, ask if you can raise it up to What is my energy level at now? Energy levels are always changing. When I first started this, an energy level of 45, was considered to be beneficial. Now it is 2,3, 4 or more times that amount. For the moment it is a relative scale. Otherwise they may feel tired. Is there any phase of my life that is under the influence of the dark side? And if you get a yes, clear it. It is probably not beneficial to work on clearing something or others until you clear and balance, etc. Think of it as taking an energetic shower. You take a shower every day, why not clean your energy every day? Get started and do it. Ask these questions every morning, it takes 2 or 3 minutes. They can clear and strengthen your energy and make it possible to continue dowsing in a clear, strong, grounded state. When you have a blockage or a non beneficial situation, ask: That any beliefs, thoughts, thought forms, fears, memories, emotional and cellular memories associated with this blockage or situation be removed and transmuted to the best and highest energy. Is my total mind, body and soul in balance? What is my level of fear on a scale of ? You can fill the void with pure, unconditional love.

Dowsing for Prosperity - easy steps to attract prosperity Dowsing for Prosperity Prosperity is one of the concerns in life; mostly the lack of prosperity is what bothers us. Can we change this to improve our life? Prosperity is different for everyone, to some it is having money, lots of it, and to others it is having a peaceful life, a loving relationship, a happy family and a good job. Whatever it is to you, the lack of what you want is the issue you want to deal with. All things are composed of energy and all energy has a frequency, so prosperity has a frequency and as all frequency can be adjusted like the frequency of the radio, you can adjust the frequency of prosperity to better receive it. Here are a few ways to adjust the frequency of prosperity to improve your life, the frequency of prosperity is 8, and a simple trick that everyone can try is to take a piece of paper and write the number 8 on it and place it in your wallet or purse. Another way is to do affirmations like this one: The emotions that you have associated with money will affect your prosperity of money. If you had unfortunate events related to money, you may still hold emotions related to such events. It is important to remove them before money can flow to you. You can say the following affirmation or dowse this command. Please remove the emotions from the belief, thoughts and memories that adversely affect my prosperity. You can ask to raise your prosperity level to the highest level to attract money or anything you want. Let me share an experience with everyone on how this works in a real experience that happen recently. I was at a restaurant waiting for a friend to have dinner; he was late for the appointment so I had some free time. I was the only customer in the place, so I thought to conduct an experiment to see if I could get more customers for the place. I took out my pendulum and cleared the place of negative forces, remove the emotions of the beliefs, thoughts and memories that adversely affect the place from attracting customers and transform these energies to the most appropriate energies to attract customers. When my friend arrives, the tables at the place were fully occupied; I was amazed at how fast the energies could change to improve a situation. You have a choice to have a comfortable life or one that you have to struggle to make ends meet. The future is yours do something about it.
