Sharing Responsibility and Burdens The Law and Institutions of Distributive Justice Terms of Development and Trade Shaping a Global Discourse Franck Reviews and Awards "This thorough, scholarly treatise is bound to become a standard Highly recommended for graduate students and faculty. It is his recent writing that has seemed to make the difference in his scholarly stature. What Franck has done brilliantly in this period is to write with authority and conceptual imagination about topics of great significance and interest but not effectively touched on by others for a long time A pathbreaking book on the issue of fairness. The committee of the American Society of International Law on "Annual Awards" has awarded a certificate of merit to this book for "creative scholarship". Thomas Franck has made a notable contribution to the field of international law by his fresh approach to the issues of a just world order.
