Sunday, August 7, Free Download: The name of the latest released book of tin goyenda is Tin Goyenda volume by Samsuddin Nawab. Thrill, suspense and challenge is their main attraction. They are in the same class at Green Hills School, though their grade is not mentioned anywhere. His parents died in a car accident when he was 7. He has been living with his uncle Rashed Pasha and aunt Maria Pasha since his parents died in a car crash. With curly black hair, dark, deep and sharp eyes reflecting the glow of his brilliance, Kishore Pasha has a habit of pinching his lower lip whenever he does some vital brainwork or is lost in a deep thought. He is a born actor, an electronic wizard and the locomotive of the Tin Goyenda as well. His first passion is eating and that is why he falls victim of the experimental cooking of Nisan Jung Kim the Vietnamese cook of Mr. Simon who loves to cook unusual dishes every now and then. Having an athletic figure and strength, he is the muscle man of the team. Often he uses his head as a weapon to butt the belly of the enemy, especially when there is a need to clear his way. Often he provides the comic relief for the books. Musa lives with his parents: Rafat Aman, special effect technician in a film producing company. Musa hates to read books. He is the Book-worm although Kishore reads a lot of books too. He collects valuable information related to the current case of Tin Goyenda. The first books of the series shows him to be a skinny and short boy, but later on he grows taller and becomes very efficient with the ladies. He is known as a hunk. Like Musa Aman, he also lives with his parents. His parents are journalists. His father Roger Milford works for a famous newspaper. Robin Milford is also said to be an expert mountain climber, though it is mentioned that he broke his limbs several times when climbing. He has a strong sixth sense but lacks karate skills of an expert level.
