Ground Instructor is a certificate issued in the United States by the Federal Aviation Administration. There are three classes of holder, licensed to provide the ground instruction element in the training of three groups.

The objective of this task is to determine if an applicant is eligible for a ground instructor certificate and associated ratings. Successful completion of this task results in the issuance or denial of a ground instructor certificate. Application for a Ground Instructor certificate or an additional ground instructor rating shall be made on FAA Form The following Ground Instructor ratings are issued to qualified applicants: See Chapter 1, Section 4, paragraph 5 of this handbook. For applicants seeking to add a rating to a ground instructor certificate, previous ground instructor ratings or a flight instructor certificate can be accepted in lieu of an additional FOI written test. The FOI written test is not required if the applicant meets one of the following criteria: When an applicant has met all requirements for a ground instructor certificate, the inspector prepares and issues FAA Form based on the following considerations. Exchange of Old Ratings. If an applicant for a new rating holds more of the old ratings than required for the new rating sought, surplus old ratings shall be retained on the new certificate. Basic and Advanced Privileges. Because the Advanced Ground Instructor Rating conveys all privileges of the Basic rating, the latter need not be shown on the certificate when the instructor has qualified for both. Advanced and Instrument Privileges. Because the combined requirements for the Basic and Instrument Ground Instructor Ratings adequately cover the requirements for the Advanced Ground Instructor Rating, the latter may be added to the certificate when the applicant has qualified for both the Basic and Instrument Ground Instructor ratings. However, only the Advanced and Instrument Ratings shall be placed on the certificate. Ground Instructor also a CFI. No letter or logbook endorsement is issued if the standards are not met. Ground Instructor not a CFI. The inspector issues a letter indicating that the instructor meets the standards of FAR Part Figure No letter is issued if the standards are not met. Prerequisites and Coordination Requirements. This task may require coordination with the Operations Unit Supervisor. References, Forms, and Job Aids. Inform the applicant of the necessary documentation to bring to the appointment: Applicant Arrives for Appointment. Compare the identification with the personal information provided on FAA Form Instruct the applicant to return with appropriate identification to reapply. Use Table 1 to determine the Ground Instructor certificate for which the applicant is eligible.
