Ebook only 99 cents. For Peebo Grizzle, life is supposed to be simple: But this Louisiana paradise falls apart after too many tickets and a personal fight with the Department of Public Safety. The conflict has him fired from his job and separated from his wife. He plots his revenge and tries to get back what is his, both job and family. This is the first story in a series of Peebo Grizzle fiction. More stories will be released in the near future, and the full novel will be published as a print, ebook, and audio. Too Stupid to Love: From Dayne Sherman, the critically-acclaimed author of Welcome to the Fallen Paradise and Zion, comes the comic treatment of Peebo Grizzle and his quest to get back home to Oxford, Mississippi. A twisted version of John Bunyan or a drunken Don Quixote, Peebo finds his approach to life impossible to maintain in Louisiana. He takes off in his pea green El Camino, a gun in one hand, and a pint of Wild Turkey in the other. He has robbery on his mind, but the pistol is unloaded, as is his billfold. This story will find him laid out and needing help, and it comes from the most dangerous place of all. This collection of three stories contains graphic images of violence, some of which includes violence against pets. Readers should be aware of this prior to purchase. Absolutely no animals were harmed in the making of this ebook. Witness, Returning, and Boys: Three celebrated short stories set in Louisiana. Ebook, only 99 cents. A prosperous lawyer with a beautiful wife and family, all was lost when he landed in a FEMA trailer park outside of Ruthberry, Louisiana, in rural Baxter Parish. As the marriage breaks under pressure, life is made anew in the Little Sicilian Bar. Readers will love Kyle Vancleave and what he becomes after he loses everything. Look forward to itâ€'bad! I might just buy itâ€'I want that book, now. Is that enough whining?
