The main character, Jennifer Taldeer, is a private investigator. She is also Kestral-Hunts-Alone, an apprentice shaman learning modified tribal magic from her grandfather. She is called in to investigate possible sabotage at a local construction site where Indian artifacts have been found. Much like Diana Tregarde, Jennifer is an independent woman and a powerful magic worker who also has mundane problems. In her short story After Midnight Lackey insinuates that the novel was an attempt to recover the spirit of the Diana Tregarde novels after the fiasco with a few fans believing the novels were based on real events. Note, a significant amount of text, and a couple of major characters in this work are adapted from stories written by Lackey in the Merovingen Nights shared universe series. That series was started by C. Cherryh in her novel Angel with the Sword. In Baen CD 23 featuring In Invasion, the world is invaded by a mysterious force of armored Nazi soldiers, from the disbanded arcane Thule Society, some of whom are subsequently found not to be human. Beginning in , the series continued to be read by voiceover artist Veronica Giguere. In the second quarter of , the series was sold to Baen Books with a publication date of for the first book and for the second. White Bird and Secret World War: Sgian Dubh â€” also available. A fifth book, Avalanche, was released in August Andre Norton This series of novels is set on a world where both elves and dragons arrived from dimensional portals onto a world where humans were native. The dragons remained hidden and elves subjugated the humans. The story follows the exploits of a group of half-blooded humans attempting to fight the elves. The Elvenbane Elvenblood Elvenborn Elvenbred this has not yet been released and is in question due to the death of Andre Norton. Elemental Masters Set in an earth where magic exists during the early 20th century, these stories follow magicians who control the powers of Air, Fire, Water, and Earth. These stories are based looselyâ€”sometimes very looselyâ€”on various fairy tales. Although these books all take place in the same "world" and all include the same established system of Elemental Magick, the first book, The Fire Rose, can be distinguished in that the story takes place in the United States rather than in England, and the set of characters are not interrelated as are those in the following books. The Wizard of London can be considered a prequel to the other stories set in England and takes place during the Victorian Era.
