Hoosier Crane service technician Denny Nelson talks about a job he did in Honduras.

The group plans to send several 40 ft. Hurricane Mitch which swept over Honduras in October caused more than 2 million people in a country of approximately 5 million to lose all or part of their homes. Mudslides and flooding devastated the country and killed over people. People in Honduras are working together to help one another. Outside aid is coming into the country via the Red Cross, Salvation Army, and various church organizations. Rice, beans, and corn for making tortillas are the main staples needed by the Hondurans. Powdered milk is also needed. The group is able to purchase these items for approximately the following prices. Several area farmers have donated corn already. It will be sacked and put on skids that can be loaded on the trailers. All donations, whether cash or needed items, will now be fully tax deductible. Helping to coordinate this Honduras relief effort, based on an already establish network of contacts with the Honduras, is Dr. Dixon. By reaching beyond the organizational boundaries that can limit such relief efforts, Dr. Dixon is able to work with a number of different individuals and groups in the interest of getting the job done. Dixon has established working relationships with a variety of Christian groups including a group of Mennonites who have an established Missionary in the Honduras. For nearly a decade, Dr. Dixon through a series of acquaintances joined forces with Evans and Toney to try and stimulate relief activity in Central Indiana. The United Church of God, which currently meets in Terre Haute, has been involved in a number of outreach and relief efforts in the Ukraine and Africa. When they learned of the Honduras relief effort, they offered their assistance along with their Federal Tax Exempt c3 status. With that, Hoosiers for Honduras was formed. To make a contribution to the Hoosiers for Honduras relief effort, send it to: United Church of God P.
