

Chapter 1 : Key pens Star-Spangled Banner - HISTORY

Learn about James Francis: his birthday, what he did before fame, his family life, fun trivia facts, popularity rankings, and more. YouTube Stars. First Name.

At the age of sixteen James is on the verge of becoming a household Hollywood name. With his role in "Rocky Balboa," the sixth film from Sylvester Stallone, James is preparing for the next step. His background in theatre, athletics and academics has given him a breadth of skill and a depth of knowledge uncommonly seen in a teenager. His mature and confident nature make an immediate impact, as they obviously did on Stallone, who cast Kelly to play Steps, the troubled son of a down-on-her luck parent in the film, slated for a December release. While honing his acting skills training at the Lee Strasberg Institute, James was singled out at the young age of nine to act as an assistant acting teacher for summer theatre. Although he is a captain on his varsity football team, James has also practiced Muai Thai, a traditional form of Thai self-defense, for many years as well as playing other sports such as soccer and racquetball. Also unlike many young adults, James is interested in his cultural background, which has proven to be inspirational. James has benefited from each of these cultures. Last summer James was adopted into the Crow Nation and given his formal Indian name, "Kawaysash," which means "he who does not give up. He has already proven that whatever the future holds, he will thrive. Wilhelm taught James boxing when he was a boy. His ideal dream role to play is of Alexandre Dumas. And during this performance he was suffering from a stomach virus but refused to be taken home. Prior to going on stage he asked his mother to give him something to settle his stomach before going on stage. Through out his youth he studied at the Lee Strasberg Inst. He taught self defense to classmates at his high school academy. James is trained in various styles of Martial Arts, primary Muay Thai traditional. Related to Norm Nixon-distant cousin. Related to Gene Kelly-distant relative. Leading the team to victory in James is a graduate of Duquesne University.

Chapter 2 : James Francis Kelly III - Biography - IMDb

Berscheit, James Francis (Jim) Died August 9, at home at the age of Preceded in death by brother, David and his beloved father, Francis.

However, very little of this ancestor is known. Skinner and Key were there to negotiate the release of prisoners, one of whom was Dr. William Beanes , a resident of Upper Marlboro, Maryland , who had been arrested after jailing marauding British troops who were looting local farms. Skinner, Key, and Beanes were not allowed to return to their own sloop because they had become familiar with the strength and position of the British units and with the British intent to attack Baltimore. Though somewhat difficult to sing, it became increasingly popular, competing with " Hail, Columbia " as the de facto national anthem by the time of the Mexicanâ€™American War and American Civil War. He and his family settled in Georgetown in or , near the new national capital. There the young Key assisted his uncle, the prominent lawyer Philip Barton Key , such as in the sensational conspiracy trial of Aaron Burr and the expulsion of Senator John Smith of Ohio. He made the first of his many arguments before the United States Supreme Court in Treasury auditor under former President John Quincy Adams for misappropriating public monies. He also handled the Petticoat affair concerning Secretary of War John Eaton , who had married a widowed saloonkeeper. Senate approved the nomination, he served from to , while also handling his own private legal cases. Slavery and American Colonization Society[edit] Key purchased his first slave in or and owned six slaves in Over the next decade, beginning in , the administrators fought to enforce the will and provide the freed slaves land to support themselves. Key convinced me that slavery was wrongâ€™radically wrong. Key was a founding member and active leader of the American Colonization Society and its predecessor, the influential Maryland branch, the primary goal of which was to send free African-Americans back to Africa. Anti-abolitionist[edit] Key used his position as U. Attorney to suppress abolitionists. In , he secured a grand jury indictment against Benjamin Lundy , editor of the anti-slavery publication, the Genius of Universal Emancipation , and his printer, William Greer, for libel after Lundy published an article that declared, "There is neither mercy nor justice for colored people in this district [of Columbia]". Lundy left town rather than face trial; Greer was acquitted. Key secured an indictment for "seditious libel" after two marshals who operated as slave catchers in their off hours found Crandall had a trunk full of anti-slavery publications in his Georgetown residence, five days after the Snow riot , caused by rumors that a mentally ill slave had attempted to kill an elderly white woman. Key, in his final address to the jury said: Are you willing, gentlemen, to abandon your country, to permit it to be taken from you, and occupied by the abolitionist, according to whose taste it is to associate and amalgamate with the negro? Or, gentlemen, on the other hand, are there laws in this community to defend you from the immediate abolitionist, who would open upon you the floodgates of such extensive wickedness and mischief? He resigned as district attorney in He remained a staunch proponent of African colonization and a strong critic of the antislavery movement until his death. In his youth, he almost became an Episcopal priest rather than a lawyer. Throughout his life he sprinkled biblical references in his correspondence. He also helped found or financially support several parishes in the new national capital, including St. From until his death in , Key was associated with the American Bible Society. The Key Monument Association erected a memorial in and the remains of both Francis Scott Key and his wife, Mary Tayloe Lloyd, were placed in a crypt in the base of the monument. Taney , who would later become Chief Justice of the United States. Pendleton [39] and another, Ellen Lloyd, married Simon F. Key was a distant cousin and the namesake of F. Please help improve this article by adding citations to reliable sources. Unsourced material may be challenged and removed. The location is illustrated on a sign in the Francis Scott Key park.

Chapter 3 : Francis Scott Key - Wikipedia

Stars of film and music, art lovers and businesspeople collected the artwork of James Francis Gill in the s. Gill was commissioned to paint the covers of well known print media such as the TIME magazine.

Chapter 4 : TV, Film Star James Franciscus Dies at 57 - latimes

Kondrick, James Francis (83) passed away at hospice in his home at Edina West Condominiums, Edina Minnesota at am on Thursday, October 9, His spouse Sandra Benitez was at his side and.

Chapter 5 : James Franco - IMDb

James Francis Leary, 90, who was born Jan. 7, in Butte, and was the youngest child of Hannah Carlson Leary and Florence (Flur) Francis Leary, left this world Tuesday, Nov. 25, Funeral services will be held in the spring.

Chapter 6 : James Francis Kondrick Obituary | Star Tribune

James Francis and Craig Oldiges of the Stars will compete for the first time since capturing the Bob Negaard Cup in the 80th Dad Vail Regatta on May 13 on the Schuylkill River in Philadelphia. The Head of the Oklahoma starts 11 a.m. Saturday and continues 8 a.m. Sunday on the Oklahoma River.

Chapter 7 : Books by James Francis (Author of Danger's Hour)

To say that James Francis Kelly III is an exceptional young man would be putting it mildly. At the age of sixteen James is on the verge of becoming a household Hollywood name.

Chapter 8 : James Francis Lyons Obituary - Jacksonville, AL | The Anniston Star

Francis Scott Key (August 1, - January 11,) was an American lawyer, author, and amateur poet from Frederick, Maryland who is best known for writing a poem which later became the lyrics for the United States' national anthem, "The Star-Spangled Banner".

Chapter 9 : Oklahoma City University Athletics - Francis, Stars return to Oklahoma River for Head of Oklah

James Grover Franciscus (January 31, - July 8,) was an American actor, known for his roles in feature films and in four television series: Mr. Novak, The Naked City, The Investigators, and Longstreet.