What is your favourite thing about Emmanuel? Joanna English, 2nd year Joanna: The staff are very understanding and want to help - rather than simply enforcing rules to the letter, the college tries to find real resolutions to problems. What is the accommodation like? You indicate a preference before arriving - the rooms are all lovely, and are priced according to a grading system , with 1 being the cheapest and 8 the most expensive. All fresher accommodation is Grade There are options to live out of college. In third year, the ballot gets reversed, so those at the top in second year are at the bottom in third year. How good is the food? Alex Veterinary Medicine, 1st year The food in college is usually good. We have a cafeteria which serves a range of hot meals and sandwiches for lunch and dinner with cereals and cooked breakfast everyday in the morning. There is always a vegetarian option but it can be a little repetitive, there is currently a campaign to improve the range of vegetarian food. There are vegan sandwiches available but not always a hot option. Most evenings formal hall takes place at 7. This is a three course meal served in the dining hall which students can book themselves in for, it is popular for events such as birthdays. The food at formal hall is really good and any dietary requirements can be catered for. What about entertainment and extra-curricular activities? Patrick Medicine Emma has plenty going on in the way of entertainment and activities. There is a plethora of Emma societies, ranging from the classic sports teams football, netball, hockey , less mainstream sports mountaineering, water polo, table football to more artistic societies photography, drama , and even ERICS - the Emmanuel Real Ice Cream Society. The JCR also has a busy calendar - our college bar is open every night from 7. What welfare support is there? Alex Veterinary Medicine, 1st year The welfare support is probably one of the best things about Emma. The welfare reps organise events around college as well as providing advice on how to access welfare services within the wider university. We also have a college counsellor who students can make appointments to see. What about your College would you change? What has been going on at Emmanuel College? Everyone was welcome to follow a trail of fun cryptic clues, ending with a suitably chocolatey reward. College Gallery Do you have a question? You are best asking these questions to admissions cam.
