

Chapter 1 : Li'l Shaver's Shaving Kit with Toy School Supply Store

This "book" and "shaving kit" is so not worth the price. The "shaver" is tiny even for the littlest hands. The "brush" is very tiny also, and the "bristles" are just a little white sponge type thing on top of a very tiny plastic handle.

Toss aside your twenty blade razor and irrigating plops of shaving cream, things are about to get exceptionally invigorating for your face. With a little effort, the right grooming products can take you from feeling your worst to looking your best. Each features a unique set of top-notch soaps, aftershaves, razors, stands, badger brushes, mugs and creams. Now, if you wanted to go out and purchase these individually, you could; however, they make for excellent time savers. Say goodbye to razor burn, ingrown hairs, nicks and cuts, and that awful irritation every morning. Remember, the true price you pay is the tax on your face every single morning. Treat it well, invest in the wellness of your skin. For sensitive skin or a challenging face with plenty of 3-dimensional imperfections, help is included to rehabilitate your face into the best shape possible. Glycolic Facial Cleanser helps remove built-up dirt and oil to produce the cleanest canvas to start your shaving experience. Pre-Shave Oil is a nourishing treatment for your skin to replace depleted natural skin oils. The included Shaving Cream creates a luxurious, frothy lather. Finally, your shaven face gets to enjoy an electrifying after shave balm to send you out of the house wide-eyed and ready for anything. The entire kit packs into an included Dopp Bag for easy organization and worry-free transport during your next jet-set travel assignment. Wake up to a deluxe spa experience every morning, filled with energy for tackling every problem in your day without breaking a sweat. You get a refreshing, comforting shaving cream. And the highest quality of badger hair brush to apply it precisely and professionally to all the places on your face. And then to send your clean face on its way for the day there is an aftershave balm. Razor and Brush handles are matching brass and nickel-plated, then finished in a durable chrome for bright, clean looks throughout your shaving life. The Double Edge Safety Razor uses the best technology of the 21st century to get as close to your face as possible without a prick. Evenly spread the luxurious shaving cream, create a rich lather, lift your facial hair and cut with incredible efficiency. Traditional wet shaving at its best, and you will feel the difference throughout the rest of your day. Shave your face and close the experience with an incredibly energizing after shave balm. A true all-in-one grooming kit to cover all the parts of your daily routine. Created by shaving exceptionalists Edwin Jagger, the set recreates a classic English shaving set using a simulated polymer horn and nickel plating. The style of the originals, but incredibly durable, rugged and long-lasting. The same type of brush used for centuries in creating a traditional wet shave. Finally, the razor itself may look old fashioned, but it sports a top-of-the-line Gillette Mach3 blade for getting as close to your face as possible. The secret is all-natural ingredients, all of which are designed to ease irritated skin and prevent allergic reactions. The Advanced Shave Formula cream is a foamless gel, spreading over your face as a thick, consistent lather right out of the can. Post-shave Repair fine mist spray is a healing treatment for skin instead of the typical burning, tingling alcohol or menthol-based aftershave lotion. Finally, the entire Set packs into an included practical toiletries bag for easy transport on your next important transatlantic business trip. Plenty of room inside for your other grooming essentials, too, to fit your action-packed lifestyle. The Parker 71R Safety Razor Shave Set gives you a sharp, long-lasting tool to start your shave right, along with plenty of other must-haves for the perfect shave. Unlike the typical plastic of the modern world, the Parker Razor was made to produce consistent results use after use after use. A brass frame gives it antique looks, with the three-piece head offers you the best shaving technology of today. Needless to say, it will last the test of time. Finally, a stand holds both pieces in a stylish way, suitable for display on your bathroom countertop away from the mish-mash of toiletries in your drawer. You begin your shave with a pretreatment of sandalwood oil. This essence is drawn from the sandalwood trees of India and is used to craft an oil prized since ancient times. After the oil is applied, you switch to the invigorating shaving cream. You will get a fresher, cleaner closer shave, plus you will experience a better way start to off your day. Shaving experts always say to look for a badger-hair brush, and truth be told, their right. Most men find the fragrance masculine even though it is a bit floral and fresh. The traditional shaving cup is a durable ceramic design, impervious to staining or marring, and incredibly easy to clean afterward. The entire set hangs together on the included stand, with a dedicated spot for every item. No disorganized searching to find your shaving equipment ever again!

Chapter 2 : Top 9 Best Shaving Kits For Men - Change How You Shave

In a sweet story, a father and son go through their morning shaving and grooming routine. This kit contains such safe and cute components as a Mock 5 razor, shaving cream dish, applicator brush, and soap dish, along with a full-color, page storybook.

I was in high school, 10th grade. The kit consisted of three items. I can still bring the smell of the shaving cream back to my memory. It was a kind of medicinal scent that gives a refreshing feeling while lathering. Same smell, same feeling. Just my first attempt to build one. So, I do understandâ€¦ Finding a shaving kit is not an easy task. This is why I decided to write this article and find you the greatest shaving kit a man can have. Since I wrote this article, I had the chance to try out a few additional razors and brushes. At first, it might seem ideal to buy a shaving kit. And who can blame you? A cartridge razor, a safety razor and a straight razor cut throat or shavette. The two other types of razors give you the ultimate wet shaving experience. The disposable blades in safety razors and shavettes are much cheaper than cartridge razors, even though the actual razors might be a bit pricey. On the other hand, there are quite a few great natural hair shaving brushes. Badger hair shaving brush is generally more expensive than other types. So, this might also be something to keep in mind. The shaving kit holder And if you want to give your kit some extra class, a holder is that secret ingredient. If the razor and the shaving brush are the arms and legs of a shaving kit, the holder is definitely the body. Lathering products Image Courtesy: Shaving creams and lotions, shaving gels and foams , shaving soaps. When I travel which happens more often than I want , I tend to get a shaving gel due to space limitations. Again, this is personal preference. To complete the lathering kit, one should get a shaving bowl or mug. Not necessary, but it looks awesome! After shave Self explanatory. Depending on the type of your skin and the type of after shave you like cream, lotion etc , there are plenty of options available. You can choose between after shaves that either contain alcohol or not. Then, there are different options such as lotions, balsams and creams. All of them developed with the same idea in mind. These products will prepare your skin and will reduce irritation from shaving. Moreover, the follicles of the hair open up and become softer, offering you a more pleasant shaving experience. For beard and moustache wearers, a pair of scissors allows you to groom your facial hair with precision. A must have tool in the arsenal of man grooming. As for beard trimmer? This always depends on the brand and materials of the set. Besides, there must be a reason why something is super cheap. Get a feeling of the kit, see if you like using it after a few shaves and upgrade a few months or a year later. You can find more expensive kits if you wish to, such as handmade products. Availability of parts Even though this is the least that you care about, it might make a difference when choosing your favorite shaving set for your needs. Invest a little bit more money and get a shaving kit from a well established brand.

It includes a trimmer and attachments as well as an AC power-charging cord. This item is UL listed, and it makes an ideal gift. Add Convenience to a Grooming Routine Many users find electric shavers more convenient than manual razors. They typically are self-cleaning and require less maintenance. While manual razor blades need to be changed every few weeks, electric ones only need swapped out every year-and-a-half or so. For additional grooming convenience, try products like the Hair-Cutting Razor Comb. How to Shave for Superior Results Transitioning to an electric razor can take time, but the convenience is often worth it. Preparing the face with a gel or foam can reduce the potential for irritation since these products soften skin. Turn on the razor, and slowly pull it across the face using firm pressure. Avoid pressing too hard as this might lead to razor burn. Splash cool water over the shaved area to remove any remaining gel or foam and to reduce redness. Great Gift Option Since most men grow a beard, shaving or trimming it is a regular grooming task. This item is a simple way to make that task a little more convenient. Thanks to a limited time two-for-one special, buyers can keep one for themselves and share the other with a friend or family member. Onyx Series Kit for a Smooth Shave: Integrated blades get close to the skin to get each hair at its follicle. The result is clean and smooth skin. A trio of rotating blades follows the contours of the face, chin, and neck for a fast and comfortable experience. Beyond just a standard shave, this item offers beard and sideburn trimming functions and more. It requires 1 AA battery not included. This item meets stringent quality and safety standards. Buy 1 Shave Kit, Get 1 Free: For a limited time, buyers can enjoy two kits for the price of one. Keep one at home, and give the other as a gift. They are no good at all. If you read this review and then waste your money, you will be the fool that I was.
