Especially if you know that you done everything you can do. You done sat around and been the best man or the best woman you can be and they still want to go, let them go. I done been there, I was like what was wrong with me? What was I going through? Let folks go, Sonny. You got to know which is which. That was the person that was supposed to come and teach you one thing. Listen, I put everybody that come in my life in the category of a tree. Some people are like leaves on a tree. Most people in the world are like that. Some people are like a branch on that tree. A tree can have a hundred million branches but only a few roots down at the bottom to make sure it gets everything they need. When you telling folks to do something Move on, let them go! No matter how much it hurts, let them go. You hear me, Sonny? You see, some people just gotta learn to be by themselves. People have to learn how to be alone. That is crazy as hell! Stop praying about it! Go work on YOU! You will be surprised with the things that people put up with just to have somebody say that they love them. Yeah, I hear you, Madea.

They were made to ignore the stepmother. Honey, would you take those things off, please, and listen to your mother? Okay, she is not my mother. That was the Star Trek sign. Be careful what you wish for. You might not wanna sing that song. I need another shredder! What are you doing? Just get it in here! I got one more! George, come in here, buddy. But I have all the records. What are you saying? It worked for a while. You should see your face, dude. And by the way, this is not gonna be pretty for you. You were a lowly accountant, remember? And then I pull you out of bookkeeping and make you the CFO. I had worked here five years prior to that, Walter. I was working hard. You did work hard. I thought I earned it. Nobody earns it around here. And that was hard, and it was hard to stay hard. You were paid a seven-figure salary for exactly this reason. Walter, I knew nothing about this. Would have ruined it if you had, kind of. What about the charities? They think their monies are safe. The other 70 companies were set up by the Malone family. Hey, man, be careful when you start your car. This is not happening. What do you have? Oh, come on, George. All the wives were talking about it at the field today. Sir, I think we should consider I want him fried. Where are my car keys?

His wife Kate tells CFO George, "You need to go to your mom's and go find you mom's Valium." George: "Get a Valium out of my mom's purse." ().

Tyler Perry isnt making anymore movies, he parted ways with lionsGate. Ok then what is the problem? Now Spike on the other hand What has he done lately? All she did was write him a letter asking for donations for her church. He sent that check no questions asked. I know things happen and sometimes people cant get on their feet for one thing or another, But shyte happens. Her priorities are not in order. I am glad her son was able to meet Derrick Rose though http: For all any of us know she has gone above and beyond for her kids but has still fallen short. Who Dat Leslie With a full yearr of paid rent, this Mom can focus on keeping up with the utilities and working on getting transportation. It is difficult to get around in both Clayton and Henry counties due to the lack of public transportation. I am praying for this family. I am glad her son was able to meet Derrick Rose though "â€"â€"â€"â€"â€"- Now in this case how are her priorities not in order? Make-A-Wish did not give her that money. They paid for the whole thing. So, that was not up to her. That wish was for the son. It makes no sense to go to Chicago to meet a celebrity when your rent is not paid for 2 months. I will have a story later. She gonna be cuttin the rug in her new spot http: My point is that mama has more pressing issues than an all expense paid trip to meet some baller. She has 4 children. This is her first paycheck on her new job and she is starting the same shat that got her evicted in the first place. I bet she got a mani pedi too. People need to get their priorities straight. He knows his mama home on the couch with him everyday. Ok wait a second. SO if Make -A-Wish paid for the trip, why is that aganist her for not paying the rent? San ah make ya dance http: Wasting time Oh ok. Sorry Sick Son; though the Make a Wish people are going to send us to meet your favorite player. SO Make a Wish did what he wanted. Rent or no rent. See what I am saying? Why should the kid have to suffer because the momma is having a problem? I had to rewind because I thought the mother was the one sick. Her mom was a serious alcoholic. Empty bottles were everywhere. Every time I opened a cabinet an empty bottle fell out. Get around some family for help missyJ My friend had a make-a-wish when she was She wanted a trip to France, Make a Wish and her parents said no because if something happened medically she would not access to US Healthcare may be a good thing but I digress , so they went to Hawaii instead. Who Dat If he didnt go to Chicago the rent still wouldnt have been paid so whats the problem? Either way, the landlord was not about to get any money from her. And Make A Wish was not going to pay the rent. I was so hungry I ate toothpaste. And she made sure my brothers and I never knew it. Why stress your kids out? Perry is passing the blessings on. The question is what is she doing with the money? I say lets whoop them all kamadiva I like Tyler, he does give back. The story did not detail if the mother has any ailments, maybe she does as a reason why she may have lost her job before. I agree the Property Management may have reached their limit with a chronic late payer thus they will not accept anymore payments from her. So find somewhere else to stay with the check Tyler is going to give as any place else she moves is going to want a substantial down payment or months of rent in advance due to her history. She may want to move closer to public transportation as Henry County is not close to nothing I lived there for 8 years and moved back to the city, got tired of the commute and traffic for no reason on a Saturday.
