Chapter 1 : Mazda Bongo Friendee/Ford Freda () service manual

The Mazda Bongo, also known as Ford Econovan, is a van manufactured by the Japanese manufacturer Mazda since it has been built with rear-, middle-, as well as front-mounted engines. It also formed the basis for the long running Kia Bongo range.

Mazda and Ford are the same company in Japan. We will refer to them as Bongos here. Bongos were manufactured for the Japanese domestic market between and Over the years a strong support network for spares and insurance has developed. In Japan, they were sold as 8-seater weekend vehicles. Once here in the UK many of them get converted in to campervans, with kitchen units etc. But many are still kept as 8 seater MPVs. Or is it real? Fresh import, Grade 4, very low mileage 45, See more at www. There are also factory fitted roofs made here in the UK. There are diesel Bongos 2 or 4 wheel drive , or 2 wheel drive petrol versions 2. Most but not all have electrically operated internal blinds and external mirrors. There is an auto-close system on the sliding door. The engine is situated mid-vehicle, so neither the driver or passenger seats will swivel, although after-market swivel seats are available. In a standard configuration, there is a 3-person bench seat in the middle of the van, and a further 3 person bench seat at the rear. This rear bench is either on a sliding rail, or will split in two and will swivel up to hook on to the side of the van. We are open to Monday to Thursday and on most Friday mornings from to If you want to order stuff online then you will be asked to create a Bongoland Shop account.
