He had been sleeping, but He calmed the storm instantly and asked, "Where is your faith? This story and its Bible activities can help teach children concepts such as generosity, service, and gratitude. Abraham Had a Son God promised Abraham that he would have a son. Abraham Shared with Lot The land to which God had called Abraham no longer could support the families and herds of both Abraham and Lot. These activities will highlight the time when Abraham shared with Lot. Abraham Trusted God God had asked Abraham to move to a strange land and live a life of faith. These Abraham Trusted God activities will help remind children that, just like Abraham, they can also trust God to be faithful to His promises. Adam and Eve God made Adam and Eve. They were the first humans ever to live. They lived in a good world with everything they needed until they doubted God and disobeyed Him. God had provided everything they needed, but they doubted His goodness and chose to trust a tree to give them what they needed. An Angel Spoke to Joseph Joseph was betrothed to Mary, but assumed she had been unfaithful when she became pregnant. An angel visited Joseph to tell him the child would be the Son of God and he Joseph should take Mary as his wife. Believers in the Early Church The early church, as seen in the Book of Acts, was a special group of people who can set the example for all believers today. These Believers in the Early Church Bible activities for children will help kids see that Christians in the early church loved one another and ministered to one another in the name of Jesus. Even at the age of 12 He was able to talk with the teachers in the temple. These Cain and Abel Bible activities for children will help kids see how sin leads to sadness and separation from God. Christmas We celebrate Christmas as one of the greatest events in history and rightly so. In this baby rests the hopes of all people. Here are some free, printable Christmas Bible activities to help you teach children about the importance of this amazing event. Creation Even young children can understand that God created the world and everything in it, including people. This is an important lesson for kids as it helps them understand that God made us with purpose. We are not accidents! While living in Babylon, evil people plotted against Daniel and had him thrown to the lions because he prayed to the true God. These free, printable Bible activity pages will help your kids learn about Daniel. David was just a boy, but he had learned in the fields to trust God and to know that God would deliver him. Kids love this story and can learn through these free activities that God can conquer any enemy. David and Jonathan The story of David and Jonathan is a story of enduring friendship even when life challenges that friendship. These David and Jonathan Bible activities can help children to understand the importance of friendship and how to be a good friend to others, even when circumstances may make that difficult to do. David showed mercy when other kings would want to kill Mephibosheth. These free, printable David and Mephibosheth Bible activities will help children learn this story and the example of mercy that King David showed. But it was in the fields that David learned to trust God and understand that God is a powerful God who cares for His people. These David Was a Shepherd Boy activities will encourage kids to think about the time when David was tending sheep in the fields. David was still a shepherd boy when he was anointed by Samuel to be the king. It also means that He is still alive today. These Easter activities can help kids understand and remember the real meaning of Easter. Elijah Prayed for Rain The story of Elijah praying for rain can be a wonderful and dramatic introduction to biblical miracles for children. Elijah prayed for rain and God made it rain! From the very beginning, God desired to use His people, Israel, to bring redemption to all people. The story of Naaman being healed illustrates this important truth for kids. These Elisha Healed Naaman activities will help kids understand that God loves all people. Esther and the King Queen Esther is a figure of courage and faith in the Bible. While her people, the Jews, were living in Babylon, wicked men plotted against them. Esther approached the king and was able to save her people. can celebrate that miraculous birth! He became a great prophet. God would use Hannah and her son to accomplish His purposes in Israel. God promised to make of him a great nation. Abraham trusted God, obeyed, and God blessed him. These free activities highlight the encounter between God and Moses in which God gave His servant the Ten Commandments. But no obstacle is too great for God. In an amazing demonstration of His power and in a way much like the parting of the Red Sea, God held back the Jordan River so the people could cross on dry land and thus begin the long-awaited conquest of the Promised Land. God Helped Deborah The story of Deborah as a Judge is one of the few stories in the Bible which features female leadership and is a wonderful example of how God can use any one who wants to be His servant. These free, printable Deborah the Judge Bible activities will help you introduce children to this special leader. These Bible activities for kids will help children understand that God can use weak people and give them courage to accomplish great things. These Bible activities for children will help kids learn about Samson and how God restored his strength in a final dramatic event. Yet God specializes in doing the impossible. Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and God parted its waters. His people walked right through on dry ground. The following activities highlight this important event in Bible history. The activities listed here also underscore the fact that people were created in the image of God and are, therefore, unique and more valuable to God than all other aspects of creation. God Made the Animals God created all the animals, including fish, birds, and land animals. The animal kingdom shows how imaginative and creative God is and how awesome! God Made the Plants God made all the plants, including flowers, vegetable plants, fruit plants, and all the trees. When God parted the Red Sea the Hebrew people crossed on dry land. From this point forward the Egyptians would not be a threat. God Sent a Great Flood Having regretted that He had created humanity because of all the sin and violence in the world, God sent a flood to destroy life on the earth. Noah, his family, and the animals, however, remained safe in the ark that God told Noah to build. God is a righteous, but also gracious, God. These Bible activities highlight the plague in which frogs infested Egypt.
