The Economist newspaper uses the " Big Mac Index ": The company has operated in Russia since and at August had stores across the country. Condiments are supplied in small packets; such a packet of tomato ketchup is seen in the foreground. Some speculate the seasonality of the McRib adds to its appeal. In both cases, the individual items are wrapped or boxed as appropriate. The company has also looked to introduce healthier options, and removed high-fructose corn syrup from hamburger buns. The company has also removed artificial preservatives from Chicken McNuggets , [52] replacing chicken skin, safflower oil and citric acid found in Chicken McNuggets with pea starch, rice starch and powdered lemon juice. This local deviation from the standard menu is a characteristic for which the chain is particularly known, and one which is employed either to abide by regional food taboos such as the religious prohibition of beef consumption in India or to make available foods with which the regional market is more familiar such as the sale of McRice in Indonesia, or Ebi prawn Burger in Singapore and Japan. Restaurants The examples and perspective in this section deal primarily with the United States and do not represent a worldwide view of the subject. The first PlayPlace with the familiar crawl-tube design with ball pits and slides was introduced in in the US, with many more being constructed soon after. The concept store also offering free mobile device charging and table service after 6: The first store opened in Hong Kong in December The design includes wooden tables, faux-leather chairs, and muted colors; the red was muted to terracotta, the yellow was shifted to golden for a more "sunny" look, and olive and sage green were also added. To create a warmer look, the restaurants have less plastic and more brick and wood, with modern hanging lights to produce a softer glow. Many restaurants now feature free Wi-Fi and flat-screen TVs. Other upgrades include double drive-thrus, flat roofs instead of the angled red roofs, and replacing fiber glass with wood. Also, instead of the familiar golden arches, the restaurants now feature "semi-swooshes" half of a golden arch , similar to the Nike swoosh. Picket lines were formed around the two stores in Crayford and Cambridge. The strike was supported by the Leader of the Opposition , Jeremy Corbyn.

General Through June 30, , the Company was managed as distinct geographic segments, comprised of the U. The optimal ownership structure for an individual restaurant, trading area or market country is based on a variety of factors, including the availability of individuals with the entrepreneurial experience and financial resources, as well as the local legal and regulatory environment in critical areas such as property ownership and franchising. This business relationship is supported by an agreement that requires adherence to standards and policies essential to protecting our brand. Having Company-owned restaurants provides Company personnel with a venue for restaurant operations training experience. The Company believes that ownership of real estate, combined with the co-investment by franchisees, enables us to achieve restaurant performance levels that are among the highest in the industry. Franchisees are also responsible for reinvesting capital in their businesses over time. In addition, to accelerate implementation of certain initiatives, the Company frequently co-invests with franchisees to fund improvements to their restaurants or their operating systems. The Company requires franchisees to meet rigorous standards and generally does not work with passive investors. Under a developmental license arrangement, licensees provide capital for the entire business, including the real estate interest. The Company does not invest any capital under a developmental license arrangement. The Company receives a royalty based upon a percent of sales as well as initial fees upon the opening of a new restaurant or grant of a new license. We use the developmental license ownership structure in over 70 countries with a total of approximately 5, restaurants. The largest developmental licensee operates approximately 2, restaurants in 19 countries in Latin America and the Caribbean. The largest of these affiliates is Japan, where there are nearly 3, restaurants. The Company has established and enforces high quality standards and product specifications. The Company has quality centers around the world designed to ensure that its high standards are consistently met. The quality assurance process not only involves ongoing product reviews, but also on-site supplier visits. In addition, the Company works closely with suppliers to encourage innovation, assure best practices and drive continuous improvement. Leveraging scale, supply chain infrastructure and risk management strategies, the Company also collaborates with suppliers toward a goal of achieving competitive, predictable food and paper costs over the long term. In addition, restaurant personnel are trained in the proper storage, handling and preparation of products. In addition, the restaurants sell a variety of other products during limited-time promotions. Marketing and promotional efforts focus on value, quality, food taste, menu choice, nutrition, convenience and the customer experience. Patents, copyrights and licenses are of varying durations. The Company competes on the basis of price, convenience, service, menu variety and product quality in a highly fragmented global restaurant industry. The IEO segment excludes establishments that primarily serve alcohol and full-service restaurants other than casual dining. Independent suppliers also conduct research activities that benefit the Company, its franchisees and suppliers collectively referred to as the "System". Increased focus by U. While we cannot predict the precise nature of these initiatives, we expect that they may impact our business both directly and indirectly. Also, there is a possibility that governmental initiatives, or actual or perceived effects of changes in weather patterns, climate, or water resources could have a direct impact on the operations of the System in ways which we cannot predict at this time. The Company monitors developments related to environmental matters and plans to respond to governmental initiatives in a timely and appropriate manner. At this time, the Company has already begun to undertake its own initiatives relating to preservation of the environment, including the implementation of more energy efficient equipment and management of energy use and more sustainable sourcing practices in many of its markets. The Company therefore files periodic reports, proxy statements and other information with the U. In addition, the SEC maintains an Internet site www. Risk Factors and Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements The information in this report includes forward-looking statements about future events and circumstances and their effects upon revenues, expenses and business opportunities. Generally speaking, any statement in this report not based upon historical fact is a forward-looking statement. In particular, statements regarding our plans, strategies, prospects and expectations regarding our business and industry are forward-looking statements. They reflect our expectations, are not guarantees of performance and speak only as of the date of this report. Except as required by law, we do not undertake to update them. Our expectations or the underlying assumptions may change or not be realized, and you should not rely unduly on forward-looking statements. Our business results are subject to a variety of risks, including those that are reflected in the following considerations and factors, as well as elsewhere in our filings with the SEC. If any of these considerations or risks materialize, our expectations may change and our performance may be adversely affected. If we do not successfully design and execute our business strategies, we may not be able to increase revenues or market share. To drive future results, our business strategies must be effective in achieving market share gains while at the same time delivering operating income growth.
