The problem is that over the decades the quality of the water in the Jordan has gone downhill as well. It will take more than a quick fix to make things right and bring the Jordan back as a show.

But until that happens, the buzzards will circle. Because of that, the microscope zooms in on the Mavericks and every little or not-so-little event that takes place on the court or within public view. Doncic, Harris go through practice; which one is more likely to play Tuesday vs. Jordan never apologizes for hunting down rebounds, even if they come at the expense of teammates. So I am guilty of that. With Doncic stationed to the left of the basket to collect an errant Knicks 3-pointer, Jordan flew in from near the free-throw line to snatch the rebound. But if Doncic had been a Knick, it would have been a clear over-the-back foul on Jordan. The play drew criticism on social media platforms. Remember, Doncic has been dealing with a sore back. Asked if the play was over the top, so to speak, Carlisle said: We talked about that and addressed it. But it was addressed. Social media is insane. We were both trying to make a play on the ball and that was really it. One of the primary reasons he was signed in July was to help alleviate the rebounding woes that have dogged the Mavericks for the last two seasons. The center will be a free-agent again this coming summer, so averaging Reboundgate comes on the heels of the exchange that happened between president of basketball operations and general manager Donnie Nelson and shooting guard Wesley Matthews after the New York game. What does matter is that scenes like that and the rebound poaching make the Mavericks look like they are fraying at the seams. At , they have to be careful not to splinter. But those lapses we have The G League Texas Legends announced that they have agreed to a five-year lease extension to play in Frisco. They have played at Dr Pepper Arena in Frisco all nine seasons. It remains to be seen if the Dr Pepper name will be kept on the building in the aftermath of a merger with Keurig. The extension takes the team through the season with options through The Legends have led the G League in attendance for five years and set an average-attendance record last season. Our Home Is over Jordan: A Black Pastoral Theology by Homer U. Ashby, Jr. Homer U. Ashby Homer Ashby presents a realistic picture of the African American situation with regard to a variety of socioeconomic indices.

Because of their unbelief, Israel was sentenced to wander in the wilderness for 40 years. Those years have now expired and the children of Israel are poised to enter into Canaan Land. They are ready to claim their inheritance in the land of promise. However, before they can enter Canaan, they must first get past one final, major obstacle: Normally, this would not have presented much of a problem, since the Jordan was only feet wide at Gilgal where they crossed. However, it seems that God always does things in such a way that no man can boast of having done them on their own. This crossing would be no exception. You see, God brought them to the Jordan River at the time of harvest, 4: Those who have been there during the harvest time tell us that the Jordan swells to an impassable width of over 1 mile! It was over 50 times wider than it normally would have been when Israel arrived. There was no way they could cross this river on their own! They needed supernatural help. My friends, we each have Jordans that we face from time to time! When we look at the obstacles that stand between us and spiritual victory in our own Canaan, we may feel that we will never be able to enter our Canaan of victory and enjoy the abundant life that Jesus promised His followers. Well, it is true that I do not know what kind of obstacles that you face in your life, I do a God Who specializes in overcoming the overwhelming and in leading His children to victory. This morning, I would like for us to look into this account of Israel as they got past their Jordan. As we do, I would like to offer you some hope as well. You see, the things that worked for them over years ago will still work for you and me today. There are 3 steps that we must take to guarantee that we will be able to get past that obstacle that blocks our way and enter our Canaan. Let me share these steps with you this morning. In the words they heard, they were challenged to do three very important things. These things were designed to help them follow the Lord better. These are the same things that we need to hear this morning that will help up to follow the Lord better as well. Watch God - Notice that the Ark of the Covenant is mentioned some 7 times in chapter 3. The Ark, you may remember, was that special piece of Tabernacle furniture that symbolized the presence and power of God. When the Ark was in the Holy of Holies, the glory of God rested upon it and it was the dwelling place of God. In other words, when God moved, they were to move. When God stopped they were to do the same. There is a valuable spiritual lesson in this passage for you and me. We would do well, when we face times of crisis, or when we need direction in life to learn to be sensitive to the movement of the Lord in and around us. It is a fact that God loves you and that He will show you what He is doing, John 5: If you will watch Him, He will teach you how to live day by day. Follow God - When they saw the Ark of the Covenant move, they were to "leave your place, and go after it" Not only were they to watch God, they were to move when He did. They were to pursue God! Israel was about to follow the Ark through a river that was over 1 mile wide! Folk, following God may not be the easiest thing you will ever do, but it will be the best thing you ever do. If you ever expect to get past your obstacles and enter your Canaan, you must learn to follow God. Honor God - Notice that the Israelites are told to stay at least feet behind the Ark. This was so that they could easily see what was happening ahead of them. Another reason is that the Lord wanted no one but the Levites near the Ark. To get too close would have meant death. Again, there is a lesson here for us as well. We must never be guilty of treating God like is one of our buddies. There must always be a holy reverence and a fear of the Lord in our hearts. God help us that we never allow a spirit of familiarity cheapen or walk with the Lord. Regardless of what we go through with holy, righteous God and we are still nothing but sinners saved by His marvelous grace. Simply put, these three things are most easily accomplished by learning to walk in the Spirit. That is, learning to give control of your life to the Spirit of God and to follow God as He leads through His Word and through prayer. It may not always be easy, but I can promise you that if you will follow, He will certainly lead! They were to put away anything that was displeasing to the Lord. They were to examine themselves and get ready for the Lord to do something great for them. Christian, is everything in your life just as the Lord would have it to be? Remember, there is forgiveness in confessing our sins to the Lord - I John 1: It was His plan to get them over and it was His problem. In these verses, He makes them a promise and tells them that He will bring them through in a powerful fashion. God, here, commits Himself to bringing his people across their Jordan! All that was required of Israel was that they trust God! May I remind you that things have not changed one bit? If God could be trusted in those days to keep His promises, then He can still be trusted today! Often, we are unable to get past the obstacles in our lives because we live a life that exhibits a deep lack of faith in the promises of God! How do I know? Because of the worry and doubt that marks the lives of the people of God. We worry over tomorrow, yet the Lord has said - Matt. We worry over material things, yet the Lord has promised - Matt. We worry about facing various things in life, yet the Lord has promised - Heb. We worry over so many things, yet the Lord tells us that all of our worry is sin and that our duty is to trust Him - Phil. The bottom line is this: Jesus is all-powerful, He is all-knowing and He is all-present. He knows what you are going through. He knows everything there is to know about it. He even knows more about it than you do! Here is what He says to you: What He says to us is that He is the Lord and that He is greater than any problem we have ever or will ever face in life. His desire is that we simply learn to take Him at His Word and trust Him. We need to remember that what the Lord has promised to do, He will do, Rom, 4: The river was over 1 mile wide and there were 2 million people who had to cross, and yet the Lord wanted them to go over. There was only one way around their problem and that was through it! Have you ever sized up your problem and thought about how big it was? Maybe you looked at it and concluded, "There is no way around, through, over or past this problem. We have sized up our problem and think that it is more than we can ever face, Num, Our problem was the same one we always have when we face a difficult situation: Where we see only problems, God sees only solutions. In other words, it took a step of faith, whereby the people obediently followed the Lord for them to see the miracle come to pass. What a lesson for you and me. Too often, we want the Lord just to fix everything in our lives for us. We just want Him to do it and that will be the end of it. However, most of the time, God will require us to take steps of faith in order that we might see our Jordan parted. God had a plan, but for this plan to work, it required faith on the part of His people! The same is true for you and me! As long as we are trying to solve our own problems we are not walking in faith. It is when we turn loose of the reigns of the problem, step away from it and let the Lord have it that we will see it taken care of for His glory. It never is about what we can do, it is always about what the Lord is able to do, Eph. By the way, verse 16 says that the waters backed up to the City of Adam. This is some 20 miles north of where the children of Israel were crossing. God made them a path through the water that was more than adequate for His people to get through. We need to remember that faith honors God and God honors faith! Folks, I want to encourage you this morning by reminding you that this God Who did this great thing for Israel is still the same God we are serving this morning! What He did them, He can do now. Regardless of the circumstances, He is still God and He still can!
