

Chapter 1 : Our Moral Life in Christ (College Edition) by Rev. Peter V. Armenio on Apple Books

The Third edition of this book presents the moral theology of Catholicism. With its emphasis on the Catechism of the Catholic Church and Pope John Paul II's encyclicals Veritatis Splendor and Fides et Ratio, this book is a fruit of the development of moral theology.

Complete Course The Didache Complete Course is comprised of four books, each designed to be covered in the course of one academic year. The Universal Call to Holiness is the main theme throughout the book. Understanding the Scriptures Authored by Dr. Scott Hahn, this book presents a thorough examination of the history of salvation as presented in Sacred Scripture, which finds its fulfillment in Jesus Christ. An excellent resource for biblical studies. It emphasizes God as the Lord of history and his actions that demonstrate his love for his People. An excellent resource for anyone seeking to know more about the history of the Catholic Church. This book presents the life of Christ and his teachings as the basis of moral theology. Its Christological approach examines the Church as an encounter with Christ and provides the students with apologetical tools and practical means for living the Catholic Faith. Particular attention is focused on the Gospels as the message of Jesus Christ, who is the fullness of Revelation. This book corresponds to Book I: The Revelation of Jesus Christ in Scripture in the curriculum framework. It studies the Christian vocation and how God invites us to be in communion with him, so that we can share in the divine life that he has prepared for us from all eternity. It also helps the student to understand what it means to be a disciple of Christ. This book corresponds to Book II: Who Is Jesus Christ? It also shows how the Holy Mass is a perpetuation of the Paschal Mystery in our lives. This book corresponds to Book III: Sacrament of Salvation This book, authored by Dr. Scott Hahn, shows how the Church continues the salvific ministry of Christ in the world today, guided by the Holy Spirit. As the Sacrament of Salvation, the People of God, and the Mystical Body of Christ, the Church is the point of encounter between the faithful and the risen Lord and the beginning of the communion that will reach its fulfillment in Heaven. This book corresponds to Book IV: Source of Our Life in Christ Through his great love for us, Jesus Christ suffered and died for our redemption, and he desires to share the grace he won for us with every person. This book examines each sacrament as a source of grace and an intimate encounter with Jesus Christ and the liturgy as the public worship of the Church. This book corresponds to Book V: Sacraments as Privileged Encounters with Jesus Christ in the curriculum framework. This book corresponds to Book VI: Life in Jesus Christ in the curriculum framework. Electives Semester Edition This book, authored by Dr. Scott Hahn, presents a thorough examination of the history of salvation as presented in Sacred Scripture, which finds its fulfillment in Jesus Christ. This book corresponds to Elective A: Scripture in the curriculum framework. This book corresponds to Elective B: History of the Catholic Church in the curriculum framework. Semester Edition This course will introduce students to the social teaching of the Catholic Church. Semester Edition This course examines the universal call to holiness and its importance in the Christian life. It also analyzes the unique plan that God has for every person in the vocations to Marriage, Holy Orders, the consecrated life, or the committed single life. Finally, it explains how each person can prayerfully discern the will of God in his or her own life. This book corresponds to Elective D: Responding to the Call of Jesus Christ in the curriculum framework. Semester Edition This course will assist the student in understanding the manner in which the Catholic Church relates to non-Catholic Christians as well as to other religions. This book corresponds to Elective E - Ecumenical and Interreligious Issues in the curriculum framework. Each of the eight Didache Semester titles has been divided into individual weekly lessons intended to be covered over the course of one semester. The full-color, illustrated text provides ample column material, which includes: Vocabulary terms, Focus Questions,.
