Now your child can become part of the first Christmas story and imagine what it might have been like to journey with Mary and Joseph to Bethlehem. When you put your child's picture in the frames provided, the first Christmas comes alive with angels and shepherds and more.

I am dreaming of white Christmas, with every Christmas card I write, May your days be merry and bright, and May all your Christmas be white. Christmas gift ideas and suggestions: To your enemy, forgiveness. To a friend, your heart. To a customer, service. To every child, a good example. Christmas is the Blessed season which engages the whole world in a conspiracy of love! Dear Santa, all I want is true love this Christmas. The snow gently falls, touches the heart, white as a dove. Merry Christmas with love. Merry Christmas to you! Christmas is a great time for extra hugs and cuddles. Love is the magic of Christmas; if you are blessed with children, share with them that special magic, and it will spread to others as well. May the spirit of Christmas bring you peace. The gladness of Christmas give you hope. The warmth of Christmas grant you love. Christmas quotes Gifts of time and love are surely the basic ingredients of a truly merry Christmas! Christmas Eve was a night of song that wrapped itself about you like a shawl. But it warmed more than your body. It warmed your heart and filled it too with a melody that would last forever. Christmas is the season for kindling the fire of hospitality in the hall, the genial flame of charity in the heart. To cherish peace and goodwill, to be plenteous in mercy, is to have the real spirit of Christmas. Monsoon Christmas is the day that holds all time together. If he gives us the gift of Christmas, it is because we all have the ability to understand and receive it. It moves us to think of others rather than of ourselves. It directs our thoughts to giving. Forbes It is a fine seasoning for joy to think of those we love. But for others, service will come first. Schulz Christmas, children, is not a date. It is a state of mind. As the holiday has become more ecumenical and secular, it has lost much of the magic that I remember so fondly from childhood. They already beat out all the competition. Having you as my friend makes me feel as if it is Christmas every day. The warmth and comfort that comes with this season reminds me of you. May this holiday season sparkle and shine, may all of your wishes and dreams come true, and may you feel this happiness all year round. Where could I find a best friend like you? This year know that the best gift in my life are best friends like you. Christmas is for forgiveness, love, and cherishing those we are meant to cherish. Funny Christmas Greetings If tonight some big fat man kidnaps and throws you in to a sack, then please stay calm. Because many people would have asked Santa for a sweet friend like you. Christmas is like job: Enjoy and be merry! Christmas has been canceled! Have a Merry Christmas. Have a Wonderful Christmas! Merry Christmas to the one I love so very much. Words can never describe how grateful I am for you. Christmas is a most special time of year, made even more special because I get to spend it with you! I wish you so many blessings this Christmas! I give you all of my love, from the deepest place in my heart! If I could package my love for you and wrap it in ribbon, I would. Merry Christmas, my love! No Christmas gift is greater than the gift of love. Thank you for giving the best gift ever! Want to keep Christ in Christmas? Feed the hungry, clothe the naked, forgive the guilty, welcome the unwanted, care for the ill, love your enemies, and do unto others as you would have done unto you. Steve Marabolo Christmas, my child, is love in action. I am always with you, I am nearer to you than your own heart. I gave my life so that you might live forever with me. So can I ask you to be mine? No one comes to the Father except through me. At Christmas and New Year! God gave His greatest gift to us on that first Christmas Day and may the wonder of it always guide and light your way! Merry Christmas! Christmas Wishes for Boss Before we all leave for the Christmas vacation, thank you, boss, for being an adviser and a friend. Christmas is a time for reflecting on all that has happened in the year, and when I think of my greatest sources of inspiration, you are one of the most images that I see. Know that we appreciate all you have done to help us succeed, and we look forward to another year of achieving our dreams. The magic of Christmas never ends and its greatest of gifts are family and friends. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year! May this Christmas fill your hearts with warmth, peace and joy! Have a Holy and a Blessed Christmas! May this Christmas bring your way plenty of reasons to smile. I wish you and your family a very Happy and Joyous Christmas season. Savor the wonderful delights for months to come. May all the sweet magic of Christmas conspire to gladden your hearts, and fill every desire. Christmas is most truly Christmas when we celebrate it by giving the light of love to those who need it most. One of the most glorious messes in the world is the mess created in the living room on Christmas day!

He restored love and service to the centre of our lives in the person of Jesus Christ. It is my prayer this Christmas Day that his example and teaching will continue to bring people together to give the best of themselves in the service of others. A humble man and woman had gone up from Galilee out of the City of Nazareth to Bethlehem. There is a sense of desolation in St. You are always there no matter what. Thank you my Father for being the one who loves me and cares no matter what the day. So at this time of year let me especially say, I love you and thank you for always being there. When I think of Santa I think of you - jolly, happy, and giving all the year thru. So my hope this Christmas for you my Dad is that it is one that will make you glad. Dad the pressures and cares of everyday life are with you through out the year. But this Christmas season I hope you experience the gifts of peace, love and happiness from those who love you dear. Christmas Messages for Mothers Cooking and cleaning but always having time to spend with us, how you do it amazes me. During this season our hope for you is that you have time to spend just on you. Your love is felt by all you do. My Mom you are special and I hope you know I care. I thank you and am grateful I have a Mother like you. So this Christmas time may God bless you. Mom, you filled our childhood with the magic of Christmas every year. May the magic and blessings of Christmas be yours this year. My message is for happiness and contentment for you I love you my Sis remember that too. Sisters are special people in our lives. And, so often we take them for granted. So my dear Sister let me tell you so, a special person you are and my love that will always grow. Thank you for being my sister, my friend, a Merry Christmas message I do send! Christmas time is a time of giving. And you my sister give all year long through your love, your kind deeds, and your willingness to help others. This Christmas my wish is that you receive all that you give and have a joyous and peaceful Christmas. Christmas Messages for Brothers My dear brother, as they say: Little boys and lots of toys. Snakes and ladders, you make so much clatter. May this season bring that a special thing that will make you happy and we will hear you sing. May you find a special peace at this joyous time of year. My longing for you this Christmas is that the light that shone so bright on that first Christmas Eve, will shine on you and bless you. My Nana, my friend. My Nana, my second Mom. My Nana who I love, who is sweet like a dove. May this Christmas be one where you will be surrounded by those you love and may grace and happiness shine on you from above. Grandmother you taught me the true meaning of Christmas - Christ was born; and the colors of Christmas are a reminder of His love for us when he died upon the cross. Red the color of His blood and green the color of the tree. May this Christmas be one that is special to you because you are special to me. Christmas Messages for Grandfathers A saying that is true, a saying for you: My Gramps you are special, I love you so much. You are my special teddy bear, I will love you forever I swear! You play with me, you love me, you take care of me, and always watch out for me. When I am sad, you make me glad. When I am blue, you tell me, "I love you. Merry Christmas to you, I hope you know you are loved a lot. Gratitude, appreciation and the feeling of being blessed are thoughts that come to mind when I think of you. Merry Christmas to the best Grandfather in the world. Christmas Messages for Husbands A husband you have been A friend to the end. I thank God for you every day. But on this Christmas day I pray that God blesses you. You are a great husband and I know I have been blessed, because God in heaven sent me the best. There is no one I would rather spend Christmas with. You fill my heart with joy not only on this special day, but every day of the year. Christmas Messages for the One I Love May this Christmas note be like the star that shone so bright long ago May the brightness of my words be like the sparkle on the snow. God sent me the best gift when he sent me you. I love you and everything you do. So my desire for you is a simple one but true, a wish for happiness in all that you do. Love shines brighter at Christmas it seems. However, when I am with you love shines brilliantly. May you have a Merry Xmas and may you feel my love shining over you each and every day of the year! The love we share is the best gift a person could have. A gift that we have not just at Christmas but every day of the year. So merry, merry Christmas, and may this message bring, A love that is for all seasons and all happy things. Christmas Messages for Teacher Different teachers every year, but you are one that we hold dear. Now during this season of love and peace, we hope you are reminded how special you are. This Christmas message is one that comes with love for you. We appreciate all you do. A Merry Christmas is our wish for you You share your knowledge, you share your experience, you share your life with us. We appreciate you, and all you do. You deserve a great Christmas and a very Happy New Year. Christmas Messages for Family and Friends Our prayer is that spirit of giving will last throughout the year not just during this festive season. Greetings of the season and may you experience rich memories that linger long after the season is gone. My Christmas prayer for you is that you will be blessed. And may your days be filled with peace and happiness. Hope you are inspired to be extra good this year, so Santa will find you. Wishing you a jolly Christmas. Two thousand years ago, "Joy to the World, the Lord is come! May those words give you meaning and joy this Christmas season. May you find that special inspirational quote that will remind you about the magic and miracles that Christmas always brings. A joyous Noel is wished for you this season. We receive many greetings during this holiday season, but your message of hope, joy , and love, is always special to us at this festive time of year. May you and your family enjoy many memories and lots of laughter and love! May every Nativity scene you see this season remind you of the birth of our Lord. Wishing you the peace of Christ this Christmas. The angels are singing! May you experience the music of heaven during this special time of year. A very Merry Christmas to you and your family. As the light from that star illuminated the sky the night Jesus was born, may his light illuminate your life at this special time of the year. May you the same wonderment and belief that children have, fill your heart during this holiday season. Wishing you a child like excitement this season. Our hope for you both, as you experience new beginnings in this your first Christmas together, may the bonds of marriage and friendship give you many happy and memorable years together. May you have a Christmas filled with dreams come true, wonder, and love. Imagine if this season would stay all year, and the love people shows at this time of year, would never disappear. Hope you have a great Xmas. With each Xmas card I write, memories of good friends and good times flood my mind. Thank you my friend for being a part of my life. Christmas comes but once a year, lights and trees and gifts we choose.

Brownies With A Difference by Annette Nay Many parents are hard put to explain to their youth why some music, movies, books, and magazines are not acceptable material for them to bring into the home, for their youth to see, or hear. One parent came up with an original idea that was hard to refute. He listened to all the reasons his children gave for wanting to see a particular PG movie. It had their favorite actors. Everyone else was seeing it. Even church members said it was great. It was only rated PG because of the suggestion of sex. They never really showed it. The language was pretty good. The video effects were fabulous and the plot was action packed. Yes, there was the scene where a building and a bunch of people got blown up, but the violence was just the normal stuff. He explained that he had taken the families favorite recipe and added something new. They asked what it was. He calmly replied that he had added dog poop. He stated that it was only a little bit. All the ingredients were gourmet quality. He had taken great care to bake it at the precise temperature for the exact time. He was sure the brownies would be superb. Even with all the explanations of the perfect attributes of the brownies, the teens would not take one. The father acted surprised. There was only one little element that would have caused them to act so stubbornly. He assured them that they would hardly notice it if at all. They all held firm and would not try the brownies. He then explained that the movie they wanted to see was just like the brownies. With the brownies, just a little bit makes all the difference between a great brownie and a totally unacceptable product. Test your movie and see. Would you be comfortable taking Christ with you to see the movie? Bob Moorehead We have taller buildings, but shorter tempers, wider freeways, but narrower viewpoints. We spend more, but have less, we buy more, but enjoy less. We have bigger houses and smaller families, more conveniences, but less time. We have more degrees, but less sense, more knowledge, but less judgment, more experts, but more problems, more medicine, but less wellness. We drink too much, smoke too much, spend too recklessly, laugh too little, drive too fast, get too angry too quickly, stay up too late, get up too tired, pray too seldom, and watch too much TV. We have multiplied our possessions, but reduced our values. We talk too much, love too seldom and lie too often. These are the times of fast foods and slow digestion, tall men, and short character, steep profits, and shallow relationships. These are the times of world peace, but domestic warfare, more leisure and less fun, more kinds of food, but less nutrition. These are the days of two incomes, but more divorce, of fancier houses, but broken homes. These are the days of quick trips, disposable diapers, throwaway morality, one night stands, overweight bodies, and pills that do everything from cheer, to quiet, to kill. It is a time when there is much in the show window, and nothing in the stockroom. Today, many want to gain the world at the "mere" expense of their souls. Evil is contemplated and performed with both hands, yet we cannot lift a finger for our fellow man. May God have mercy on our souls. Let each of us examine our own ways. The Burden Author Unknown "Why was my burden so heavy? Is there no rest from this life? I stumbled to my bed and dropped onto it, pressing my pillow around my ears to shut out the noise of my existence. Let me sleep forever and never wake up! Light surrounded me as I regained consciousness. I focused on its source: The figure of a man standing before a cross. You see how hard it is for me. Look at this awful burden on my back. My yoke is easy, and My burden is light. But why does mine have to be so heavy? Perhaps you would like to try a different one? But each was labeled with a name. Joan was married to a wealthy businessman. She lived in a sprawling estate and dressed her three daughters in the prettiest designer clothes. Sometimes she drove me to church in her Cadillac when my car was broken. I sank my knees beneath its weight. Inside was a figure of her Mother-in-law, and when I lifted it out, it began to speak. Her head was bandaged from the surgery that had failed to resolve her epilepsy. Addicted to drugs, he had been convicted of killing a police officer. She was raising four small boys without a father. A childhood of sexual abuse and a marriage of emotional abuse. I knew that inside I would find arthritis, old age, a demanding full-time job, and a beloved husband in a nursing home. I turned away, holding it close. I opened my burden. He pulled out a brick. He makes me so tired. I yell at him all the time. Someday I may really hurt him I hate my hair. I hate all my clothes. I hate the way I look! By My Spirit you can gain self-control to lose weight. But your beauty should not come from outward appearance. Instead, it should come from your inner self, the unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is of great worth in My sight. I can handle it. He reached out His hand, and for the first time I saw the ugly wound. What happened to Your hands? In His brow were ragged scars-as though someone had pressed thorns into His flesh. Hand Me the brick. It belongs to Me. Give it to Me. It contained all the dirt and evil of my life: He turned to the cross and hurled my brick into the pool of blood at its base. It hardly made a ripple. I will be with you always. When you are troubled, call to Me and I will help you and show you things you cannot imagine now. You see all these burdens? They are the ones that others have left at My feet. As I placed my burden with Him, the light began to fade. Yet I heard Him whisper, "I will never leave you, nor forsake you. The first little tree looked up at the stars and said: I want to be covered with gold and filled with precious stones. I will be the tallest tree in the world. The rain came, the sun shone, and the little trees grew tall. One day three woodcutters climbed the mountain.

To us this day a child is given, To crown us with the joy of heaven. Christmas means fellowship, feasting, giving and receiving, a time of good cheer, home. It is more than that. It is a time for the contemplation of eternal things. The Christmas spirit is a spirit of giving and forgiving. This is proved by what we feel in our hearts at Christmas. To cherish peace and good will, to be plenteous in mercy, is to have the real spirit of Christmas. Eight Ways to Beat the Holiday Blues It is tenderness for the past, courage for the present, hope for the future. It is a fervent wish that every cup may overflow with blessings rich and eternal, and that every path may lead to peace. And may the season light your way To hopes and dreams anew. It came without ribbons. It came without tags. It came without packages, boxes or bags. What if Christmas, perhaps, means a little bit more. For Christmas is tradition timeâ€” Traditions that recall The precious memories down the years, The sameness of them all. The good you do for others is good you do yourself. All else is outward displayâ€”so much tinsel and decorations. I was never alone at all. And that, of course, is the message of Christmas. We are never alone. Not when the night is darkest, the wind coldest, the world seemingly most indifferent. For this is still the time God chooses. Then you can keep Christmas. What do you want to give to others for Christmas? What do you want for Christmas? The first fosters generosity of heart and an outward focus. The second can breed selfishness if not tempered by the first. The very word brings joy to our hearts. No matter how we may dread the rush, the long Christmas lists for gifts and cards to be bought and givenâ€”when Christmas Day comes there is still the same warm feeling we had as children, the same warmth that enfolds our hearts and our homes. It may weave a spell of nostalgia. Christmas may be a day of feasting, or of prayer, but always it will be a day of remembrance â€” a day in which we think of everything we have ever loved. May God make you very rich in both. They sit silently on the floor, perhaps perplexed, perhaps in awe, no doubt in amazement. Their night watch had been interrupted by an explosion of light from heaven and a symphony of angels. God goes to those who have time to hear himâ€”and so on this cloudless night he went to simple shepherds. Feed the hungry, clothe the naked, forgive the guilty, welcome the unwanted, care for the ill, love your enemies, and do unto others as you would have done unto you. Come to think of it, why do we have to wait for Christmas to do that? If we think on these things, there will be born in us a Savior and over us will shine a star sending its gleam of hope to the world.
