

Chapter 1 : Planning Manager jobs | Hot Travel Jobs

Fine-Tuning Your Strategic Planning Using Labor Market Analysis and Informed Decision-Making The U.S. Employment and Training Administration (ETA) has collected here a variety of data sources, labor market analysis samples, targeting process models, and strategic planning resources to incorporate into your planning process.

This position reports directly to the Director of Operations. Responsible for negotiating and fine tuning of program land and cruise budgets. Responsible for completeness, accuracy and on-time deadline of all pre-departure and Ops manual information. Contract review with hotels, ground operators, ships. Monitor day-to-day operations of a program as per the Operations timeline. Responsible for operational details " post proposal stage " specific to Client Organization needs. Provide quality customer service to enhance and fine tune customization of programs specific to Client Organizations. Responsible to manage all quality assurance related items while program is operating and to escalate concerns to management team in Operations. Responsible to update documents such as Technical Itineraries and Date Schedules for assigned programs. Keep track of and verify program payment schedules and invoices. Responsible for program finalization. Finalize contracts " if not already done so by Program Planning " to be submitted to the VP of Product Development for final sign off. Prepare program Turnover meeting materials to be given to Production to produce brochures and hold the meeting. Prepare and send Travel Director documents. Liase with Program Planning. Prepare and give program briefings to Passenger Services as needed. Honest, mature, energetic, enthusiastic professional. Well organized individual that is deadline oriented. Detailed administration, negotiation and budgeting skills required. Superior planning and organization skills with a high level of attention to detail. Ability to prioritize multiple tasks simultaneously and work well in a fast-paced work environment. Ability to be flexible and adapt to changing priorities and the impact of worldwide events. Superior written and verbal communication skills, including the ability to represent the Company effectively in a variety of situations. Team player, who is also able to work well independently with minimal supervision. Proficiency in Softrip computer software program Willing to work outside of normal hours as needed. Gohagan and Company employees are committed to nondiscrimination in our employment and personnel practices. Applicants are considered for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, veteran status, or any other characteristic protected by law.

Chapter 2 : Home Workout Videos | Team Body Project

After the various timing plans are reviewed or the best timing plan is selected, it might be desirable to evaluate the plans through a simulation program. Depending on the budget of the study, complexity of the corridor, and the degree of congestion, a simulation tool can be used to provide a more detailed analysis of the timing plans.

Chapter 3 : Program Planning Guides | Registrar's Office and Student Services

From Longman Dictionary of Contemporary English fine-tune ˈfɪn-ˌtjuːn verb [transitive] IMPROVE to make very small changes to something such as a machine, system, or plan, so that it works as well as possible Over the next few days, we fine-tuned the scheme and made some useful improvements. " fine tuning noun [uncountable] " See Verb table.