

PSYCHICS AND MEDIUMS A Manual and Bibliography for Students BY GERTRUDE OGDEN TUBBY, B. S. Former Secretary of the American Society for Psychical Research.

What should you expect from a psychic medium? In this continuing Eclectic Horizons blog series, we have outlined some potential client questions. Click here for more related posts. After you schedule your private psychic medium reading on-line, you will be sent an auto-generated confirmation e-mail. The next step we recommend you do is prepare for your upcoming psychic medium session by thinking about the goals you have for the session and the questions you desire to ask. An easy way to get the most out of your reading with either Kent or myself is to prepare for the session by writing down questions you want to ask during your session. Depending on the complexity or simplicity of the questions, you may not be able to ask a lot of questions or you may be able to ask more than 10 questions. Question Guidance Think about members of your spiritual team angels, teachers, guides, fairies, etc. Guidance from Spirit does not absolve you of responsibility for your life. You always have free will to consider the suggestions provided and then follow or ignore the advice translated to you. You may also wish to talk with a passed loved one s. You can ask your loved one anything. Am I on the right career path or is it time to change directions? Is this the right time to look for a new job, refinance my home, buy a new car, etc. I keep having this pain in my leg that seems to manifest for no reason. Does this relate to something in a past life? If so, what was the situation? Does my spirit guide have suggestions on how I can do that? I am having trouble sleeping. Can you tell me what is affecting my sleep? My cat has stopped eating. What should I do? Please do not feel confined by these suggestions. Ask whatever questions feel comfortable to you, just keep in mind that this is YOUR session. The one exception to this is your minor children. You may ask questions about your minor children for whom you have custodial responsibility. Spirit will generally only share information with us that is in the best interest of the minor child. You can read more about what to expect in your reading here.
