October 19 - Post 7 We had a great time on our field trip last week! The address is Bray Ave. Here are a few more pictures from our first field trip of the year: Thank you for your generosity!!! Our Snow Day Basket was packed with really fun ideas for a several cozy, warm days this winter! This strategy really helps cut down on the amount of lost and found items. Unfortunately, the lost and found pile is already starting to stack up at Paxton Keeley. If you are missing any items, please stop by school and take a look. I will encourage the students to do the same this week. Homework The students have been doing a nice job growing the habit of homework. Here are several reasons why this lifelong habit is so important. In this unit, more fact strategies are developed, with a focus on strategies for solving subtraction facts. Additional routines and games for practicing facts will be introduced, and frequent use of them will support the development of fluency with addition and subtraction within 20 by the end of second grade. Here are several of the strategies we will be using: Making Strategy 4. We will be working to write well-crafted stories throughout this unit. Last week, the students took one story quickly through the writing process: This week the students are working to add descriptive details in their writing by describing a silly monster they created. Finally, the students read several examples of personal narrative stories to get ideas for their final projects. Reading We have been focusing on the comprehension skill of prediction during reading. Our shared reading book was, Rashee and the Seven Elephants. It is a fun story about a little boy who has a big responsibility of herding seven elephants through the Indian countryside. The students enjoyed predicting what would happen throughout the story. The students all enjoyed the funny performance and they heard a lot of good information. Theme The students are studying a new theme! The topic is geography. This week the students studied several different types of maps.
