Past and Present of Chippewa County, Maloney, Pearl street, following a paralytic stroke which visited him yesterday morning. Morris had been enjoying fair health, until yesterday when he was taken suddenly ill. Born in England, April 15, , he came to the United States with his parents when but five years old. His parents located in Buffalo, N. In September, , Mr. Morris enlisted with the 23rd New York Independent battery, and saw service through the remainder of the war. He received his honorable discharge at the close of the war in . He participated in many of the most important engagements during the war, but being a man who talked little of himself, not much is known of his actual experiences. After the close of the war, Mr. Morris came to Wisconsin to reside, locating at Durand, where he lived until 38 years ago when he took up his residence in Chippewa Falls. During his early manhood and until a few years ago he followed the vocation of woodsman. In , he was married to Miss Ellen Stokin, of Durand, who preceded him in death seven years ago. Morris was an active comrade of James Comerford Post No. He was among the first to become associated with the post, and served in whatever capacity he was elected faithfully. Surviving relatives are his daughter, Mrs. Maloney, four grand-daughters, and thirteen great grand children. Arrangements for conducting the funeral had not been entirely completed this afternoon, but it was stated that it would be held from the Maloney residence at 2: It is possible the funeral will be conducted with military honors. The remains will be taken to the J. Maloney home Saturday morning. Past and Present of Chippewa County, , Published A Deserted Wife Mrs. Holt, a lady living on the West side, mourns the loss of a husband, span of horses, harness, wagon, and in cash. James Holt jumped the town six weeks ago, taking with him the above mentioned property which belonged to his wife. The lady has kept the matter quiet, in hopes the man would return or write. The State of Wisconsin to the said defendant: Could also be spelled Fanning, Fanin, or Fannon. The last one I remember was about A lot of Mitchems, Mitchums, and Mitchams gathered, and decided that the proper spelling was and is Mitchem. We claim the paper as our official organ, as some of us commenced reading it in the camps and trenches around Richmond, and we value it greatly. I wish every Confederate was a subscriber to it. Appleton, Wisconsin Directories, , , Appleton, Wisc. Krause resided on a farm in Lafayette for thirteen years and his wife preceded him in death eight years ago. When his health began failing a year ago he moved to this city, residing on Woodward Avenue. Dropsy and heart failure were the cause of his demise. Deceased was well-known, especially throughout the Lafayette country, and as a neighbor and friend was esteemed by all who knew him. The sympathy of the community is extended to the bereaved relatives. The following ten children survive: The funeral will be held from the late home on Woodward Avenue at 1: Grand Avenue, the Rev. Reinholtz, mother of Mrs. Louis Krause of Hallie and whose death occurred Tuesday morning at her home in Fall Creek was held yesterday afternoon with internment in the Lafayette cemetery. Lincoln County is located in west-central Nebraska about miles from the Missouri River. The Platte River flows through the county from west to east. This area is noted for the excellent quality of hay produced and is adapted to stock-raising and dairy farming. Lincoln County is bounded on the north by Logan and McPherson counties, on the east by Custer and Dawson counties, on the south by Hayes and Frontier counties, and on the west by Perkins and Keith. The county was named for President Abraham Lincoln who was assassinated one year prior to its organization. Settlement was also complimented by the railroads moving through Lincoln County. These records have been microfilmed by the Historical Society. Subgroup Two, County Treasurer, is divided into seven series: The bulk of this collection exists in Subgroup Six, County Court. This subgroup is divided into five series: The case files include miscellaneous bills of exception for criminal cases occurring in Lincoln County, There are currently no records in storage for Subgroup Eight, Superintendent of Schools. Subgroup Nine, School District Records, includes miscellaneous records relating to Districts 1, 5, 27, and 90, These records were a gift of the estate of William H. McDonald, North Platte, Nebraska, in The records of the Wellfleet Cemetery are contained on one roll of microfilm which was copied from Lincoln County security microfilm stored at the State Archives. North Platte, "A" starts at fr. Frames are blank due to camera trouble. No assessments for sanitary and improvement districts, paving tax, etc. School Land Records remain at the office of the County Treasurer.
