

Chapter 2 : Shiva Thandava Stotram - A Prayer Offered While Doing Tandava Dance

Shiva Tandava Stotra (Sanskrit: शिवतन्दावस्तोत्रम्, translit. Śhiva-tĀṅāvā-stotra) is a stotra (Hindu hymn) that describes Shiva's.

In the verses of the Stotram lie stories about various great acts of the Mahadeva. The famous and oft-repeated Sanskrit shloka Asiti girisamam Along with the kinnar nymphs , yaksha archangels , apsara celestial dancers etc. They are not necessarily spiritually realised, but are superior to humans. Pushpadanta literally, Flower-Teethed was a divine musician of such standing, in the court of Lord Indra King of the Gods. Pushpadanta was also a devotee of Lord Shiva and a lover of flowers. Once he happened to see a beautiful garden adorned with charming flowers. The King used to offer flowers from his palatial garden as a symbol of his devotion to Lord Shiva. Pushpadanta was so awestruck by the beauty of the garden, that he could not control his emotions and picked up the flowers from the garden. Every day he tried to stop himself, but failed and picked up the flowers. As a result, King Chitraratha was left with no flowers to complete his prayers to Lord Shiva. The King did all he could to address the issue. But Pushpadanta had divine powers to be invisible and hence, the king could not find the culprit. Pushpadanta was unaware of this and unknowingly stepped on the bilva leaves. This infuriated Lord Shiva and he punished Pushpadanta by taking away his divine powers. He was shocked, but being a blessed devotee, he realized why that happened. Lord Shiva, was pleased with his prayers, absolved him and returned his divine powers.
