Jun 06, Katja Rusanen rated it it was amazing "Soul Plan - Reconnect with Your True Life Purpose" is a powerful book as it brings you understanding of your life lessons and challenges, your talents and skills, and your goals. The book explains how to prepare and interpret your own Soul Plan Reading. It also has fascinating examples of real life situations. This book is insightful, powerful and inspiring. I highly recommend it as Soul Plan was a real eye-opener for me. Thank you Blue Marsden! They have every right to do so. As it says in the book; Numerology, New Ageisms, annoying symbols, you name it, you can find it in this book. The proposed technique seems all right at first but going deeper into the book it just unfolds as unbearably unrealistic. Yes, some people will definitely like this write up, I am just not one of them. Q and A section stinks of unscientific mysticism, and Stars of David popping up on most of the pages are just unnerving no offence intended. This book dives a bad name to real An amusing try to change humanity! This book dives a bad name to real Spirituality, will avoid the Author in the future for my own sake. This is such a book. Here is an invaluable gift and support to those seeking greater clarity on lifes purpose. I have been inspired to finally let go of old dramas and give myself permission to enjoy doing what I enjoy doing. If you are in a rut or dissatisfied with your lot do take a look at your souls plan. Reconnect with your True Life Purpose When looking for answers to who you are, why you are or why there is trouble, suffering or confusion in your life, Soul Plan can be immensely helpful and uplifting. I had my Soul plan read with a wonderful lady named Catherine Noueiri in London. Catherine is a student of Blue Marsden who wrote Soul Plan: All that was requested by Catherine to draw up my Soul Plan was my full birth name. No date of birth or time of birth as with astrology – just my full name. Catherine requested this a few days prior to the reading so she could work out the plan and little did I know just how much time and effort goes into one of these beauties! Reconnect with your True Life Purpose What you see here in the ancient symbol of the hexagram and the Star of Creation with symbols, text and numbers all tailored to you. The code grants you access to a deeper understanding of your life whilst enhancing what you intuitively know already. Based on the ancient Hebrew Gematria and that each letter holds a numerical value or creative force of energy, Soul Plan is an eclectic mix of ancient science, vision and theories. It goes far deeper than what I have described so you can read more details on the subject here; www. It baffled me, for in my head a birthday or numbers hold more power when it comes to decoding the human spirit. It was so exciting to witness many doors opening purely based on the vibrations of the letters in my name. Especially as what Catherine was describing based on these symbols and numbers perfectly matched who I am. Do you truly understand at your core that our language and its vibrations directly affect not just our personal lives but the lives of our society and humanity itself? Throughout the session and the follow up document, recommended actions and affirmations tailored to you specifically are highlighted and one suggested affirmation to deal with overcoming my Worldly challenge was: The Soul Plan is a personal insight into what makes you, you. There are countless routes to choose from when it comes to understanding who you are. Reconnect with your True Life Purpose For me this is what is so incredibly exciting about life – there is no one path, you get to create it for yourself and having your Soul Plan can be a wonderful bonus along the way. It offers direction whilst placing you in the grander scale of your universal purpose and purpose on Earth. You are here to draw people to your projects, services or work as you bring in and radiate an unconditionally loving presence and vibration in the world. She even said the energy associated with in my chart is Scorpio. Synchronicity, alignment, reminders – this has it all. In conclusion, what I loved most about my session with Catherine was her intuition, her grace, how knowledgeable she was and able to connect with me through my true self. I was pleasantly surprised at the accuracy that came from this reading. It was uplifting and ended with a gorgeous guided meditation that rang every bell imaginable in my spirit and heart. What did those bells sing?
