Kalam - 1 - Poem by Sultan Bahu Autoplay next video These false prophets Were never disciples themselves, But they contrive to make disciples of others. As an act of seeming benefaction, But they swindle their disciples Of their money and belongings; They fear not the wrath of God, Crooked in their ways, they lose their footing. In the slippery game of outward love, Say Bahu: They will regret their doings on the day of judgement 2 Accursed is life in this world; Twice as accursed are they who are attached to it. Those who have not dedicated their lives to God, Shall suffer the unrelenting blows of destiny. Abominable is this sly world - It can even prompt a father to kill his own son. Those who have renounced this world, Will enjoy the delights of the garden That is eternally in bloom. I have seen the whole spectacle of past, present and future Pass before my eyes. Those who have not realized God will wander, Homeless in this world, destitute in the next. But watch the lovers dance with ecstasy, As they merge into the oneness of God. What has become of these faces, That once beamed with youth and vivacity? Love is like musk that cannot stay hidden: Its fragrance cannot but reveal its presence. Now there is neither nearness nor union. There is no longer a journey to undertake, No longer a destination to reach. Love attachment, my body and soul, And even the very limits of time and space Have all dropped from my consciousness. My separate self has merged in the Whole: In that, O Bahu, lies the secret of the unity that is God! Since then has my heart flowered. With the inner urge to return Home, Giving me not a moment of calm here on earth. May doom strike this world! It robs souls on their way to God. The world has never accepted his lovers; They are persecuted and left to cry in pain. He has taught me how to captivate, The heart of my charming Beloved. He keeps me in his thoughts eternally, He always makes me do his will. He himself grants me his wisdom, O Bahu, He himself moulds me into his own real Self. Both my denial that the Creation is real And my embracing of God, the only reality, Have nourished the seedling down to its core. Constantly it burns in my heart with intense heat, Revealing the mysteries along my path. This fire of love burns inside me with no smoke, Fueled by my intense longing for the Beloved. My love has brought me face to face with him. Instead, your learning and scholarship, Have sharpened your greed for worldly things. Indeed, none but the Saints can kill this inner thief, For it ravages the very house in which it lives.

Spiritual Transmission that transcends space-time Speaking of the ability of illuminated beings for spiritual transmission and guidance transcending space-time limitations, we have an example of an Wali a friend of God , a saint of specially elevated spiritual rank, one of those who attained God, someone who passed away from this temporal world more than three hundred years ago, leaving behind gifted writings of such spiritual magnitude that he could boldly prescribe his writings as enough for seekers of truth to guide them to their goal. It is also reported by advanced saints of later days of how simply reading, writing the works of the venerated saint caused spiritual ecstasy and elevated visions. This is what a servant of God who was bestowed special grace, who wrote about his divinely inspired writings: Entire ranks of the world and the religion, he will achieve through this book. About obtaining companionship of such personalities of truth, God commands in the Scripture, "O you who have faith! Be mindful of your duty to God, and be with the being of truth swadiqin. He is one of the most popular saint in Indian-Sub Continent. The characteristics of the name has multidimensional qualitative features. It has been seen and experienced by many a true seeker that by simply mentioning or hearing his name, the seeker has gone into ecstasy proclaiming Ya Hu Haqq Bahu. You may read details of his life and biography from Biography of Sultan Bahu. Esoterically, Hazrat Sultan Bahu was initiated by the Prophet Muhammad himself, profound peace and blessings be upon his soul. He received instructions and spiritual guidance from the fountain head of all lights himself and was accepted as a child of light in the court of Hazrat Bibi Fatima, the lady of light and her husband Ali. In one treatise Sultan Bahu refers to this esoteric initiation as: Esoteric initiation in the life of the saint was experienced on two occasions. In his own words, "Once in my youth a very handsome and awe-inspiring person on horseback approached me. He held my hand and asked me to accompany him. I asked him who he was. All the Prophets, companions, the four successors together with the Paak Panjetan the immaculate five were present. This was a most illustrious court, heavenly in nature, full of light and tranquility. The Holy Prophet was seated above all the others bestowing light and blessings like a shining star. The Holy Prophet was very much pleased to see me and putting me on his lap initiated me as his spiritual son. Thereafter all the Holy Personalities present in the assembly did likewise putting me on their laps. The second initiation took place in the years of maturity. Second time too, he was present in the court of the Holy Prophet. Imam Ali and the Holy Prophet asked me to stretch forth my hands. Taking both my hands into his, the Holy Prophet initiated me and I was blessed with his special Tawajjuh spiritual attention , love, care and barakah blessings. After being blessed by the greatest Saint, all the holy personalities in the assembly blessed me with their spiritual light and barakah. The Prophet then addressed me that I should guide the true seekers to the Path of Allah. So this is a very tiny glimpse of who Sultan Bahu is. Authority and Power of Saints continue beyond the shores of life and death In Islam, wilayat, the condition of wali, refers uniquely to the gnostic station of a person. The station of a wali is the station of knowledge of the Real by direct witnessing. It is a well known fact that in the temporal world, an officer loses his powers after retirement or on death, but not so for the saints of Allah. In the spiritual world the powers of the saints of Allah remain as good as they were in their lifetime. Just as they illuminated the hearts and the minds of the people during their lifetime, so too, after their taking veil from the temporal world, they continue to illuminate the seekers after truth. One should not be surprised by such occurrences. He penned a great number of treatises under divine inspirations ilham. The following is a list of the important works of Sultan Bahu that still exist today, and can be traced back to him with credibility: In this age of difficulty in finding a perfect spiritual master Due to simplicity, and effectively of these works, one is almost obliged to think that this great holy personality knew through intuition that there will be a time like the present, when it will be difficult to find a perfect spiritual master. This is the reason, perhaps, why Hazrat Sultan Bahu clothed his spiritual treasure and barakah in the shape of his books. It influences the seekers so much so that he is strengthened in his resolve for higher knowledge. Your living and dying should be for Allah
