A Beary Merry Christmas Mini Theme Take pictures of the children and their teddies during the day to put pictures in album to share with parents. It is a lot of fun and emphasizes on the sharing aspect with others. Going on a Bear Huntâ€¦ Let the children act out the story were going on a bear hunt. Teddy Bear Sortingâ€¦ Let the children count the total number of teddy bears Ask the children to sort the teddy bears by categories size, color, those wearing bows, etc. Then count the number in each category. Also, let the children come up with ideas for categories. Talk about more and less. Review the concepts of heavy and light by having one child at a time hold a different teddy bear in each hand. Which bear feels heavier? Provide a balance scale to compare the weights of different bears. Size up the bears by having the children line up their teddy bears from shortest to tallest. Teddy Bear Freezeâ€¦ Put some jazzy music on and encourage the children to make their bear dance the way the music makes them want to dance. If you do not have a parachute, a sheet works well. Hide and Seekâ€¦ The children hide their eyes and count while their bears are hidden. Books Art Bear Hug â€¦ Precut bear shape from green or red poster board. Make hole punches all around and allow the children to sew in and out of the holes with red or green ribbon. Glue a pocket on the front of their bear and add a message in the pocket. Add a ribbon or string for hanging as well. Bear Necklaceâ€¦ Cut out the bear shape from sandpaper. Rub cinnamon sticks on bears cut from sandpaper. Punch a hole in the bear and wear for a necklace. Making Parade Floatsâ€¦ Use any type boxes you have saved to have the children make and decorate a float for their bear to be pulled in a teddy bear parade. Attach yarn or cord to their boxes for the children to pull their teddies float. Play music and have the children put on a parade for the teachers. Snack Indoor Picnicâ€¦ Make sandwiches bologna and cheese, peanut butter and jelly cut into triangles and lemonade. Add in fruit, chips, cookies, etc. Tape bear paw prints to follow to the indoor picnic. Tape bear paw prints on the floor to lead the children to a picnic. Bring in large paper towels that has teddy bears on them for placemats. The kids chose their food from the picnic table and sit on the floor around the tablecloths. Enjoy Gummy Bearsâ€¦ Treat your children to a snack of gummy bears.
