

Chapter 1 : poems | Academy of American Poets

The edition of The Best American Poetry will exceed the expectations of the many thousands of readers who eagerly await the annual arrival of this "truly memorable anthology" (Chicago Tribune).

Thanks to technology and a world-class cooking staff, I can offer my patrons any food that they desire. However, they must book their table three days in advance! If their wish is for a dish like their mama used to cook, they need only provide my chefs with the recipe or its description. If their palate leans to the exotic, they need only give its name. My research team, like no other, can track down any foreign dish. We can do it all! Everyone wants to come here! By the way, my restaurant has become a tourist attraction. Renowned for its varied and eclectic menus, it is visited by thousands daily. If restaurants were malls, mine would be the largest and the most incredible. Patrons may reserve a private room or choose a table from one of many wondrous atmospheric sections. From jungle room to bar and grill to futurist where servers dress in pristine white, I have over one hundred types of settings to match the mood and the type of food; some with karaoke, some with splendid views, utilizing IMAX, for example, some with magic shows, others with comedy, and one room with a waterfall where divers perform amazing feats. There are classic sections where patrons may dance in ballroom style; imagine any type of music you like, I am sure we have it in one of our beautiful sections! For the romantics, candlelight dinners can be enjoyed next to a faux River Seine. Tourists, for a small fee, may observe the many rooms in a guided tour. We use technology that allows the tours to not disturb our diners. Favorite recipes may be purchased from us too in our gift shops. Souvenirs and samples of our most popular food items are sold there along with a wide array of unique gifts! No endangered specie, such as monkey or koala will be served here! Getting ready to enter the contest I noticed I had misread the rules.
