It might seem strange that our organization, which is dedicated to the overthrow of the US capitalist class of many of whom have ancestors who fought and died in the American Revolution would celebrate the victory of the then-emerging US capitalist class over the British royalists. But we recognize that the American Revolution was a major step forward on the road to the emancipation of the working class internationally. Even though the US revolution was led by a coalition of rather conservative mercantile capitalists and slave-owning aristocrats, the principles that were promulgated by the US revolutionaries broke new legal and philosophical ground that would lead inevitably to the development of the theory of the class struggle and the socialist ideas of Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels. In other words, the socialist movement owes a great debt to the revolutionary thinkers and actors of the US revolution men and women like John Parker , Prince Estabrook , Mercy Otis Warren , Thomas Paine , Deborah Sampson , Tadeusz Kosciuszko , and the thousands of unsung heroic brave working men and women. No military, no King, no ruling class is too powerful to be brought down by the united power of the working class! The British found this out in ; time and again the modern US capitalist class has been forced to submit to the strength of the insurrectionary working class as they took on the most powerful military in the world that of the United States and won. The US working class, too, will someday prove the naysayers wrong, following the trail blazed by the heroes of , , , , , and It is the duty of every decent member of the US working class to dedicate their lives and fortunes to the overthrow of this savage ruling class, responsible for the deaths of tens of millions of our sister and brother workers all across the globe and the continuing torture and murder of our brothers and sisters right here in the US via the US national security police state and its prison-industrial system. As in the US Revolution, where the Sons of Liberty, the Committees of Correspondence and the Provincial Congresses constituted the leading vanguard of the revolution in their day, today we need to create political parties capable of taking power from the ruling class and of taking the responsibility of running this country in the interests of the working class. A Leninist-Trotskyist vanguard workers party is the modern-day equivalent for the workers that the Sons of Liberty and the Montagnards were for the emerging bourgeoisie. Without a revolutionary socialist vanguard party to lead the working class in struggle, there can be no victory for the workers. EVERY successful revolution, from to today, has been led by a vanguard party of some kind. By doing so, rather than putting a final end to capitalism, which is a system by which a tiny minority of wealthy people exploit the working class of the whole world, ends up keeping this decrepit system on life support. In its place we will build an egalitarian, democratic workers government where the exploitation of man by man will cease to exist. Workers of the World, Unite! The article below was transcribed by us from the copy of the newspaper available on line at the Massachusetts Historical Society. The Particulars relative to this interesting Event, by which we are involved in all the Horrors of a civil War, we have endeavoured to collect as well as the present confused State of Affairs will admit. The People were soon alarmed, and began to assemble, in several Towns, before Day-Light, in order to watch the Motion of the Troops. Eight of our Men were killed, and nine wounded. Here about Men going towards a Bridge, of which the Enemy were in Possession, the latter fired, and killed 2 of our Men, who then returned the Fire, and obliged the Enemy to retreat back to Lexington, where they met Lord Percy, with a large Reinforcement, with two Pieces of Cannon. They also set Fire to several other Houses, but our People extinguished the Flames. It appeared to be their Design to burn and destroy all before them ; and nothing but our vigorous Pursuit prevented their infernal Purposes from being put in Execution. But the savage Barbarity exercised upon the Bodies of our unfortunate Brethren who fell, is almost incredible: Not content with shooting down the unarmed, aged and infirm, they disregarded the Cries of the wounded, killing them without Mercy, and mangling their Bodies in the most shocking Manner. The following is a List of the Provincials who were killed and wounded. James

Miles of Concord. James Howard, of Acton. Azael Porter, and Mr. Daniel Thompson, of Woborn. James Miller, and Capt. Henry Putnam of Medford. Jotham Webb, and Perley Putnam, of Danvers. Benjamin Peirce, of Salem. John Lane, of Bedford. George Reed, and Mr. Jacob Bacon, of Woborn. William Polly, of Medford. Joshua Felt, and Mr. Timothy Munroe, of Lynn. Nathan Putnam, and Mr. Dennis Wallis, of Danvers. Nathaniel Cleaves, of Beverly. Samuel Frost, and Mr. Seth Russell of Menotomy. We have seen an Account of the Loss of the Enemy, said to have come from an Officer of one of the Men of War ; by which it appears that 63 of the Regulars, and 49 Marines were killed, and of both wounded: Gould of the 4th Regiment, who is wounded, and Lieut. Potter of the Marines, and about twelve Soldiers, are Prisoners. James Howard and one of the Regulars discharged their Pieces at the same Instant, and each killed the other. Our late Brethren of Danvers, who fell fighting for their Country, were interred, with great Solemnity and Respect, on Friday last. The Public most sincerely sympathize with the Friends and Relations of our deceased Brethren, who gloriously sacrificed their Lives in fighting for the Liberties of their Country. By their noble, intrepid Conduct, in helping to defeat the Forces of an ungrateful Tyrant, they have endeared their Memories to the present Generation, who will transmit their Names to Posterity with the highest Honour. We suppose a circumstantial Account will be prepared and published by Authority. The above is the best we have been able to obtain. We can only add, that the Town of Boston is now invested by a vast Army of our brave Countrymen, who have flown to our Assistance from all Quarters. Marblehead Harbour is now blocked up by the Lively Man of War.

History[ edit ] Nathan Burrill and Caleb Hersey established the paper in in Haverhill ; politically it supported the Federalists. In the paper absorbed the Essex Patriot. Thayer, John Greenleaf Whittier. The new competition was founded after several local business owners sought out a new newspaper to carry its advertising without offending the sensibilities of the significant numbers of Haverhill residents who were members of various shoe manufacturing unions. They prevailed on Loeb to publish a free shopper. Loeb, encouraged by favorable reaction to the first editions of the shopper, launched a daily in December Haverhill this became one of only three cities in Massachusetts with newspapers owned by competing publishers, the others being in Boston and Lynn. Other members of a 96 publisher association also owned less significant stakes. Loeb sued the Haverhill Gazette Co. In his ruling, Judge Charles Wyzanski found that based on costs and revenues for newspaper publishing "Haverhill is economically a one newspaper city. After losing on appeal Loeb suspended the Journal after losing the federal court case which found his company had violated anti-trust laws to keep the journal in business.
