noticed this wasn't up on youtube but the album version was, this 'demo' version is actually better than the album version.

Joseph is one of those holy men often overlooked because he is not mentioned very often in the Bible. Basically, Joseph is the ultimate dad: He gives his life to the service of his family, and does so with a quiet humility, not wanting any recognition. Joseph, the ultimate dad, can teach us. What can we learn about this simple, humble man who raised Jesus? And how can we implore his intercession today? Lessons from Joseph

Joseph was a normal human being, born with original sin just like you and me. However, God called him to lead the Holy Family. His wife and Son were sinless, yet they still honored and obeyed Joseph as the head of their household. Can you imagine that? How humbling it must have been for Joseph to raise the Son of God, watching Christ obey and learn from him, a mere human being!!! God chose Joseph to be the earthly father of Jesus because He knew Joseph had the virtue, humility, and patience to raise the Son of God. Through his example, Joseph shows us what true, selfless love looks like. Joseph is a role model who teaches that the contemplative and active life must be blended and harmonized; that love is not the same as romantic daydreams, but must be enfolded in a life of self-sacrifice and service to others that unfolds in the circumstances of the real world and in the profoundly human context of marriage and family. Joseph is one of the best examples of a human being carrying out his vocation with complete humility, self-sacrifice, and love. Yet, through it all, he remembered it was not about Him, but about his wife and Child whom he was protecting. Joseph teaches us that our lives should not be about fulfilling selfish desires and self-seeking ambitions, but about selfless love and service of those around us. Joseph at any time, the Catholic Church has named him the patron saint of a happy death, patron saint of families, patron saint of the Church, and patron saint of workers. Joseph is a patron saint for wherever you are in life! Many great saints have also spoke of how special a devotion to St. Joseph], for I know by long experience what blessings he can obtain for us from God. I have never known anyone who was truly devoted to him and honored him by particular services who did not advance greatly in virtue: Joseph has the power to assist us in all cases, in every necessity, in every undertaking. Thomas Aquinas Whether you are working, raising a family, figuring out your vocation, or have a loved one who is dying, St. Joseph has been through it all and wants to help you through it, too. Being able to ask St. Joseph we can use to ask for his intercession. Joseph scapular , St. However, my personal favorite devotion to St. During some of my most difficult times, St. Joseph has been like a dad up there in heaven for me. He comforted me and helped show me the way, just like he did with his own family over 2, years ago. Joseph, pray for us! From the depths of my soul, Josie.

The Grateful Dead also recorded the tune as an early single. And this note from a reader: Wed, 12 Mar In the Gemara, or Jewish oral law that was written down, a book dealing with the subject of fasts and fast days closes on a happy note very similar to the lyrics in The Golden Road. The following passage is from the Babylonian Talmud, tractate Tannis, page 31, side A, lines Bold writing means literal translation and regular print is accompanying explanations: Ulla Biraah said in the name of Rabbi Elazar: In the future the Holy One, Blessed is He, will make a circle of all the righteous people, and he will sit among them, in the middle of the circle, in the Garden of Eden; and each and every one will point with his finger toward Him, as it says: He shall say on that day, "Behold! This is our God; we hoped to Him and He saved us; this is Hashem to Whom we hoped; let us exult and be glad in His salvation. This is our God This comment has been brought down from tradition since the beginning of the torah, as given by famous Jewish commentator and explainer Rashi. Further comment of the same magnitude, but of a different rabbi, yields us more on this passage. The following is a paraphrasing of the works on the above cited section by the great Pri Tzaddick, from his commentary on the biblical section of Korach: The Gemara thus teaches that in the future God will significantly reveal Himself to the righteous, and that, further, they will perceive the revelation equally. For a circle has no or end; rather, all points in the circle are equidistant from the center. Similarly, all the righteous people pivilaged to join this circle will be in equal proximity to the Divine light emanating from the center. This all written down hundreds of years before any member of the Grateful Dead was born. Take it for it for its worth. This note, from another point of view, on the same line: Saturday, March 15, 6: I remember hearing stories about certain groups of people attaching great significance to days or times when this would occur. I remember one instance that this occured at a Dead show that I attended, Irvine ? Thanks for the absolutely wonderful site. My husband and I often refer to it when we need reference to a lyric. Compare the first line of the earliest recorded song in the history of the English language, "Cuckoo Song":
