Namely, the player is the hero and the good guys always win. Play the campaign mode of a Battlefield game. Each story is unique and uses a distinct narrative to draw you in -- but they all also fall back on the same heroism tropes used in other war games. Clever writing goes a long way toward softening some of these war hero cliches. By Sean Buckley seaniccus Sean has a nasty habit of disassembling nearby gadgets. A fortune cookie promised him he would one day work at Engadget. What else is there to know?
